MICRO
ITCHING SCALP
DANDRUFF AND FALLING HAIR

are but outward signs of the evil done in secret by myriads of dandruff germs sapping the life blood of the hair. Micro kills the parasite, soothes the itching scalp, gives lustre to the hair and stops it falling out. A single application gives relief and proves its worth.
Save your hair before too late.
Micro prevents baldness. It is a delightful dressing for the hair, free from grease and sticky oils.

Gets Three Bears.—James Stock, the noted "Varmint" hunter, this week added to his prowess by killing a large bear near there. The old one had two cubs which were only a few days old and these were taken alive and are being raised by Mr.
Stock.

Child Breaks Arm.—The two-year-old child of Wm. Steckle, residing on Isthmus Inlet, sustained a broken collar-bone as a result of a fall while playing the other day. Dr.
Houseworth who reduced the fracture does not believe that the injury will prove serious.

Capt. Olsen Dead.—Word has been received here of the death of Capt.
Chas. Olsen at Fort Stanton, New Mexico. No particulars are given.
Capt. Olsen was well-known on the Bay, particularly at Empire, and the news of his death will be a shock to the many friends here.

Keane Company Changes.—The James Keane Company has made several changes in the cast as a result of a reorganization. Miss Neva West, who has been the leading lady, has returned to San Francisco. J.

DeWitt's Carbolyzed Witch Hazel Salve is especially good for piles, but it is also recommended nearly everywhere for anything when a salve is needed. It is soothing, cooling and healing. Be sure to get DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve when you ask for it. We sell and recommend it. Sold by LOCKHART & PARSONS.

Lionel West and wife have also left the company. The company is now making a tour of the Coquille valley but will return to play at North Bend tomorrow night and here Saturday evening.

Meet Friday Night.—The special meeting of the Citizens League is to be held Friday evening at the Finnish Hall. It was erroneously announced that the meeting was to have been held last night. The sewer proposition is the principal matter to come up for discussion.

Try City Case.—A number of Marshfield business men have been subpoenaed to testify in the condemnation suit by the city of Marshfield to secure that portion of 'B' street between Front and the bay.
The case will come up for hearing at Portland next week, probably.
Among those who will go are: I. S.
Kaufman, W. S. McFarland, Dr. J.
T. McCormac and Carl Albrecht. The old E. B. Dean Lumber Company and its successor, the C. A. Smith Lumber Company are the defendants. J. W. Snover and J. M. Upton will represent the city and J.
S. Coke the defendants.

NORTH BEND NEWS

Mrs. O'Neil is ill at her home here of tonsillitis.

Mrs. J. Calkner is visiting friends in Marshfield this week.

Chas. Farris has been very ill at his home the past few days.

Mrs. Henry I. Reese and daughter, Gladys, were Marshfield visitors yesterday.

Mrs. C. A. Strickland, who has been ill for some time shows no improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bolster are moving today into their new residence on Monroe street.

Miss Stella Wicklund a teacher of Beaver Hill, is the guest of her sister Miss Alpha Wicklund.

The carpenters are working on the belly of the Swedish Lutheran church on Florida and Union avenue.

There has been a foot of snow for some time on the Blue Ridge above the head waters of Daniels' creek, but it is now disappearing.

Rev. J. E. Burkhart and wife, A.
W. Myers and wife, A. Whisnent, Mrs. C. Kittering and Miss Kruse were among the North Bend people who attended the Chaminade concert.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayley will leave on the Breakwater for Tacoma to make their home. Mr. Hayley has been in North Bend the past two years as government builder and lumber inspector.

H. M. Coke, editor of a newspaper in Hawaii, who has been visiting relatives on the Bay, delivered an interesting talk to the North Bend High School pupils on the islands, their people, etc.

The North Bend city council has decided not to attempt to have a meeting until February 11, when it is expected that some of the members who have been out of the city will return. Several futile attempts to get a quorum have been made.

The seven-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McNeil was burned quite severely one day last week, by falling from her high chair on the store. The child is getting along nicely and the doctor who dressed the wounds does not think they were deep enough to leave any marks.

Personal Notes

CHAS. LANDER of Prosper, is in Marshfield.

L. A. LILJEQVIST went to Coquille today on business.

MRS. J. W. INGRAM is entertaining at bridge this afternoon.

DR. S. J. MANN and wife, of Langlois, are in Marshfield.

C. H. MARTIN, of Coquille, is a business visitor on the Bay.

THOMAS HILLS and wife, are spending a few days on Coos Bay.

J. E. OREN will leave Saturday on a business trip to Frisco and Portland.

PRENTIS N. GRAY and H. W. Skinner went to Coquille this morning on business.

S. B. CATHCART is spending a week at Loon Lake surveying land in that section.

JAMES WATSON, county clerk, came over from Coquille yesterday to look after business matters and also to visit relatives.

T. J. LYNCH, who recently moved to Curry county to lead the simple life has returned here to look after business and visit friends.

JAMES S. BROWN, general auditor of the C. A. Smith Lumber and Manufacturing Company, is here from Minneapolis, making the regular check of the firm's local business.

SEYMOUR H. BELL, general manager of the Coos Bay Gas and Electric Company, will leave tomorrow for Idaho where he will spend considerable time looking after matters in which he and Mr.
Hewitt are interested.

LOUIS SEYMOUR of the Gardiner Mill Company, is spending the week in Marshfield. This is his first trip here in about fourteen months and the improvements made in that time are a revelation to him. He has to spend a good share of his time in the dental chair while here so he is having a regular excruciating time.

THE JAS. KEANE CO. ON SATURDAY NIGHT

Popular Players Will Present a Powerful Dramatization of Stevenson's Famous Novel.

James Keane & Company will present the great transformation play Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. It tells a story of a noble doctor who discovers certain drugs that will transform him from the kindly disposed charitably inclined physician to a being of the lowest order who delights in torturing men.

Both characters are played by Mr.
Keane and his marvelous changes from one being to the other leave the audience completely mystified.
The entire strength of the company is brought to bear in this drama.
Mr. Keane had not intended doing it until later, but Mr. Butler has had over a hundred requests from people who are anxious to see Keane in the play. This is his tenth year in the drama.

The play is taken from the novel of the same name written by Robert Louis Stevenson.
