Council Meets.—The city council will hold a meeting tonight.

Bound For Coos Bay.—The steamer Czarina left San Francisco today on her regular trip to Coos Bay.

No Ladies Night.—There will be no ladies' night this week at the North Bend club, the regular affair being dropped on account of other holiday festivities.

Returns Home.—Captain A. M. Simpson, who has been visiting his son, L. J. Simpson at North Bend, for some time past, returns on the M. F. Plant to his home in San Francisco.

Firemen's Ball.—Many tickets are being sold for the Volunteer Firemen's ball which will be held Christmas night. Preparations are being made to entertain a large crowd at the Odd Fellows hall and the event promises to be the best of the annual Christmas dances that the firemen have given.

Will Be Home Soon.—Mrs. S. A. Yoakam, the deputy state dairy inspector, who has been away for several weeks, writes that she expects to return home soon and will be on Coos Bay in time for Christmas. Mrs. Yoakam attended the state dairy association meeting at Salem and later went to Corvallis to visit her daughter. She is now at Chehalis, Wash., attending the dairy convention of that state. Before returning home she will go to Castle Rock, Wash.

Play Christmas Night.—The Cramer Stock Company, which has been making such a hit with local theatre goers has made arrangements to play in the Marshfield Masonic Opera House, Christmas night, December 25. By special request, they will play "A Southern Jack Rose," one of the most pleasing plays that has ever been put on here. They will also appear at the Masonic next Saturday and Sunday evenings in Vaudeville. They were greeted by good sized audiences last night and the night before. A new member of the company is expected here this week from San Francisco.

LYONS AT VALE.

Writes to Chamber of Commerce Regarding Development League.
Walter Lyon who will go to Washington to look after the interests of Coos Bay, is now at Vale, Ore., attending the Oregon-Idaho Development League congress. The Chamber of Commerce received a letter yesterday from Mr. Lyon stating that he had arrived at Vale and that the preparations indicated that there would be a big attendance at the meeting. After attending the convention, Mr. Lyon will go on to Washington.

GRAY SELLS MANY SHINGLES

One of Alliance Owners Provides Market For Coquille Mills.

The Portland Telegram says: "Through P. N. Gray, secretary of the corporation, the California & Oregon Coast Steamship Company has just closed a deal for the entire annual output of the white cedar shingle mills on the Coquille River, comprising about 25,000,000 of the roof covers. Of this amount, 15,000,000 will be brought to Portland by the steamer Alliance and placed on the market. The remaining 10,000,000 will be shipped to San Francisco.

"Mr. Gray arrived at Portland on the steamer Alliance, which is operated by his company. He left San Francisco about 10 days ago for Coos Bay, to inquire into the business outlook, and while there he decided to buy the shingles turned out by the Coquille mills. He says that from now on this class of freight will likely furnish part cargoes for the Alliance on her northbound trips. It is said that a good market for them can be found here.

"During the week I spent on Coos Bay," says Mr. Gray, "seven steamers loaded lumber at the new Smith mill for San Francisco, and they took out an aggregate of 4,450,000 feet of the product. The craft and the size of their cargoes were as follows: Nan Smith, 1,600,000 feet; Winnebago, 1,000,000 feet; Bandon, 400,000 feet; Wasp, 500,000 feet; Hornet, 500,000 feet; Lakme, 600,000 feet, and Grace Dollar, 450,000 feet.

"All of these vessels loading at the same plant certainly gave the harbor a decided air of activity. Running 600,000 feet every day. In addition to the lumber-carriers at this point, there were eight other freight and passenger steamers at Coos Bay during the same week. I was surprised to witness the great stir in a business way. Every town on the bay is growing rapidly."

Personal Notes

HERBERT LOCKHART will go to San Francisco on the M. F. Plant.

HARRY BUTLER will go to San Francisco tomorrow to spend Christmas.

ASSESSOR T. J. Thrift was in the city yesterday on his way to his home in Coquille. He came up from San Francisco accompanied by his daughter.

H. J. McKEOWN, wife and children, have arrived from Hibbing, Minn. Mr. McKeown is the partner of E. D. LaChance in the management of the new Chandler hotel.

R. E. L. BEDLION of Bandon, is in the city and will leave on the M. F. Plant tomorrow for San Francisco. He has some business there which he will wind up so he can get away to attend the legislature.

PENNIES ARE BARRED.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 22. — Hereafter pennies will not be accepted in the collection baskets at St. Mary's Catholic church, which has the largest congregation in this city. Rev. R. A. McAndrew made the announcement at all the masses today, and said:

"People who are too poor to give more than a penny need the cent more than the church does."

He declared he had some time ago requested that nothing less than nickels be placed in the collection baskets, but that little attention had been paid. Last Sunday there were more than 1,000 pennies in the baskets. He said that unless his request was heeded in the future he will accompany the collectors, disagreeable as will be the duty, when they make their rounds, and will return the pennies to those who prefer them instead of nickels.
