Meet Friday Night.—The Citizens League will meet Friday night at the Finnish hall to discuss the advisability of floating a city bond issue to install and conduct a municipal electric light and power plant.

Memorial Service.—The Rev. Mr. Clevinger of the Marshfield Baptist church and the members of Baker Post G. A. R. have completed arrangements for the Memorial Day exercises here. Services will be held at the Baptist church at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, at the conclusion of which the members of Baker Post will march to the cemetery and decorate the graves of the soldier dead.

Build at Coquille.—Jasper Yonkam drove from Coquille last night and closed a contract with Henry Sengstacken for the erection of a small business building on the Sengstacken property in Coquille, across from the Tupper hotel.

Whist Club Meets.—The Oklahoma Whist Club was entertained by Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Houseworth at their home last evening. The club prizes were won by Thayer Grimes and Mrs. Eugene Crosthwait. The guests' prize was won by Mrs. F. K. Gettins.

Mrs. Hart Recovers.—Mrs. Laura Hart, the trained nurse who suffered from ptomaine poisoning, is rapidly recovering her health. She has so far convalesced that she is able to be on the street again. Mrs. Anderson who was poisoned at the same time, is still quite ill.

Dredge Moves.—The dredge Oregon has moved farther down the channel and while clearing the way past the channel opposite the cold storage plant, will pump the dredgings onto the mud flat across the bay, not having enough pipe line to throw it back far enough in the city.

Fractures Hip.—Mrs. George Stauff, a well-known pioneer of Coos county, fell and fractured her hip at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Sinclair, in Coquille, where she has been making her home. Owing to her advanced age, the injury is very serious but her many friends will sincerely wish for her early recovery.

Rust Plumbing Shop Moves.—J. B. Rust has removed his plumbing shop and will be glad to get acquainted avenue into the remodeled Smith building at 170 Front street, next to Ekblad's hardware store. He says he will be pleased to see all his old friends and patrons in his new home and will be glad to get acquainted with many new ones.

Long Launch Trip.—George F. Schroeder and wife who went to Frisco this week, will enjoy a long launch trip. At San Francisco they will become guests of Ned, Galloway and with him will make the trip back here in about two weeks in a gasoline launch which he is completing there. After a short stop on the Bay, the party will proceed to Seattle to take in the fair.

Hearing Today.—Milo Pierson of Ten Mile, is on trial before Judge C. L. Penneck this afternoon on the charge of killing deer out of season.

Mrs. Grimes Injured.—Mrs. Wm. Grimes sustained a badly sprained ankle in a fall off the back steps of their home in West Marshfield about noon today. The injury will probably confine her to their home for several weeks.

Exhibition Shoot.—Capt. George E. Bartlett, a rifle shot of national reputation, arrived here from Eureka this week and will give an exhibition shoot on North Front street Sunday. He was formerly in the government service at the Pine Ridge Indian agency in South Dakota but has recently been representing small arms manufacturers.

Piling Too Short.—The clearing of the channel near the Breakwater dock has brought out the fact that some of the piling used in the construction of the wharf were too short. The clearing of the channel has resulted in the bank under the wharf caving in and many of the piling are hanging loose. A whole row of new and longer piling will have to be driven to save the dock.

Was Toastmaster.—The program of the annual banquet of the law school of Oregon University at Portland has been received here. The banquet was held at the Nortonia hotel, May 23, and many prominent men responded to toasts. C. J. Mahoney of Marshfield was toastmaster. Mr. Mahoney will complete his law course next month and will return to Marshfield the latter part of June.

Still On Wilhelmina.—It has been erroneously reported that Capt. Christanson is no longer with the Wilhelmina. Some interpreted the report that Lee Brown, formerly purser of the Alliance, had joined the Wilhelmina's force as meaning that he would succeed Capt. Christanson. This is not correct as Capt. Christanson will remain as master and Mr. Brown is purser and traveling agent aboard her, the combination insuring greater popularity and success for Chas. Thom's trim schooner.

Had Hard Trip.—A number of the guests at the Gould-Barker wedding at the Geo. A. Gould home above Allegany, yesterday encountered some unexpected difficulties in reaching the Gould home. They chartered a launch here and left at noon but when they neared Allegany, the tide was so low that their launch stuck fast. They didn't have much time to lose owing to the wedding hour being near and finally by blowing the distress whistle, they attracted a couple of small launches and were taken up the river, reaching the Gould home only a trifle late. The wedding party returned to Marshfield last night accompanied by the bride and groom who proceeded to Coquille this morning.

Mrs. John NASBURG will reopen her BOARDING and ROOMING house "The Arlington" on June 1. SOUTHERN style cooking. Those desiring accommodations there should engage them at once.

AT THE THEATRES.

Preparations for the semi-annual concert of the Chaminade Club at the Masonic Opera House Friday evening June 4, are progressing nicely. Much interest centers in the appearance of Mrs. Rose Coursen-Reed, the Portland contralto.

After the recent performance of Mendelssohn's "First Walpurgis Night" by the Choral and Orchestra Society of Vancouver, B. C., Mrs. Walter Reed received the following complimentary notice from the Daily Province:

"Although one was inclined to cavil at the importation of a soloist when there is so much real local talent, no Vancouver contralto could have created the impression made by Mrs. Walter Reed, Her singing, both in her songs, which were all too short, and in "Walpurgis Night" stamped her as one of the best contraltos on the Pacific Coast. Perfect in tone and timbre, and with a certain winning charm of manner that at once created a favorable impression, she compelled admiration for her art."
