How One Doctor Successfully Treats Pneumonia.
"In treating pneumonia," says Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., "the only remedy I use for the lungs is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. While of course I would treat other symptoms with different medicines, I have used this remedy many times in my medical practice and have yet failed to find a case where it has not controlled the trouble. I have used it myself as has also my wife for coughs and colds repeatedly, and I most willingly and cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other cough remedy to my knowledge." For sale

GOSSIP OF OREGON LEGISLATURE

SALEM, Oregon, February 6. — State Benson will soon be governor and will have two places on the boards of the state institutions, and will, therefore, be overburdened with work, may have the effect of bringing sufficient support to this measure to pass it.

Senator Abraham's bill creating five normal school districts is a measure that has no chance of escaping the indefinite postponement route to oblivion. Some kind of normal school bill will be passed, and it will very likely provide for two or three normals, yet Smith of Marlon might succeed in his effort to have the number reduced to one.

Beach's bill requiring telephone and telegraph companies to guarantee the time within which they will deliver messages within the state, will never pass, for many members think it an unreasonable and impracticable measure.

The employers' liability act, because of its radical nature and the opposition of the manufacturing interests of the state, has a poor outlook.

Optimists Are Fearful.
Senator Bailey's motion for an amendment to the constitution permitting the legislature to amend a city charter with the consent of a majority of the voters of a city is looked upon by the anti-saloon people as an effort to circumvent the local option law.

Should the amendment be adopted any city that has become "dry" because it is in a "dry" county, could by vote of its people be made "wet" by an act of the legislature. This would practically set aside the local option, so far as cities are concerned.

Investigate Public Institutions.
Both houses have adopted a concurrent resolution providing for the appointment of a joint committee of three members, one from the senate and two from the house, the duty of which shall be to visit and investigate every public institution supported in whole or in part by state aid. On the information so obtained the committee is directed to file with the joint committee on ways and means a detailed report as to the condition of the institutions so visited and their needs.

Bill Aimed at Trusts.
A most sweeping anti-trust bill has been introduced by Senator Bingham. The bill not only prohibits every form and shade of trust and combination agreement, but requires corporations to make an annual statement under oath that they have not made any agreements in restraint of trade or for the maintenance of prices or rates. It prescribes as penalties not only fines and imprisonment, but forfeiture of corporate existence and liability to repay all moneys received in violation of the anti-trust law.

Five Vetoes Overruled.
Five of the six senate bills of the 1907 session, vetoed by the governor and which were passed over his veto in the senate at this session, have also passed the house. Four of the bills provide for district agricultural societies in Eastern Oregon and carrying appropriations of from $1500 to $2500 per annum each. The fifth measure permits the garnishment of the salaries and wages of state and county officials.

Substitute for History Bill.
Senator M. A. Miller, of Linn, has introduced a substitute for his senate bill requiring that Oregon history be taught in the public schools. The original bill required the adoption of a textbook on Oregon history for use in the common schools. The substitute bill provides for the adoption of a textbook on Oregon history for use in high schools after September 1, 1911, and for the publication of a small pamphlet on Oregon history for use in the common schools. This pamphlet is to be prepared by the state board of education.

Scalp Bounty Bill Favored.
The house committee on agriculture reported favorably the bill introduced by the Eastern Oregon delegation and providing for a scalp bounty for coyotes and other wild animals. The only change made by the committee in the original draft of the bill was that the emergency clause be eliminated.

Seaside Gets First Law.
The first bill to become a law was Senator Schofield's bill to place the justice of the peace of Seaside on a salary of $400 and the constable on a salary of $200, these officers being on a fee basis. The bill was filed in the secretary's office Friday and will go into effect 90 days after adjournment of the legislature.

Many Bills May Not Pass.
The outlook is that the state board of control bill will fail, although the fact that Secretary of

BAD SEASON FOR COLDS.

Colds and grip were quite prevalent last winter and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in great demand and performed some remarkable cures. Mrs. Mary J. Robinson of Cameron, W. Va., says: "Last winter I was taken with one of the awfullest colds I ever had in my life. I could not speak above a whisper and was very hoarse. I was afraid it was going to be pneumonia. I took one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in three days was lots better and could talk. I did not take but the one bottle and it cured me. I now tell everybody about Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the good it did me." For sale by JOHN PREUSS.

CURRY COUNTY NEWS.

Events There as Told by the Port Orford Tribune.

Frank A. Stewart and wife left on the stage last Thursday for Rogue river, where they will reside on the homestead claim of their deceased son.

G. W. Axtell, returned Monday from Marshfield. The contest that he went to attend as a witness was postponed until Feb. 25th, at which date it will be heard in Roseburg.

Mr. Keene, the bookkeeper at the Hume store at Wedderburn, came to Port Orford the first of the week and has been taking an inventory of all the property at this place belonging to the late R. D. Hume.

The storm has continued to sluice the beach, and there is now good pay sand for a mile or more south of town. If the ocean smooths without filling the beach in again some of the miners will be making good runs.

An exciting combat took place at Mussel creek last Thursday between a pack of seven trained dogs and a monster boar hog, in which it seems the hog came out victorious as two valuable dogs belonging to the Colebrook boys were killed outright and several others were wounded.

Dairyville can boast of having the only barber shop in the county; J. P. Lynch having opened up at that place, with hot and cold baths in connection. Besides being adept with the razor, Mr. Lynch is a musician of considerable ability and is a welcome addition to the ball room artists of the vicinity.

A couple of gentlemen from Bandon, who own an interest in the steamer Elizabeth, came down to Port Orford last week for the avowed purpose of making arrangements to have that steamer call at this port next summer. A meeting was to be held Saturday afternoon, but for some reason the gentlemen departed before the scheduled time and from what we learn "John Barleycorn" was transacting most of the business. It is to be hoped some suitable boat can be persuaded to give this place regular service during the summer months at least, and there is no reason why it could not be done to the mutual benefit of all concerned.

Several weeks ago arrangements were made with the steamer Wilhelmina to bring a small cargo of merchandise to this port on a guarantee of $100. The recent heavy storms made the trip impossible until Monday and Tuesday of last week, when the ocean was smooth and the Port Orford harbor like a mill pond, but instead of making their word good and taking advantage of the weather, the management of the steamer asked for an additional $100, which our merchants agreed to give. In the delay thus caused, however, the fair weather passed and another storm came up, and the result is that the Wilhelmina is still in the bay with the freight in her hold that is so badly needed at this place.
