

EFFORT TO SETTLE COUNCIL
MIXUP RESULTS IN FAILUREEach Side Turns Down Proposition From Other Side.LONG DISCUSSION
ENDS IN NAUGHTAttorneys and Councilmen
Grow Irate During Debate
Last Night.

The effort to adjust the Marshfield city council mixup last night ended in failure. While both sides specified a desire to settle the controversy, each had a plan for doing it and neither side would agree to the other's plan. The matter was discussed at length but the longer it was discussed, apparently the farther apart the two became, and both sides declared "Let the courts settle it."

The meeting was largely attended, the recorder's office and council chamber being crowded almost to capacity.

Briefly the two propositions for settling the controversy as presented last night were as follows:

C. F. McKnight as attorney for G. W. Carleton and W. R. Haines stated that his clients had empowered him to make a proposition that if the council would enroll them as members, they would immediately resign; also that in doing this the court be allowed to enter a decree making the writ of mandamus perpetual.

The proposition from the other side as stated by two or three was that the resignations of G. W. Carleton and W. R. Haines would be accepted providing the mandamus suits were dismissed without any decree of the courts; also that any appointments Mayor Straw might make to fill the vacancies excepting three men (whose names were not given) would be ratified.

Going As Peacemaker.

C. C. Going started the movement to try and adjust the matter and for a time it was thought that he had succeeded. He started Saturday by conferring with Messrs. Coke, Albrecht and Butler and said that he secured their consent. He said that they were willing to accept the resignations of Messrs. Carleton and Haines, to have the action in court dropped and to accept any appointments to fill the vacancies that he would suggest, barring three men. With this understanding, he called Hugh McLain, Tom Nicols and Dr. J. T. McCormac to go with him to the attorneys and have the suits dropped. The first conference he said was Monday in C. F. McKnight's office. At the conclusion of it, he said that he thought it had been adjusted but Tuesday he found that Mr. McKnight had a different understanding of the terms than he had. Again Tuesday, another conference was held in Mr. McKnight's office and then he was given to understand Mr. McKnight's insistence that a decree of the courts be entered in the case, making the writ perpetual.

Mr. Going said that he had worked four days and practically four nights in an effort to get the matter settled entirely for the benefit of the public. He said he thought that he had the principals agreed to a settlement, but it had become twisted up and he was tired of it and was willing to declare that his first attempt in public role would be his last. However, he said he wanted to retire with the friends that he had entered with and not wish anyone to misunderstand what he had done.

McKnight States Position.
C. F. McKnight was the first speaker to bring the question up. He said that in making the proposition, he had no apologies to make for their past conduct and that their proposition was made without fear or favor and was wholly for the benefit of Marshfield.

Mr. McKnight said that his clients had decided to make the offer in

NORTH QUILTS
CENSUS JOBDirector Resigns As Result of Trouble With Sec. Nagel,
His Superior.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 26.—S. N. D. North, director of the Census, has tendered his resignation and it was accepted today. E. Dana Durand, deputy commissioner of corporations, has been nominated to succeed North, whose resignation was a direct result of his controversy with Secretary Nagel.

The following statement in connection with the North case was given out at the White House: "Director North has tendered his resignation as director of the census. It was accepted and the name of E. Dana Durand, now public commissioner of corporations, has been sent to the Senate to succeed him. North's resignation is based on the ground that on account of the conditions existing and likely to continue, his administration of the census office would not probably be successful." Durand is from California and has been head of the bureau of corporations for some time and it is believed he will work in harmony with Secretary Nagel. Director North held to the belief that the census bureau was an independent institution and that he was responsible only to the president. A congressional enactment put the census bureau under the Department of Commerce and Labor. Friction had existed between North and Nagel for some time and it was the result of Nagel's insistence that North was made subordinate to him.

FORCE HILL-HARRIMAN PEACE PACT

MAGNATES OF THE PACIFIC RAILWAY SYSTEMS COMPEL-LED TO ENTER AGREEMENT—
HILL MAY LOSE HIS CONTROL.

(By Associated Press.)
PORTLAND, Ore., May 26.—In connection with the announcement that the Northern Pacific, Union Pacific and Great Northern roads have reached an agreement covering their operations in the Pacific Northwest, the Evening Telegram today will say "James J. Hill is gradually losing his control of the Northern Pacific. Wall Street has forced a Hill-Harriman truce in the Northwest. Hill has paid the price to protect himself when the blow comes and Harriman has paid the price that his gigantic enemy has exacted for entrance to Puget Sound. From the best information that may be had here, the ledger accounts between these great powers in the industrial and financial world seem to balance pretty well. Hill secures terminals for the Great Northern in Portland and gets his North Bank train into the Union depot. Harriman nullifies the effect of the Interstate Commerce Commission in opening the Portland gateway by obliterating the portal to Puget Sound altogether." The Evening Telegram goes on to say the deal is the outcome of a quiet fight which Wall Street has been making on the Hill interests and that the day is inevitable when his enemies will be prepared to throw down the gauntlet and do him open battle for possession of the system. That is why Hill wants to secure the Great Northern terminals in Portland and that is why he is willing to let Harriman into Tacoma and Seattle on equal terms.

