Sunday Services in Coos Bay Churches

Sentence Sermons.

All sunshine makes the desert.—
Arab saying.

Then welcome each rebuff
That turns earth's smoothness rough, Each sting that bids nor sit nor stand but go;

Be our joy three times pain,
Strive and hold cheap the strain, Learn, nor account the pang; dare, never grudge the throe.

—Browning.

In order to see into life and still more, into ourselves, suffering is requisite.—Jean Paul Richter.

My most passionate desire is to have a clearer and fuller vision of God.—Tennyson.

Build on and make your castle high and fair, Rising and reaching upward to the skies;

Listen to the voices in the upper air, Nor lose thy simple faith in mysteries.

—Longfellow.

The history of the nations is not a record of the clash and conflict of forces, but of the stately stepplings of a holy God working out his most wise promises.—Anon.

body invited to all these services.

FORM BIBLE CLASS.
A bible class was organized last Sunday evening among the members of the Christian church for the purpose of taking up a systematic study of the Bible. The class was organized with sixteen members who chose Mr. C. A. Sehlbrede as their teacher and president. We expect this to become a large and wide awake class. The class will take up Herbert Moninger's "Training for Service" and follow the course as outlined. The book needs no introduction. Its arrangement can hardly be improved upon. The memory aids are unique. Mr. Moninger's book is now being studied all over the world.
It is heartily endorsed by the International Sunday School Association; so much so that the association offers a diploma to anyone who will complete the course of lessons and can pass a satisfactory examination. This has been an inspiration to hundreds who have already received their diploma and who are now working for them.

The class is going to make a thorough and systematic study of the Bible and we earnestly invite all who will to join the class. We want to make the class as large as possible. We meet every Sunday evening at the Swedish Lutheran Hall from 6:30 to 7:30 p. m. The lessons are so conducted that we get out at 7:30 sharp, giving ample time for those who wish to attend services at the other churches to reach their respective churches in time for service. We welcome all who will join us in the work.
JNO. W. MOTLEY, Sec.

EXPERT RIFLE SHOOTING.

pany's warehouse, at 3 p. m., Sunday, December 13.
Mr. Hills will use seven different guns and his work is well worth going to see.
Everybody invited.

A Clear, Steady Light

such as will not dazzle or hurt the eyes, is given by one of our Frosted Electric Lamps. It gives a soft illumination without the glare so peculiar to gas and to the ordinary clear bulbs. Let us install a system of Electric Lighting in your home. You will find it much superior to all lamps in every way, and far better for the eyes of yourself and family.
Our workmanship is thorough and our prices the standard of moderation.
