HATS SIGNS OF EVIL.

NEW YORK, June 2.—In an address at a dinner given by the Unitarian club, Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones, a noted clergyman of Chicago, said: "The big hats women wear are signs of the evil of the world. Right in Chicago there is a store, which without doubt, caters to more sin than any other. In that store the reckless tastes of the wife, which defile the economies of the home, are satisfied and the evil ambitions of the young girl to wear finery are inflamed."