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, May 26.—A slight earthquake shock lasting a few seconds was felt in the states of Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa and contiguous territory at 8:41 o'clock this morning. Throughout the territory affected, the only damage reported was of a minor nature. Several small fires were started by the overturning stoves and many chimneys were razed. In this city, the shock was generally felt but was attributed to the passage of street cars, blasts, the movement of big trucks and other vibrations of commerce and not until the newspapers appeared did the people know they had passed through a natural phenomena.

Marshfield Council Mandamus Proceedings to Come Up.

The mandamus proceedings over the Marshfield city council mixup will come up before Judge Coke tomorrow for hearing. Yesterday, a motion and demurrer to the suit entered by Attorney Hoy for City Recorder Butler were argued and overruled by Judge Coke.

It has been intimated that a change of venue from Judge Coke would be asked. If this is taken, it will still further delay the final decision in the case.

Splendid Educational Papers to Seattle.

Prof. Golden yesterday forwarded the Marshfield public schools contribution to the Oregon Educational Exhibit at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exhibition at Seattle. The Marshfield exhibit was sent on the steamer Alliance to Portland where the hundreds of papers will be bound and made part of the state exhibit. In addition to the bound manuscripts a case containing the best specimens of work from the various grades was prepared at the high school and makes a showing of which every resident of the city may feel proud. This case was arranged with swinging panels each containing four specimen papers prepared by public school pupils ranging in years from six to twenty. The front of the case contains photographs of the new high school and the grammar school together with a copy of the invitation of the last graduating class and a program of exercises.

The pupils work was remarkable not only for its uniform excellence but for some splendid specimens that would compare favorably with the showing of any school in the country. Miss Gunhill Lund a pupil in the Sixth Grade, contributed a pen and ink sketch of Stephenson that while a copy was a very fine piece of work. Four Eighth Grade pupils Zeta Mitchell, Ruth Horton, Stanley Briggs and Leslie Isaacson contributed four water-color sketches that were excellently done and displayed originality and much artistic ability. Miss Maude Conklin, a Sixth Grade pupil, contributed the largest number of specimens of a uniform excellence from the various branches of study.

Even the little tots, Emma Lou Douglas, Jessie Chance, Douglas Burroughs and Elwin Johnson, six and seven years contributed some very neat papers and the Sloyd work by Archie McGuire, Alice Flanagan, Edgar Mauzey, Marguerite Lecocq and Minnie Rencchausen was well and neatly executed. Some relief maps were finely done by Dilla Pratt and Rena Haglund.

Other pupils whose papers were given a place in the case exhibit were:

Mary Metlin, Hilmore Grant, Jeanette Upton, Starling Livermore, Hazel Miller, Frank McCoy, Preston Mael, Bessie Ayres, Elsie Hall, Mary Kruse, Alice Davoren, Zoe Dolan, Henry Christenson, Helen Dow, Mary Levar, Frank Curtis, Eva Hutchison, Lydia Holm, Alfred Jutstrom, Lewis Wickens, May Myren, Robert Stoops, Hattie Rehfeld, Hazel Tibbets, Alice Cox, Frances Golden, Grace Kruse, Eugenia Schilling, Anetta Mulloy, Alpha Hutchison, Florence Powers, Walter Jensen, Helen Rees, Carl Abrahamson, Mille Condle, Woner Krongquist, Lydie Holmes, Joseph Rooney, Florence Powers, Carl Abrahamson, Gunhill Lund, Jamesina Hibbard, Bessie Douglas, Ernest Drews, Andrew Erickson, Jack Merchant, Myrtle Cowan, Maude Noble, Elsie Larsen, Bessie Flanagan, May Myren, Pearly Lund, Mike Burke, Ellis Grant, Ruth Cowan, Hugo Hilstrom, Inez Johnson, Elvira Frizeen, Fay White, Lucy Juza, Helen Bradley, Belva Flanagan, Myrtle E. Subscriptions for survey and right of way certificates for the proposed People's road from Coos Bay to Boise via Roseburg are coming in rapidly. G. W. Carleton and H. C. Diers have been making a canvass here and already over $5,000 has been subscribed.

Today H. C. Diers began the canvass in North Bend and expects to be able to report a good list from there tomorrow.

The canvass in Marshfield will continue as the solicitors have had time to see only part of those who are known to be willing to help the project along. Many whose names are given in the list below have signified their intention of subscribing for considerable more later on, their present subscription being merely to get sufficient cash on hand to defray the expenses of the survey.

This afternoon, G. W. Carleton said that before Saturday night, he was confident of having between $7,500 and $10,000 so that the surveying party will be able to start out Monday.
