Starts French School .- C. A. Gabernache is arranging to open a French school here. He has secured several pupils and will, for the present, arrange for a studio in the Carleton residence on Washington street near Broadway. Mr. Gabernache was born and raised in Paris and obtained a fine education in French. He is conducting the school personally.

Anderson In Trial.-E. C. Anderson of the O. K. Chop house, was brought here this morning from Bandon where he was apprehended yesterday. Marshal Carter was uney under false pretenses and he is this afternoon.

Breakwater In Late,-The Breakwater crossed in at 3 o'clock this afternoon after having been delayed 4 o'clock yesterday. It was one of the roughest trips she has had for sometime. The terrific gale that has been prevailing for the past twentyfour hours is estimated to have averaged between eighty and ninety miles per hour.
