Report Attempted Holdup.—According to reports, another holdup was attempted on the drawbridge across Coal Bank Slough Saturday. According to the story, an alleged holdup man had a couple of mill employees lined up ready to search when a freight train came along, causing him to flee. Marshal Carter is investigating the story.

Council Tuesday.—The Marshfield city council will meet Tuesday night and there promises to be a lively time over the filling of the vacancies. Councilmen Coke, Nelson and Albrecht are said to be insisting that they will not permit W. R. Haines to take a seat in the council and threaten to take the matter into the courts if Mayor Straw insists that Haines be seated. Who will be named to fill the other vacancy has not been announced.

Observe Easter.—Easter Sunday was appropriately observed in all Coos Bay churches yesterday, special musical programs and sermons with special programs by the Sunday schools in some of the churches. Pacific Commandery, Knights Templar, observed the day in the usual way, special services being conducted at the First Baptist church for the Order.

Will Give Benefit.—The Knights of Finland and their wives have arranged to give a benefit dance and supper at their hall next Saturday, the proceeds to go to Mrs. Grant and family of West Marshfield. Mrs. Grant is widow and one of her step sons is critically ill of consumption and is badly in need of aid. The society plans to charge fifty cents admission and serve supper for thirty-five cents so that a neat sum is likely to be derived for the assistance of the family. Mrs. Grant married two brothers, both of whom succumbed to consumption.

Young Couple Weds.—Herman Hillier, proprietor of the Club Cigar store on North Front street, and Miss Edna Johnson were quietly married last evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. George Miller, in South Marshfield, Judge C. L. Pennock officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by about a dozen close friends and relatives of the contracting parties and following the nuptials, all enjoyed a wedding supper.
