WEATHER FORECAST

(By Associated Press.)

Oregon—Fair tonight, and Saturday. Light frost tonight. Easterly winds

Fight April 16.—It is announced that the Carranza-Sax fight will be pulled off here April 16.

Kelly Is Coaching.—Tom Kelly, who played with the North Bend and Marshfield baseball teams last season is coaching the Oregon state university team at Eugene. He has been coaching the team of his Alma mater—Santa Clara college in California.

In Trouble Again.—A San Francisco paper announces that Howard K. Clover has been arrested there on two indictments charging obtaining money by false pretense at Los Angeles and San Francisco. Clover is thought to have formerly been in this section.

New Dairy Inspector.—W. L. Kistner of this city, has received his appointment as dairy inspector of Coos and Curry counties. We feel sure that Mr. Kistner will look after the duties of this office in proper shape and with great benefit to the dairy interests of these counties.—Coquille Herald.

Troupe Coming Monday.—Manager W. J. Butler of the Masonic Opera House, last night received a telegram stating The Bell Boy Company which will hold forth in musical comedy at the Masonic next week, will reach the Bay Monday. There are twenty-five people in the troupe and they have been playing at Eureka. It is understood that they have arranged with one of the larger steamers to put into the Bay with them as they could not reach here Monday on the Eureka.

Carranza Is Coming.—Herron received a telegram from Louis Carranza today stating that he would leave Eureka, where he has been training and visiting, for Coos Bay on the Eureka Sunday. Carranza says he is getting in excellent shape for his bout with Sax here April 16.

North Bend Man Arrested.—Chas. Fuerst of North Bend, was arrested yesterday by Cal. Wright, deputy game warden, on the charge of shooting ducks out of season. Fuerst will have his hearing before Justice Pennock next Monday at 2 o'clock.

THEY ALL WANT IT AND THEY WILL HAVE IT

The following two letters, two months apart, explain better than anything we can offer that the public know a good thing when they see it, and the housewife knows when she is using Sound Ring Flour that she is using the best and will always ask for it.

Bandon, Or., Dec. 27, '09.

Mr. F. S. Dow,
Dear Sir: I shipped back to your Coquille agency the Sound Ring Flour requested; I wish you would send me a credit memorandum for same I find I cannot sell that any more owing to the trade's loss of faith in it.

Yours truly,

A. J. HARTMAN.

Three Months After.

Bandon, Or., March 30, '09.

Mr. F. S. Dow,
Dear Sir: I wish you would ship me the amount of Sound Ring Flour that I sent back to you "as soon as possible." The trade is inquiring for it; also send prices of grain and feed.

Yours truly,

A. J. HARTMAN.

Every sack of flour sold by the Sperry Flour Company is guaranteed. Mr. Hartman allowed a competitor to convince him that his flour was better than Sound Ring, and as soon as he lost faith in it, his trade naturally did the same. We took the flour back without a murmur, gave Mr. Hartman the credit memorandum asked for, and now received his letter of March 30th, which proves even better than the test that was made on this particular lot of flour in San Francisco, that Sound Ring Flour is all right; in fact, we think it is just a little better than the best. Ask your grocer for it and see if we are not right.
