

The Woolen Mill for best values

The "Mill-to-Man" system adopted by our various houses throughout the State makes it possible for the Marshfield branch to give its patrons far better values than any other store on the bay. A look at our

$15, $20 and $25 Suits

will convince you that we show a saving of $5.00 to $10.00 on a Suit, besides a class of Tailoring far superior to the ordinary

Start Gospel Missions.—Rev. Burt Gray of North Bend, has started a series of Gospel meetings in the hall over the postoffice. The services are of the Apostolic Faith but are open to all. For the present, they will be held every evening.

An Artistic Window.—One of the most artistic display windows ever seen in Marshfield is the elegant shoe exhibit in the Kammerer & Merchant store this week. It is beautiful in design and execution and reflects credit on the decorator, Mr. Ed. Kammerer.

Is Improving.—Mrs. H. H. McPherson who had the misfortune to sustain a sprained ankle by a fall at her home a few days ago, is getting along nicely. While the injury is painful and will confine to her home for a time no permanent ill effects are anticipated.

Benefit Saturday Night.—The Knights of Finland and their wives will give a benefit dance and supper at their hall Saturday evening. The proceeds go to the assistance of Mrs. Grant who is in hard circumstances owing to illness in her family. A large number of tickets have already been disposed of.

Wedding Anniversary.—The tenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hagquist of West Marshfield, was appropriately celebrated yesterday afternoon by a score of friends and neighbors at their home. The event was a most enjoyable one. More details of it will be given in the Social Department of The Times Saturday.

To Talk Baseball.—Charles Howard and some more of the local fans are planning to meet this evening to talk over the prospects for organizing a team here for the summer. Chas. Baxter and some more of the Coquille fans who are coming over to attend the Carranza-Sax bout will probably meet with the local fans. The meeting will probably be held at The Chandler.

Plants Grass On Sand.—Carl Goodman, who under the direction of the government is planting grass on the North Spit with a view of securing a growth to minimize or stop the shifting of the sand to the damage of the Coos Bay bar channel, was in Marshfield this week. He says the grass cannot be grown from seed but can be made to grow by transplanting large tufts, roots and all. He is confident of the success of the scheme although nearly everyone scoffed at it when it was first proposed.

Boys On Probation.—Lester Thrush and Eddie Engblom, two Empire City lads, were placed on probation by Judge Hall in the juvenile court yesterday. It seems that the lads broke a window in the Southern Oregon Company's store in an endeavor to secure some candy but were discovered by the night-watchman before they had accomplished their purpose. Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Liljeqvist had them haled before Judge Hall who suspended sentence during future good behavior after having instructed the lads' parents to look after them.
