Thanksgiving is Coming

We have everything you need for the table in the grocery line. That's our specialty. We do not claim to be better or wiser than others but we are careful of the goods we handle. There's a lot to lose but very little to gain by trying to use cheap things. Our prices are always reasonable and our quality always speaks for itself.

ranch at Allegany, is having it cleared and expects to convert it into one of the finest fruit and dairy tracts in this section. He has a stump puller and a force of men at work on it now.

Divorced in 'Frisco.—A San Francisco paper of recent date announces that a Mrs. Reichert, formerly of Coos Bay, was granted a divorce there.

Open Electrical Supply Office.—C. W. Merchant returned on the Alliance today from a trip to San Francisco and Portland where he has been arranging for goods to open an electrical supply store here. He will also do all kinds of wiring and guarantee all of his work.

To Buy Furniture.—The Marshfield school board has received bids on the furniture for the new high school building and will shortly award the contract. The contract for the laboratory equipment will also be let soon. Unless unexpected difficulties are encountered, the school will be ready for occupancy soon after the holiday vacation.

May Buy Mine.—Negotiations are pending for the purchase of the Maxwell mines which have been lying idle for some time. A careful investigation of the property was recently made and an offer was made to the principal owners who are understood to reside in San Francisco. The mine has become flooded since it was last operated and it will be necessary to pump it out before work can be resumed in it.

Falls and Breaks Leg.—E. O. Hall, the real estate man, fell and sustained a broken leg while en route home Saturday evening. It was quite dark and he did not notice a broken plank in the narrow walk leading from the elevated roadway to his home near the stove mill. He stepped into it and fell, breaking both bones about midway between the ankle and knee. His cries attracted aid and he was soon removed to his home where he was cared for.

Electricity Bad.—The electric service during the last few days, has reminded the customers of a year ago. The current has been unsteady. This morning, there was no service from 5 o'clock until about 9 o'clock and this afternoon, it was a quarter of an hour late in starting. A pipe bursting caused the trouble this morning. General Manager Bell says that it will soon be all right again and that the company will be furnishing service twenty-four hours a day and seven days a week.

J. H. BRIDGES PLEAS'D WITH CITY'S DEVELOPMENT

Says That Marshfield Improvements During Recent Months Are More Than Gratifying.

J. H. Bridges of Reno, Nev., owner of the Garfield hotel block on Front street and who figured on building a hotel in Marshfield, arrived here late Saturday to look after his property interests. He expects to spend a week or ten days here.

Mr. Bridges is greatly pleased with the improvements that have been made since he was here several months ago, and is more convinced than ever of the future of this city. He has been figuring on remodeling or improving the Garfield block but has not definitely made up his mind about it. He does not expect to attempt to erect another hotel here for the present.

T. M. DIMMICK's new home in Centerville is nearing completion and the family expects to occupy it this week.

MR. and MRS. E. POLEXPEN returned from San Francisco on the M. F. Plant today to spend the winter with relatives here. They have leased their home in San Francisco for the winter months. It is possible that they may decide to make their permanent home here.

CULLINGS OF COQUILLE.

Interesting News of the Valley as Told by the Herald.

Grandma Crowley, mother of Mrs. J. B. Fox, of this city, is dead. The old lady recently passed her 95th birthday and had been feeble for some time.

Quite a serious accident occurred in the sawmill of Col. Rosa, near Bandon one day last week, resulting in considerable damage to one of the engines. The crank pin broke with the result that the cross-head was broken and the machine was otherwise damaged. Mr. Rosa went to the Bay Monday for the purpose of getting a new cross-head.

Born in Coquille, to Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, a daughter.

Miss Nellie Brown was a passenger from Marshfield to this city.

J. A. Yoakam has completed plans and specifications for the new business house on First street on the lots formerly occupied by Fox's second hand store. The building will be two stories high and the upstairs will be fitted up into rooms for the Tuttle Hotel while the lower floor will be a store room. Grant Harry is the owner.

Mrs. Margaret Baker formerly of Myrtle Point, who had spent the last month or so at the home of her nephew, J. H. Hodge, of Fishtrap, died on the 26th inst., aged 71 years 10 months and 21 days. The funeral took place at the Fishtrap cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. J. N. McConnel, of this city.

Miss Callie Chandler, of Myrtle Point, was a passenger to Coquille by Thursday's train and took the Liberty for Bandon, being on her way to Port Orford where she has been engaged to teach a term of school. This will be her third term in that place.

H. G. Stratton, of this city, started yesterday for Portland with his aged father, the Rev. Dr. Stratton, who is in feeble health. The old gentleman will remain in that city till his son is located on the bay side after the steamer Liberty is taken around.

J. P. Messer who has been at St. Martin's Springs for several weeks, returned home by last Friday's Breakwater. He is feeling better than he has for many months, but did not exactly enjoy the rough trip by sea.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Hawkins, of Oakland, California, arrived by the last Plant and are enjoying a visit with relatives and friends in the Coquille valley. They stopped first with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moomaw, Mrs. Moomaw being a niece of Mrs. Hawkins.

A special school meeting for Coquille district has been called for Saturday, December 5, to decide by vote whether or not a tax shall be levied for school purposes. If the question is decided in the affirmative, the district will have the benefit of nine months' school this year.

Jack Hannis disposed of his one-half interest in the Crews cigar and billiard rooms Wednesday, and he left the same day enroute for the east.
