church, is arranging to have a Christmas tree for the members of his parish in the new building at the corner of 'H' and Laurel streets, in southwest Marshfield at noon Christmas Day, or directly after mass.

Elks Meet Tonight.—The local Elks will meet this evening to make arrangements for the early completion of the census now being taken to secure a B. P. O. E. charter for Marshfield.

Postpone Annual Meeting.—The annual meeting of the Millicoma Club which was to have been held last evening, was postponed until next week owing to the inability to secure a majority of the members.
The Masonic Lodge was in session last night, many were in Coquille attending court and others were absent which made it difficult to secure the required attendance.

Another Landslide.—There was another landslide on North Cedar street Sunday morning, a large portion of the embankment north of Wm. Merchant's property toppling over into the street. Mr. Merchant has just completed a bulkhead that will prevent any further landslides on his property. The other property owners along the street are figuring bulkheading their property, also.

Leads In Competition.—Albert Haines, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Haines is now well in the lead in the contest among the boys selling the Saturday Evening Post.
He is third and may possibly secure a free trip to Washington. The number he is selling is a marvel especially when he is competing with boys in the large cities where the periodical should naturally have a greater sale but he is overcoming this handicap by hard work.

Furniture For Hotel.—Three carloads of furniture for the new Chandler hotel arrived on the Alliance yesterday. Another carload is stored in Portland but could not be brought down this trip but will reach here next Monday. The furniture, being all high grade stuff, was sent intact instead of being taken to pieces and set up here again and consequently took more space. Mr.
LaChance expects his partner here on the next Alliance, also.

LEASE BANDON WAREHOUSE.

A. F. Estabrook and Company Plan For Business There.

The Bandon Recorder says: "The A. F. Estabrook Company have leased the old Bandon Commercial Company's warehouse and now control the wharf from the salmon cannery to the life-saving station. The company will handle hay, grain, feed and coal, and will be able to give the public the best there is to be had on the market."
"Bruno & Animo, proprietors of the Bandon Bottling Works are arranging to build an ice plant on their lots in the east end of Ban-don. The plant will be built next to the brewery, which is also owned by Bruno & Animo. The ice plant will have a capacity of about two tons a day, which will be sufficient to meet the local demands."

NOTICE.

Having bought out L. M. Friend of the firm of Friend and Watson, October 31, 1903, in The Tar and Gravel Roofing business, I am prepared to do any work along that line but will not be responsible for any work done by L. M. Friend.

BABY GETS $300,000.

Comes As a Bequest From Her Grandfather.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 15.— The will of John C. McWilliams, of New Haven, Conn., who died last month, leaves $300,000 to his granddaughter, a three-months old baby girl. The tiny heiress, Grace E. Mc-Williams, is the daughter of Albert McWilliams of Whitestone, Long Island.

Her father is a lawyer whose practice is in Manhattan, where he also lives a part of each year. Mrs. Mc-Williams was Miss Mabel P. Macdonald, daughter of Dr. and Mrs.
George A. Macdonald, of Manhattan and Riverhead, L. I.

The bulk of the property left to Grace consists of barges and tugs, the income from which is said to be large.

from the ranch today. He says that Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Chandler and Miss Helen Chandler will probably not return from San Francisco to Coos Bay until after the winter is over.

F. A. HAINES returned yesterday from an extended eastern trip, coming in via the stage. He reports that business conditions in the east are improving greatly and the interest in the Coos Bay country is more widespread than ever and he looks for a large influx here within the next six months.
