Speaking of ground-hog day, there is something for us all to view with alarm this year.

A man went to hell, and was walking about putting on so many airs that the devil said to him: "Say: You go about here as if you owned the place." "I do!" reflected the man. "My wife gave it to me just before I died."

A good many years ago when John Leimbert was in the union depot ticket office, says a Colorado paper, a big, blue-eyed Swede stepped up to the window. Mr. Leimbert went to wait on him. "Aye tank Ay tak ticket son of a gun," replied the Swede. The man inside looked at him a minute, scratched his head, reached over to the case, got a ticket, stamped it and said, "Eight ninety-five." The Swede paid the money and departed. Mr. Leimbert had figured it out that he wanted to go to Gunnison. Whether or not he guessed right nobody ever knew, as they never saw the Swede again.

How One Doctor Successfully Treats Pneumonia.

"In treating pneumonia," says Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., "the only remedy I use for the lungs is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. While of course I would treat other symptoms with different medicines, I have used this remedy many times in my medical practice and have yet failed to find a case where it has not controlled the trouble. I have used it myself as has also my wife for coughs and colds repeatedly, and I most willingly and cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other cough remedy to my knowledge."
