LEE WILLARD AND HIS COMPANY WINS THE FAVOR OF AUDIENCE ON THE OPENING NIGHT.

High-class acting, a blending of healthy humor and pathos so natural and free from mandin sentiment as to cut deep, plain everyday New England scenes familiar to hundreds on hundreds of Marshfield people and a tender delineation of life in Vermont a quarter of a cen-simple and clean, and as full of heart interest as "The Old Homestead" and "Shore Acres." It is a comedy and the story around the play has a beautiful plot. It is just everyday life among simple folk who place the little affairs of their community far above the af-tury ago, made "The Country Squire" last night one of the best plays that has been seen in Marshfield for some time.

Mr. Lee Willard plays the star part, that of Jeremiah Bassett, "The Squar" and his splendid interpretation of the character mark him as one of the great stars of the American stage. The play is as fairs of the nation so far as interest is concerned. And seeing the play one does not wonder that this is so if it develops big, gentle strong characters like that of "Jeremiah Bassett." The company supporting Mr. Willard is one of the best ever seen in Marshfield. Tonight, the four-act musical comedy-drama "The Missourian."

SAYS RAILWAY IS BAD THING

"Bill" Haywood Urges Eureka Citizens to Keep Railroad Away As Long As Possible

EUREKA, Cal., March 23. — The Eureka Herald says: "Bill" Haywood, dubbed by Theodore Roosevelt an 'undesirable citizen,' who lectured at the Russ hall Saturday night on Socialism and the history of the Western Federation of Miners, was asked this afternoon prior to his departure on the steamer Kilburn what he thought of the agitation for a railroad to connect Eureka with the outside world. 'Bill' knocked the proposition. He said that Eureka and Humboldt county were better off without the railroad. 'I'm a pioneer,' said Haywood. 'I lived for a long time 90 miles from a railroad, and I've seen the results of railroad connection with many places. You have a nice little frontier village here. Everybody knows everybody else and it's nice.

already got them corralled,' he pointed out. 'There are yet to be developed your mineral resources,' he volunteered, however. 'The railroad would be a benefit in that line.' 'Do you think that a railroad would set Eureka back?' Haywood was asked.

"Oh, no, the city here will never go back. A railroad is coming inevitably. That is assured, but keep it off as long as you can." "Then we have everything to gain and nothing to lose, Mr. Haywood?"

"Yes," was the answer."

MARRY EARLY AND LOSE NO TIME

BOSTON, March 23.—Mrs. O. M. Martin, the youngest great-grandmother in the country, is seriously ill at her home, 23 Boston avenue, Lynn. At her bedside are her daughter and grand-daughter and in the same house is the little great-granddaughter.

"Marry young and raise your family early in life," is Mrs. Martin's advice, who is now only 56 years old. Her daughter and grand-daughter have followed her advice.

Mrs. Martin herself was married when 17 years old. Her daughter, Mrs. Charles P. Davis, was 18, and her grand-daughter, Mrs. George Darrach, became a wife shortly after her seventeenth birthday. The great-granddaughter arrived on September 26 of last year and was named Mildred Mary Darrach.

JUDY RECLAIMS HIS HOMESTEAD

Petition For Divorce at Roseburg Reveals Strange Mix-up Near Scottsburg.

ROSEBURG, Ore., March 23. —

Suit for divorce has been filed in the circuit court here by Mrs. Susan C. Wilhoit against Leander F. Wilhoit, who were married in 1900. In her complaint, Mrs. Wilhoit alleges that her husband deserted her in January, 1905, and that when she last heard of him he was at The Dalles. In addition to a divorce, she wants the custody of their three children.

Prior to her marriage to the defendant in this suit, Mrs. Wilhoit was the divorced wife of Calvin Judy, recently pardoned from the Oregon penitentiary after serving ten years of a life-sentence for killing a neighboring homesteader in the Loon Lake country, near Scottsburg. After Judy's imprisonment, his wife obtained a divorce, married Wilhoit and lived on Judy's homestead.

It appears that Judy, after his release from the penitentiary, went immediately to his old homestead. On the 20th of last month he wrote a letter to Sheriff Fenton saying that he ought to send for Wilhoit and make him take care of his (Wilhoit's) wife and children. Judy added that he had made Mrs. Wilhoit and her children move off "his" homestead and that they were now living at the home of a neighbor by the name of Solander.

How One Doctor Successfully Treats Pneumonia.

"In treating pneumonia," says Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., "the only remedy I use for the lungs is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. While of course I would treat other symptoms with different medicines, I have used this remedy many times in my medical practice and have yet failed to find a case where it has not controlled the trouble. I have used it myself as has also my wife for coughs and colds repeatedly, and I most willingly and cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other cough remedy to my knowledge."
