

XMAS GOODS MUST GO

Our Christmas Clearing Sale is proving so successful that we are more determined than ever that everything in our Holiday Stock must go at Reduced Prices.

In most lines, we have but a few articles left now and the prices on them will be a revelation to you and a boon to the LATE XMAS SHOPPERS.

FOR INSTANCE: Guaranteed Sterling Silver Sets—Only a few of them left—at actual cost. The greatest bargain ever offered on Coos Bay.

Only a few articles of our fancy line of Brass Goods and Pottery that have been so popular this fall, are left and we have marked them away down.

Great Reductions have been made in the few articles left in our Manicure and Toilet Sets, etc.

REMEMBER YOU ARE GETTING QUALITY AT EXTRAORDINARY LOW PRICES

Be Sure and take advantage of this sale. Come at once as the article you want maybe gone.

TAKING DOWN THE STOCKINGS.

What did you get in yours, Jim and Eddie?"
"Look what I've got in mine, Tom and Freddie!"
"A box of candied dates—"
"Gee whiz! A pair of skates—"
"An engine, cars and track—"
"Oh, the poor jumping jack, Broken already!"

"What did you get in yours, Jessie—Molly?"
"Look what I found in mine! A talking dolly!"
"I'll show you how she cries;"
"Oh, look! She shuts her eyes!"
"Mittens—and slumber socks—"
"Tea set—and building blocks—
Goody, now jolly!"

"What did you find in yours, Grown-up brother?"
"Why not look in your own, Little mother?"
(Mother and father say They'd rather watch than play; Presents enough, they trust They've got in having just Us, and each other!)

"SICK WOMAN'S LUNCH CUTS OFF HER BENEFITS"

Fraternal Society Committee Finds Her Laying in a Cargo of Pigs' Feet and Sauerkraut.

DETROIT, Dec. 24.—Because the Ladies' Aid Society, an organization of German women, withheld her sick benefits, Mrs. Henry Oppifennus has brought suit to enforce payment. She was paid $5 per week for eleven weeks, and then, when several ladies called upon the invalid, they testified they found her seated at the table eating heartily of a diet of sauerkraut and pork. At once the sick benefits stopped, the women holding that an invalid couldn't eat such a dish.

The question was too deep for Justice Ott to decide offhand, and he withheld decision.
