

Two Good Policies

to have is one upon your Life and the other upon your Property. You are then protected in a double sense, and your family is also protected in case anything should happen to you, or the house burn down by accident. The cost of either Fire or Life Insurance is infinitesimal in comparison with its great blessings and the actual, substantial protection it affords to both you and your posterity.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

We have been informed that the local merchants have formed a combine and will boycott any wholesale house that sells to us.

We intended buying a great deal of our goods from the local wholesale firms and keeping the money in Marshfield, but, under the circumstances, we will be compelled to send away for all of our stock. Do not wait until you are completely out of anything before ordering, as there are two boats a week, from Portland, so it will not be but a few days at any time, until we can have anything you want in our line. Thanking you for any business you may favor us with, we remain Yours truly, RIEBE WHOLESALE CO.

ter to work for the development of the harbor. Gow Why also contributed $10. G. W. Carleton who has been circulating the subscription paper says that all have been contributing readily as they realize the necessity of boosting Coos Bay now.

Amend Suit.—The action of James Baines against the C. A. Smith Lumber and Manufacturing Company for operating their railway along Sheridan street in front of his property has been amended so that the city of Marshfield is made a joint defendant. W. U. Douglas is his attorney. Mr. Baines claims that the railway is detrimental to his property. The case will come up for trial at the coming session of court.

Goss Gets Ducking.—John D. Goss took a bath yesterday that he had not bargained for. He and George Goodrum, Ray Kaufman and Russ Tower were up Haines Inlet duck hunting. Goss was standing in the front of the boat when the craft lurched suddenly. He went in head first and was finally fished out, the wettest individual that you ever saw. He was taken back to camp, a fire built and some old clothes furnished while his suit was drying. Meanwhile the others went out and secured nineteen birds.

New Company Makes Hit.—Cramer's stock company scored a big hit in "My Friend Brown" at the Masonic Opera House Saturday and Sunday evenings. Last evening, a large audience witnessed the production. Many declared the new company to be the best that has ever played on Coos Bay. The play was a good one, all members of the cast presenting the characters well. Mr. Cramer will play the Coquille valley towns early this week and will return to Coos Bay the latter part of the week. He expects some members for his company from Frisco soon.
