Declared Insane.—Stefano Orchini, the Italian who caused so much trouble at North Bend last week and later flooded the county jail at Coquille, has been declared insane and was taken to Salem Monday.

Increase Capital.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Millcoona Club last evening, it was decided to increase the capital stock from $5,000 to $10,000. The increase was to permit taking in new members.

Loses Finger.—J. A. Parker of Bay Park, who has been suffering from blood poisoning underwent an operation to have the middle finger and part of the bone in his hand removed. Dr. Horsfall who performed the operation reports the patient is getting along nicely.

Nann Smith In.—The Nann Smith arrived this morning from San Francisco after a fairly good trip up. Captain Olson says that the wind was in the right direction to hasten their progress, but that it was a little too brisk. It is expected that she will sail Friday.

Dredge Haynes Inlet.—Fred Larson is reported to be making good progress in dredging Haynes Inlet. The inlet is being converted into a public highway and when the 3½ miles of dredging is completed, it will have about four feet of water which will accommodate launches at all stages of the tide.

Want More Hose.—Fire Chief Tom Nicols last evening requested the city council to purchase 1,000 feet more hose for the department. He had a sample of hose which has been offered at eighty cents per foot. It is guaranteed for five years. The council practically decided to purchase the amount of hose desired.

FOR RENT—Furnished room. Modern conveniences. Phone 1811.

Selander has been elected manager of the Finnish Cooperative store in place of I. Lando who resigned to become manager of the Pioneer Grocery Company. Mr. Selander is well known here and will undoubtedly prove a very efficient man for the company. He has been connected with H. Finnell's store for some time.

NORTH BEND NEWS

Dr. G. R. Gale was in Portland a few days ago.

The Redondo came in today and will load at Porter.

The Eureka came in this morning but went out a few hours later.

Dr. David Vaughan and bride, returned this morning on the Alliance.

Mrs. Harry Backinstoe, a former Coos Bay girl, is quite seriously ill at her home in East Portland.

Mrs. E. R. Hodson of South Coos River, was the guest today of Mrs. E. A. Dillon, matron of the General hospital.

Miss Ida Rodine, a teacher in the Flagstaff schools, has been quite ill the past week at the home of her sister at Bay Park.

B. F. Burney, a well-known young man of North Bend, who is with the Columbia Trust Company of Portland, is now in Eastern Oregon on a business trip.

Jesse Tyrrel, who left here a short time ago and is now located at Klamath Falls, writes that he is greatly improved in health. He has opened a barber shop there.

The Reynolds mill on Pony Inlet, which was closed down for a few days began operation again yesterday. The shut down was occasioned by lack of logs which arrived Monday.

The tug Columbia towed the San Buena Ventura to the shipyards today where she will be repaired. It was decided to have the work done here instead of attempting to take her to Frisco.

Mrs. Bevier, who has been principal of the Eastside schools some time past, left for a visit with friends at Philomath and from there goes east where she will spend the summer with relatives.

Mrs. Chas. Getty, who has been visiting her sons near Astoria, was unable to get here for her mother's funeral on account of the delayed arrival of the Alliance which was held at Empire on Tuesday.

Compressed yeast at Cortwell's.

STEAMER ALLIANCE WILL SAIL FROM MARSHFIELD FOR PORTLAND AT 9 O'CLOCK THURSDAY MORNING.

Personal Notes

C. E. GETTY and wife, of Empire, have returned from a northern trip.

GEO. K. MILLER, who underwent an operation at Mercy hospital for appendicitis, is reported getting along nicely.

MRS. J. E. OREN returned today on the Nann Smith from a visit in San Francisco and other California points.

W. H. KENNEDY and D. L. SHORT have returned from Roseburg where they went to investigate some timber land matters.

CAPT. DUGGAN of the Czarina, is laid up in San Francisco and Chas. H. Wall, the first officer, was in charge the last trip here.

F. M. RUMMELL, Sr., and wife, and son-in-law, J. A. Snelderhahn, returned today from Portland where they accompanied Mrs. Snelderhahn's remains.

HERMAN LARSON, who is doing the dredging and diking in the Beaver Slough drainage district, was over from Coquille and reports that the heavy rains are delaying the work.

SUPT FRANK W. SMITH of the Coos River fish hatchery, reports that the high water on the North Fork, is delaying hatchery operations. There are many silversides in the ponds there.

ARTHUR ELDRIDGE, according to word just received here, has been transferred to Buenos Ayres where he will supervise a big construction contract. Mrs. Eldredge and children who are now in Chicago, will accompany him to South America. Mrs. Eldredge was formerly Miss Rogers and the family recently visited at the Rogers home on Coos River. They were then en route back from the Philippines and Orient where Mr. Eldredge had been stationed for some time.

ALARM FELT OVER THE SCHOONER OMEGA

Simpson Lumber Company's Vessel Out Twenty-Six Days From San Pedro and Not Yet Sighted.

Considerable apprehension is felt at North Bend over the Omega, the Simpson Lumber Company's schooner which is long overdue from San Pedro. The Omega left San Pedro twenty-six days ago and no word has been received from her since she left. It is believed that the Omega must have been driven out of her course soon after leaving San Pedro. The southwest wind of the last few days, it is believed, would bring her near in and it is hoped that she will enter the Coos Bay bar soon.
