

Peroxide Cream

is the greatest skin bleach, skin food and cure for rough or chapped hands, face or lips that has ever been offered to Marshfield people.

We have just received the first shipment of it here and are anxious to have our patrons become acquainted with its good qualities. We have long had many inquiries for a preparation for the skin that would produce the results that PEROXIDE CREAM will.

Among its qualities may be stated the following:

PEROXIDE CREAM IS A HYGIENIC and ANTISEPTIC face lotion.

PEROXIDE CREAM is a mild skin bleach.

PEROXIDE CREAM is not greasy, the fault with so many creams, but is a vanishing lotion that is absorbed quickly, leaving the skin soft and clear.

PEROXIDE CREAM is one of the best preparations to use after shaving. It eliminates the dryness and burning.

PEROXIDE CREAM differs from other skin preparations in that it has massage properties.

PEROXIDE CREAM is excellent for removal of discolorations of the skin.

PEROXIDE CREAM contains no chemicals injurious to the skin, nor does it produce any unpleasant feeling after application.

PEROXIDE CREAM is good for men, women and children.

PEROXIDE CREAM 25 CENTS PER BOX.

crystals, while that of her mother was dark blue satin.

Seldom has the east room presented a more attractive appearance. The invited guests numbered about 400, only unmarried members of the younger set participating in the dancing. Among those present were Mrs. W. S. Cowles and Mrs. Douglas Robinson, the president's two sisters; Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Mrs. J. E. Revel, Mrs. Simpkins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bacon, Mrs. Chas. A. Munn, Mrs. Richard Waine Parker and Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth.

At midnight the music ceased and the guests partook of a supper, which was served at small tables arranged along the lower corridor.

Preceding the ball Miss Roosevelt was the guest of honor at a dinner given by Assistant Secretary and Mrs. Bacon. Covers were laid for 60, the whole party going later to the White House.

Mrs. and Miss Roosevelt were entertaining a house party for the dance. The party including Miss Josephine Osborne, Miss Ellen H. Rogers, Miss Cornelia Landon, Miss Madeline Borland, Miss Janeta Alexander, Miss Virginia Murray, Snydam Curran, Harry Holt, Jr., Barclay Saur, Randall Clifford, H. Fairfield Osborne, Jr., Stephen L. Lander, Edmund Rogers, Munroe Robinson, Hobart Potter, Charles Emory and Norman Armour. They arrived at the White House shortly after luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Simpson entertained at their beautiful new home on Christmas with a family reunion. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Worrell, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sahy, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Simpson, Robert and Hazel Sahy, Edith and Marguerite Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Withers of North Bend Heights entertained at dinner on Christmas day, Rev. Sumerlin and wife, J. Z. Hodson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Strawn, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cavanaugh, Rev. and Mrs. Dayton, Misses Beulah, Gladys, Doris, Glenda, and Irma Sumerlin, Fremont, Evan and Joella Hodson, Clare, Eldon, Hubert and Edith Cavanaugh.

Mrs. M. A. Sweetman was hostess at her beautiful new home in Ferndale at two of the most charming functions of the week. The first event was on Wednesday when she entertained at bridge. The home was handsomely decorated with the beautiful Oregon foliage that made it a delightful scene of beauty. The first prize was won by Mrs. W. H. Painter. At the close of the afternoon delicious refreshments were served. Those present were Mesdames D. W. Small, I. S. Kaufman, G. W. Kaufman, H. S. Tower, J. W. Ingram, M. C. Horton, Chas. Nicholson, A. E. Seaman, Francis Clark, S. Lando, Geo. Mandigo and W. H. Painter of North Bend and Mrs. Gage, of Coquille.

On New Year's day Mrs. Sweetman revived the delightful old time custom of receiving her friends and exchanging felicitous greetings for the coming year. She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. A. E. Seaman and Misses Marie and Lillian Seaman and Miss Mary Minot.

Among the invited guests were: Mesdames E. D. Poyntz, E. G. Perham, D. Y. Stafford, Perry, E. E. Straw, Street, Sandberg, Kammerer, McArthur, H. C. Wright, McCarty, F. A. Golden, Flom, Copple, Wm. Warwick, Jones, Weider, Wheeler, Francis Franse, Henrick, Small, Marsh, Schoonmaker, Turpen, S. Lando, Hutcheson, W. H. Painter.

The New Year's dance of the Swastika club was the most successful of the series of dances given by that popular organization. The entire membership of the club being present, there also being about twenty guests of the club in attendance. In all about sixty couples. Dancing was commenced promptly at 9 p. m., and continued until 1 p. m. An orchestra of six pieces rendered splendid music during the evening. The moonlight waltz from 11:55 to 12:10 being a special feature of the evening. Delicious fruit punch was served between dances by the lady members. At 12 o'clock supper was served, this too was the handiwork of the lady members of the club. And such a feast. All those dainties that only our wives and sweethearts know so well how to prepare and serve, were there in abundance. This with the pretty arrangement of the tables in the form of a Swastika cross, together with the beautiful decorations made a feast fit for the Gods. The members of the club will meet Wednesday evening at the Red Men's Hall to elect officers for the ensuing year. The next dance will be given Wednesday, January 13th, 1934.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Scott of the Glendale Gardens gave a pleasant apron and necktie party at their home Thursday evening Dec. 31, the event being the last leap year party of the season. Just as the new year was dawning all sat down to a sumptuous luncheon prepared by the host and hostess. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Scott Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Lou Noah, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. McGuire, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Doane, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Sneddon, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Hansen, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Olsen, Mrs. Allos Sneddon, Miss Nora Richardson, Miss Ellen Sneddon, Miss Nettie Sneddon, Miss May Abel, Mr. Albert Abel, Mr. William Doane, Mr. Clifford Doane, Mr. Dan Lyons, Mr. Wren Noah, Mr. Cooley, Mr. Curry, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Pottoch. All left wishing the host and hostess a Happy New Year and declaring them to be ideal entertainers. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Bonebrake orchestra.

One of the best amateur performances ever produced in Marshfield was the universal verdict of the large audience that witnessed the presentation of the play "My Friend From India" by North Bend talent under the direction of P. L. Swearingen. The play was well staged and the work of many members of the cast was superior to that of many so-called professionals. The Times regrets that the invasion of its editorial force by illness has prevented the extended and well deserved notice of which they were worthy. Suffice it to say that it was enthusiastically received and many have expressed a hope that the play will play a return date here at no distant day.

Marshfield Aerie 538 of the Fraternal Order of Eagles has issued invitations to their annual public installation, entertainment and banquet to be given in Eagle's hall and banquet at 8 o'clock. These all January become to be looked forward to with interest and are always a product of a good time and says product of good fellows.

Miss Lillian Seaman celebrated her eighth birthday anniversary on Monday by entertaining a number of her little friends at a delightful party. Games were played with zest and later a delightful luncheon added to an event that made a day for all the happy parties.

Capt. and Mrs. Olson, of Smith were entertained at a little informal dinner at Skinner home on New Year's.

The Assembly ball Tuesday brought out the usual pleasure and a most delightful dance enjoyed by all fortunate enough to be present.

Mrs. Dr. Houseworth entertained the Grimes and Kreitzer families at a pleasant New Year's dinner.

Attention Eagles! All Eagles and visiting members are urgently requested to attend the annual public installation, entertainment and banquet at the Eagles hall at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, Jan. 6. By order of T. L. OWEN, Sec.
