PEACE RESTORED IN PORT AU PRINCE AFTER EXCITING NIGHT

Pillaging and Looting Follows Driving Out of President Nord Alexis.

TWELVE ARE SLAIN DURING OUTBREAK

Revolutionary Army Expected to Reach Capital of Hayti Tonight.

(By Associated Press.)
PORT AU PRINCE, Hayti, Dec. 3.—Stirring events followed the exciting historical day that saw President Nord Alexis driven from his capital by an infuriated mob, was followed by a night of looting and pillaging in Port Au Prince. The mob was rapidly getting the upper hand when the authorities succeeded in controlling the situation. Twelve men were killed before order was restored.

Had the disorders occurred in day light, it is probable that armed forces from the American or French warships would have been landed. No foreign soldiers were sent ashore.

At a meeting of the committee on public safety today, General Hidevine, who last night saved the city from worse disorders, was made military governor of Port Au Prince with a sufficient force at his disposal to maintain order.

General Simon, leader of the successful revolutionary movement, is making a forced march with 5,000 men on Port Au Prince, and is expected to arrive this evening.

The British cruiser Scylla and the American gunboat Eagle arrived in port at daybreak, making five foreign warships in the harbor.

SEND MEN TO VALE CONGRESS

F. B. Tichenor Is Added to Coos Bay's Delegation to Development Meeting.

F. B. Tichenor of Portland, who was in Marshfield yesterday visiting the scenes of his childhood, has been named as one of the Marshfield delegates to the next convention of the Oregon-Idaho Development congress which will be held at Vale, December 17, 18 and 19. He will aid Col. Wm. Grimes and others in boosting Coos Bay at the congress.

G. A. Hurley of Vale, has just issued the following call for the convention:

"The third meeting of the Oregon-Idaho Development congress will be held in Vale, Oregon, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, December 17, 18, 19. Every one interested in the development of the northwest is invited to be present at this meeting and help in its deliberations. The programme has not yet been fully outlined. TWO VESSELS ON RUN IS RUMOR

Portland Paper Says Southern Pacific May Put On Another Boat.

PORTLAND, Dec. 3.—The Telegram says: "C. J. Mills, general agent of the Portland & Coos Bay Steamship Company, Marshfield, was a passenger on the Breakwater from Coos Bay last night. Mr. Mills is here to look into the business prospect at this end of the line for the season. For awhile there was talk that the company would place another steamer in service between Portland and Coos Bay. It is said that this plan has not been wholly abandoned. There appears to be only one drawback in carrying out such a programme and that is because of the light southbound shipments. Returning the Breakwater has been bringing from 300 to 400 tons of coal during the past month or so. On this trip 300 tons of the fuel and 3000 cases of salmon. She also had a list of 75 passengers."

Peterson to Succeed Olson.
"Peterson, first officer of the Breakwater, may be appointed captain of the Alliance to take the place of Captain Olson, who has tendered his resignation, to take effect as soon as the vacancy can be filled. Peterson holds master's papers and he has been recommended for the position. He was in the navy during the Spanish-American war, taking part in a number of engagements. He has been on the Breakwater since she was placed on the Portland-Coos Bay run."

ATTIRED IN HIS WIFE'S CLOTHES, MAN HANGS SELF

Kansas Cityan Lamented Fact He Could Not Buy Bride Diamonds and Silks.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 3.—Dressed completely in his young wife's party clothes, Gordon Kyle, 24 years of age, hanged himself in his home at 1708 Bellevue avenue. The noose was made from two of his wife's hair ribbons and a strap from her suitcase. This he tied to the foot of an iron bed and deliberately sat until he was strangled. About two hours later he was found dead by his wife, Maud Cox Kyle.

They had been married two months, during which the young husband lamented the fact that his wife could not have diamonds and jewels and clothes such as some women wear.

RED FOX WITH WHITE FEET.

"Rarer Than a White Blackbird," Lucky Connecticut Trapper Says.

WNISTED, Conn., Dec. 3.—A big red fox with four white feet was trapped by John Hall, of Sherman. Hall, an experienced trapper, says a fox with white feet is rarer than a white blackbird and that he will get a good price for this, one of the biggest foxes ever seen in these parts. He has it in an iron cage with three other live foxes and four raccoons.

Hall has been very lucky this season. While hunting last week he shot two raccoons, together weighing fifty pounds, in one tree. He has trapped twenty-two foxes, besides other animals. He has fourteen live skunks in a cage. He can handle the skunks without worse result than if they were chickens.

closer unity between Oregon and Idaho, the needs of each state, and such other subjects as may suggest themselves to the programme committee.

"A five-minute talk will be given by one member from each delegation upon the greatest need of his section and how best to bring about the desired results."

MYSTERY IN FRISCO DEATH

Police and Detectives Work On Several Clues In Boas Poisoning Case.

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Henry Boas, a salesman, died in his room early today, from poison contained in a letter, mailed in this city, containing two powders which were stated to be for the relief of indigestion and the directions for their use were signed "Charles McHower, Md." The detectives are at work.

The letter were delivered yesterday by special delivery and the evidence in the hands of the police show it was written by a woman. Acting on clues in the dead man's papers, detective were sent today to San Jose to interview Mrs. G. G. Walker of that city whose daughter is said to have been a friend of Boas. The letter was dated so as to indicate that it was written in San Jose, but it was mailed here. The envelope is missing today. The letter was signed for by the elevator tender in the absence of Boas. The signature on the letter is so illegible that it is capable of three readings. Boas informed his mother and sisters that he was going to take some powders to relieve his indigestion and several hours later they heard screams of agony from his room. Physicians were summoned and diagnosed his case as poisoning. Boas died within a few minutes.

