DAVIS—To Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis of Bay Park, Sunday, May 30, a daughter. Mother and child are getting along nicely.

Good Fishing.—E. H. Campbell returned today from Ten Mile where he enjoyed a few days' fishing. He got twenty-one nice trout and says they are rising to the fly in good shape.

Press Improving.—Word from San Francisco is that John Preuss is slowly recovering from the effects of the operation which he underwent at the German hospital there a few weeks ago. He has been moved to a private residence and is able to sit up most of the time.

Carleton's Trophies.—In the windows of G. W. Carleton's jewelry store are exhibited more than half a score of rattles taken from rattlesnakes which G. W. killed on his Texas ranch before he became a Coos Bay booster. The specimens are excellent and well worth seeing.

Will Speak.—Prof. Alderman of Oregon State University at Eugene, who delivered the commencement address at North Bend, is spending a few days with friends on the Bay. He will address the Marshfield High School pupils tomorrow morning before going to Coquille where he will deliver the commencement address.

ALLIANCE AND PLANT IN PORT

Steamships Arrive From Portland and San Francisco Early Today.

The Alliance arrived in this morning from Portland with a large cargo of miscellaneous freight and a fair sized passenger list. Yesterday was a delightful day at sea, the passengers enjoying an unusually fine trip down the coast.

Among the freight brought down on the Alliance were two automobiles for Fred. Slagle of Coquille. He will run the machines over from here.

The Alliance will sail for Portland at noon tomorrow.

Among those who arrived on the Alliance were:

Miss B. Long, Dan McLaven, L. R. Sanders, Mrs. F. M. Amen, Chas. O. Malley, E. Wright, H. Hurlie, S. A. Ford, C. S. Springler, Sister M. Lawrence, Geo. Hegey, J. E. Kutche, A. R. Carson, N. Edgerton, Mrs. H. Hume, Mrs. E. Wright, J. L. Anderson, S. B. Lubis, E. D. Doran, Miss Schminlbush, W. G. Ingram, Thos. O'Brien, F. M. Amen, Mrs. N. Edgerton, Mrs. Geo. Todd, E. B. Wright, Mrs. Anderson, E. L. Sherman, Sister M. Scholastica, J. W. Gunn and fifteen steerage.

Plant In Early.

The M. F. Plant arrived in early today after a good trip up from San Francisco. Misses Marie and Mercedes Demoro, sisters of Purser Demoro, accompanied him up this trip and will return with him tomorrow. The Plant will sail Tuesday.

Among the incoming passengers were the following:

T. A. King, R. S. Wright, J. A. Haldey and wife, S. B. Dinkelspiel, F. J. Monroe, Otto Niehaus and wife, J. H. Powers and wife, W. H. Smith and wife, D. L. Foote, H. E. Johnson, Mrs. O. N. Moulton, Minnie Swanson, Mrs. W. F. Squire, Miss E. Hanson, Mrs. A. S. Edwards, Miss Marie Demoro, Miss Mercedes Demoro, Christian Herrman and wife, George Reynolds, W. E. Dant, Capt. J. T. Magee and eighteen steerage.

Busy On the Umpqua.

The tug Gleanor came in this morning from the Umpqua with miscellaneous freight and will take back a cargo of general merchandise. Members of the crew state that shipping activity is reviving there. The schooners Lilly, Sadie and Louise are now loading there, the Lilly taking spruce lumber for Frisco. Nothing is being done about the erection of the new mill which it was stated that Dollar and Bishop were to erect there.

The steam schooner Bee sailed yesterday for San Francisco with a cargo of lumber.

The Eureka arrived in North Bend yesterday from Portland and sailed immediately for Eureka.

BUY COOS BAY GOODS.

Are you still keeping in mind the fact that buying Coos Bay made products is the best boost that Coos Bay may have? More Coos Bay products sold, the more factories here. The more factories, the more people and a greater Coos Bay. It is easy to see where you will benefit. Better stop, and think the next time you go out to make purchases whether you can buy the Coos Bay made goods. Something like casting your bread upon the waters.

INSURANCE SETTLEMENTS.

Sometime since The Times indulged in some editorial criticism of the excessive insurance rates in Marshfield. The Times has not altered its views on this matter, but it is only fair to say for the insurance companies that all losses in the recent Marshfield fire were settled promptly and satisfactorily. There was no hair splitting in the adjustments and while the losses were small the action of the companies in meeting them promptly and fairly is deserving commendation.
