Malthoid Roofing

Mr. C. H. Wagner, Gen. Mgr. Russ Lumber Co., San Diego, Cal., U. S. A., writes as follows: "A fire occurred during the night of August 17th and was not discovered until morning. Blaze had died out as the roofing would not ignite. This roof is covered with your Malthoid Roofing. We consider that the resistance of the Malthoid Roofing stopped the blaze and saved the plant."

Had Long Session.—Last evening's session of the city council was one of the longest drawn out the city council has held recently, it being about 11:35 when the body adjourned and even then there was considerable unfinished business.

Undergoes Operation.—Mrs. G. M. Bailey of Cooson underwent an operation at the Marshfield General hospital yesterday. She is reported getting along nicely. The operation was performed by Dr. Houseworth assisted by Drs. Mings and Straw.

All Licenses Expire.—Deputy Game Warden Cal. Wright calls attention to the fact that all licenses for hunting expire December 31, and says that hunters should remember this fact and see that they secure new ones and comply with the law.

Send Apple Exhibit.—The Chamber of Commerce has sent the box of apples belonging to J. D. Benham which has been on exhibit here and some apples from Phil Wilbur's trees to Yale, to be exhibited at the Oregon-Idaho Development congress there.

Start Boat Line.—Capt. Robt. Dunham and Chief Engineer A. D. Dunham of the Roanoke, are members of a new company which will operate a boat line between Portland and Tillamook. They have secured the Argo which formerly plied in the Coquille trade for the new run. Messrs. Dunham formerly lived here.

Stops Runaway.—E. K. Jones yesterday afternoon stopped a runaway on Front street. The horse, attached to a milk wagon was hitting a merry clip and none of the many onlookers thought that Mr. Jones would be able to stop his wild race. However, a quick grab secured a rein and an instant later the animal was brought to a standstill.

Kill More Rats.—The crusade against rodents in Marshfield continues and rates are getting very scarce. Last evening, the city council allowed Marshal Carter $3.40 for bounties that he had paid boys for the dead rodents, five cents for each rat being allowed.

Start New Store.—E. Crosthwait and others have leased the room in the Garfield block formerly occupied by Smith's Cafe and will shortly start a news stand, cigar and tobacco store, etc., Mr. Crosthwait came here recently from Oklahoma. He left today for Portland to purchase his stock.

Emmett Pierce III.—Emmett Pierce bumped his leg on some logs the other day, and yesterday some peculiar complication set in that caused him much pain, the limb cramping severely. Physicians are unable to explain the peculiar ailment. He is reported much better today.

Goes to Washington.—Walter Lyon will leave tomorrow or next day for Washington where he will endeavor to secure additional appropriations for the development of Coos Bay. En route he will stop at the Oregon-Idaho Development congress at Vale. He will be absent several weeks.

FOR SALE—Launch Bianco, cost new year ago $1,150. Will sell now for $600. Owner going away. See Claude Nagburg, rooms 1, 2 Flanagan & Bennett building.

FOR SALE—An organ, cheap. Apply Phone 1521.

Personal Notes

B. B. OSTLIND of the C. A. Smith mill, is ill of the grip.

MILO PEARSON of Ten Mile, was a Marshfield visitor today.

E. L. C. FARRIN left this morning via Drain for Willamette valley points.

MISS MARY McDONALD of Black Creek, is visiting Marshfield friends.

J. E. COOPER leaves today for Portland where he will spend a few days on business.

HENRY LAIRD of Loon Lake, Douglas county, has been visiting relatives on Coos Bay.

W. L. WALKER, a prominent and energetic citizen of Cooson has been in Marshfield for the past few days on business revelations.

WM. REYNOLDS of Portland, who was here a few days ago with his brother-in-law, F. B. Tichenor, will take a homestead or timber claim near Myrtle Point.

CHARLES HUSSEY, who has charge of the bankrupt store of the United Stores Company here, left today for Portland on business. While he is away, Tom Hall will look after the property.

FRANCIS H. CLARKE left today for Portland to make some preliminary arrangements for the plan to have the Oregon legislature this winter enact legislation that will permit the organization of the Port of Coos Bay and to develop the rivers and harbors of the state.

JOHN SNYDER and family, have moved into their new building at Broadway and Washington where they will conduct the Snyder hotel. Mr. Snyder was engaged in the hotel business here for twenty-four years and his long experience insures the success of the new "Snyder."

J. W. BENNETT writes from Paso Robles that he is rapidly recuperating from the effects of his recent attack of rheumatism and will shortly return home. The news of his complete recovery will be highly gratifying to his many friends throughout this section who will warmly welcome him back. It is expected that Tom Bennett who has been spending some time in Mirsica and other California points will return with him.

ELKS NAME COMMITTEE TO DIRECT THE CENSUS

J. W. Flanagan, E. D. McArthur, P. A. Sandberg, W. R. Haines and L. W. Traver Direct Enumeration

At a conference of the Marshfield Elks at the Chamber of Commerce last evening a committee composed of J. W. Flanagan, E. D. McArthur, P. A. Sandberg, W. R. Haines and L. W. Traver was selected to take supervision of the proposed census of Marshfield. It was agreed that the work be started as quickly as possible. The Elks are confident that the census will show a population of more than 5,000, the number required to secure a charter for an Elks' lodge here. The census will be done systematically. The city will be divided into districts and sub-committees and enumerators named to canvass them. Until the work is completed, the Elks will meet every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.