Mrs. G. G. Walker says she knew Boas intimately but had not seen him or heard from him until informed of his death since two months ago when he visited San Jose.

USE DYNAMITE TO SAVE CITY

Wider Channel For Arkansas River Proves Effective at Pine Bluff.

(By Associated Press.)
PINE BLUFF, Ark., Dec. 3.—Radical and determined methods were used by unknown parties last night in their efforts to divert the swift current of the Arkansas river from Pine Bluff's banks. Throughout the night explosions of dynamite which was freely used in the attempt to protect the city, were heard. Today the river is sweeping by the city in a wider channel with less force on the endangered banks. It is expected to recede tonight. The Jefferson hotel and the court house annex are intact today.

The use of dynamite was in direct defiance of the government officials who forbade its use. Citizens feel that their drastic action was warranted by conditions and that the results show the benefit of the blasting.

COUNTS WHILE ASLEEP.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Attracted by the $5,000 offer of the Metropolitan Psychological society of this city to the person who can count a number of oranges without seeing them, a man in Oakland City, Ind., comes forward with the assertion that he is ready to make good his auto-suggestion and claim the money.

Dr. L. S. Trusler of the Indiana town has written to the society, telling of the claims of the man for whom he stands sponsor, saying that he is ready to count the oranges when information as to their location is supplied. Where they are makes no difference to the mysterious man, it is said, but he must have them located before proceeding.

To add interest to the test he proposes to do the counting while asleep. The society has replied to the offer, requesting that a number of preliminary tests be gone through to determine the subject's power and his good faith in the matter. Hundreds of offers to try for the $5,000 are received by the society daily.

PORTLAND BANKER TO BUILD ROSEBURG AND COOS BAY LINE?

WATER FRONT CLEANUP DAY

F. B. Tichenor Urges It For Marshfield For Benefit of New Comers.

"Marshfield should have a waterfront clean-up day," declared F. B. Tichenor of Portland, a former Coos Bay man and still an ardent booster of this section, who was here yesterday in the interests of the Woodmen of the World of which he is the general organizer. "Everybody in Marshfield should get in on it and if the owners of some of the worst looking buildings on the waterfront won't personally pay for painting them and making them presentable, raise a small fund and hire a man to white-wash them. It won't cost much and it will be worth thousands of dollars to Marshfield."

"Marshfield people don't realize the necessity of having an attractive waterfront, forgetting that every stranger who comes here must get his first impression of the city by its waterfront. Men with money who come in here get a bad impression of the city on the start and it offsets the effect of the great improvements that are being made in the city. I have heard a number, who have visited here, criticize Marshfield severely for leaving its waterfront in the condition that it is."

"There is going to be a great influx of people here within the next year, people from all over the country who are looking for a new location. With the new hotel, the paved streets and handsome business blocks, the city will be able to accommodate them and keep them. It was too bad that Marshfield wasn't better prepared a couple of years ago when a large number of outsiders started coming in. Many were displeased with the prospects and went away."

"By all means, though, have a 'Waterfront Clean-up Day' and have the boxes, lumber and waste removed, have the old buildings painted or whitewashed and put up a front that is in keeping with the remainder of the city."

REV. WILSON WEDS.

Portland's Bachelor Divine Surprises His Friends.

PORTLAND, Dec. 3.—Dr. Clarence True Wilson, pastor of the Centenary Methodist church, was married to Mrs. Maud Akin Tift, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Akin. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Benjamin Young, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, assisted by Rev. J. W. McDougall, in the presence of a few close friends and relatives. Dr. and Mrs. Wilson left later for a short honeymoon trip to Hood River.

Dr. Wilson was for several years pastor of the Grace Methodist Episcopal church, in which the bride and her parents had been enthusiastic workers for a number of years. The new benedict was transferred to his present pastorate a year and a half ago.

While rumors to the effect that Dr. Wilson contemplated matrimony had been rife among intimate friends of both parties for some time, these rumors had no authoritative confirmation. Giving up the "lonesome life" by Dr. Wilson, however, has caused some comment, for he has always been regarded as a most confirmed bachelor.

Project New to Marshfield People Who Only Know "Something Is Doing."

ROSEBURG, Ore., Dec. 3.—M. M. Johnson, assistant secretary of the Equitable Savings and Loan Association, and treasurer of the Columbia Life and Trust Company, of Portland, has been in Roseburg this week with reference to the possibilities for promotion of an electric railway from Roseburg to Coos Bay. Mr. Johnson has no plans outlined for such a project; he is merely looking into "possibilities."

Mr. Johnson interviewed several of Roseburg's leading business men with the object of getting some idea of what amount of business could be assured for a railway between this city and the bay. He also gathered such other data and information as he might require for future reference. Mr. Johnson will spend some time on Coos Bay in furtherance of his mission.

NEW TO MARSHFIELD.

No One Here Knows of M. M. Johnson's Project.

So far as could be ascertained here today, no one in Marshfield knows of Mr. Johnson's project and his arrival on the bay will be awaited with much interest as many have recently expressed the opinion that the time is ripe for the construction of an electric line from Coos Bay to Roseburg. It has been known for some time that parties interested in electric lines have had their eye on Coos Bay and that they have gathered data concerning the feasibility of the project. General Manager Talbot of the Portland Interurbans, now under construction, is said to have been one of the parties interested in the Coos Bay field but whether Mr. Johnson is identified with him or not is not known.
