AT THE THEATRE.

The Cramer Stock Company which made such a tremendous hit here last Saturday and Sunday in "My Friend Brown" will be at Masonic Opera House again tonight and tomorrow night. The play this time will be the celebrated comedy-drama "A Southern Jack Rose." This is a play that Mr. Cramer has played in personally and he vouches that it is every bit as good if not better than the last one. There will be more new faces in the cast tonight, and with this addition the company will be just that stronger.

The Cramer Stock Company will play in Marshfield every Saturday and Sunday night at Masonic Opera House, making the river towns during the week.

Seats are now on sale for tonight and tomorrow night at Butler's.

MARSHFIELD GROCERY CO.

OPENS FINE NEW STORE
The Marshfield Grocery Company has opened one of the finest and most up-to-date grocery stores in Marshfield in the new Noble building on Broadway, just south of 'C' street. They have put in a complete line of staple and fancy groceries, fruits, vegetables, etc., and will aim to always have the best the market affords at the most reasonable prices possible. Drop in and see the new store whether you buy or not, or, better still, give them a trial order and compare their goods and prices with what you have been getting. Phone No. 123.

Personal Notes

W. J. CONRAD went to Coquille on business today.

MRS. REN SMITH of Coos River, was in Marshfield today shopping.

POSTMASTER OLSON, of Lakeside, was in Marshfield today on business.

GEO. W. TEMPLE, well-known on Coos Bay, has gone from Seattle to San Jose, Cal., to spend the winter.

J. D. HAMLIN, storekeeper at Beaver Hill, and wife were in Marshfield today doing some Christmas shopping.

MRS. E. FRODSHAM, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Rohrer, for the past few months, will return in a few days to her home in San Francisco.

TOM JAMES was down from North Bend yesterday and his many friends were handing him a few because he didn't get into the municipal political there and land a councilmanship as they declare that he would make a fine looking alderman.

H. W. SKINNER, Prentiss Gray and Chas. Thom made the trip to Bandon yesterday in the Wilhelmina. Mr. Thom sailed as cook and Messrs. Skinner and Gray as "sailors before the mast," although Mr. Skinner insisted that Mr. Gray should be classed as a "land-lubber," his experience being with launches on the bay and not on the high seas.

Remember McArthur's Hand Lotion for Rough, Red or Chapped hands. It surely does the business at McARTHUR'S only and for 25c.

Stiletto Pocket Knives and Razors at MILNER'S.

Fragrant Perfumes at McARTHUR'S. Sweet seasonable tokens.
