Are You Well Armed?

In warfare, to meet a moderately-armed enemy, your own force equipped with obsolete weapons, would be worse than folly. Even the argument that you could not AFFORD modern arms or weapons would not excuse you. The enemy makes you pay for HIS. So it is in business. You must advertise in the most modern and aggressive ways or get out of the fight entirely.

NEWS OF BANDON.

Happenings of City-By-the-Sea Taken From the Recorder.

The new $30,000 school building was formally dedicated with an appropriate program Friday, June 18.

Rev. Geo. H. Roach returned last Friday from Denver, Colorado, where he has been in attendance at the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church as a commissioner from the Southern Oregon Presbytery.

Next Monday, June 21st will be the annual school election for district No. 54, comprising Bandon and vicinity. There will be two members of the board to elect, one to fill the place of C. I. Kime, resigned and moved to Myrtle Point and one to fill the place of Geo. P. Topping whose term expires. Mr. Topping will no doubt be elected to succeed himself.

Joseph Walser one of the pioneers of Coos county died at the hospital in San Francisco, Sunday, June 13, 1909, being 73 years, 6 months and 16 days. Mr. Walser was born in Zirl Tyrol, Austria, Nov. 27, 1835.
He arrived in Coos county, Oregon, October 15, 1881, coming on the steamer Arcadia and settled at Coquille. He went to California in 1891 and came back to Coos county in 1895. His wife's maiden name was Rosina Hocheder, born in Zeil, Zillerthal, Tyrol Austria, in 1858.
Six children were born to them.
William, the oldest, was born in Salt Lake City in 1881, and died when yet young; Sophia now Mrs.
Simpson; Alias, Flora, Otto and Rosina, the latter of whom died about three years ago in San Francisco. Mr. Walser served two wars as a soldier in the Austrian army; one in 1859 against Italy and France, and again in 1866 against Italians. He came to America in 1870. The remains were brought up on the Fifield and after a short funeral service at the home will be interred in the Bandon cemetery.

CANDIDATES ARE NAMED.

Ticket Put In Field For Bandon Municipal Election.

BANDON, Ore., June 19.—There were about 125 men present at the city mass meeting Tuesday night to nominate candidates for city officers.
The first thing on the program was the nomination of candidates for mayor. The names of Steve Gallier, L. J. Radley, J. C. Shields and J. T. Mars were placed in nomination for mayor. Gallier received 87 votes, Radley 21, Shields 10, Mars 2 and A. McNair 1.

For councilmen there were many names placed in nomination but they almost as rapidly declined, leaving only about ten or eleven candidates, they are: H. Manciet, Mr. Windsor, G. Boak, Harry Morrison, W. F. Disher, Nels Rasmussen, M. Breuer, H. C. Ostien, E.
Lewin, J. W. Mast.

For municipal judge, Geo. P.
Topping was unanimously nominated by acclamation as was also C. R.
Wade for city recorder.

"I thank my friends and voters of Bandon for nominating me for councilman and will thank them still further if they do not vote for me for if elected I positively decline to serve." E. Lewin.

IS KILLED BY TREE.

Former Coos County Man Victim of Accident.

The Myrtle Point Enterprise says:
"A brief message was received here yesterday morning bringing the distressing news that J. C. Royer had been killed by a tree falling on him.
Mr. Royer and family had moved to Lane county, near Marcola, about a month ago, and was engaged in clearing up a piece of land which he had recently purchased. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Royer, had accompanied him to his new home. The message was received by Daniel Barklow, who was requested to break the news to Mrs.
Royer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barklow, and other relatives and friends. In accordance with the request of the message, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Barklow expected to leave for Marcola yesterday. Besides the parents Mr. Royer is survived by a wife and eleven children and his death is particularly unfortunate."

NEWS FROM ALL OVER COOS COUNTY

MYRTLE POINT POINTERS.

News of Upper Coquille Told By The Enterprise.

Cashier L. M. Suplee of the Flanagan & Bennett Bank of Myrtle Point, left the first of the week for Douglas county where he will enjoy a few weeks of rest and recreation. J.
W. Leneve of Coquille, is attending to the business of the bank during his absence.

It is reported that the McBees mill at Enchanted Prairie was burned one day last week. It is estimated that the value of the property was $1,500 to $2,000. Besides the loss to the owners, the people in that district will be inconvenienced as they depend on the mill for their building material.

County Judge Hall heard a suit in probate court Friday and Saturday of last week. It is a case in which Dr. J. D. Wetmore is suing the Sears estate for fees for medical attendance on the late Jack Sears.
A number of witnesses were examined during the two days. Judge Hall has not yet rendered a decision.

Married on June 7, 1909, by J.
M. Arnston, justice of the peace and judge of the police court at Tacoma, Wash., Mr. Henry A. Russell of Kendrick, Idaho, and Miss Minnie Whittington of Myrtle Point. Mr.
Russell is the elder brother of the late S. S. Russell, state senator from Garfield county, Wash., and is a prominent fruit grower and fine stock raiser of the Potlatch country, Idaho, the present home of several former Coos county citizens. Miss Whittington, who spent the past year with relatives and friends in the Potlatch country and who at the time of her marriage was visiting her sister and friends in Tacoma, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W.
Whittington of the South Fork.

The permanent work that has been put on the road between here and Coquille is standing the wear very well and is one of the best roads in the county, but there are a few unimproved portions that detract from the general good character of the highway and should receive attention. In a couple of places where the road rounds rocky cliffs it should be widened as they are places of danger when meeting other teams or automobiles, and the rocking of portions not yet completed should be undertaken. A minimum of work will then keep the road in good repair and this can now be done in the winter time when men and teams are better obtained than in the busy summer season.

TROUBLE OVER BONDS.

Portland Financiers Pick Flaw In Myrtle Point Issue.

MYRTLE POINT, Ore., June 19.— The city council is experiencing some difficulty in realizing on the bonds recently authorized in the sum of $22,000 for the rebuilding of the waterworks system. The bid of a Portland firm was accepted and they were notified of the action.
They expressed dissatisfaction with the proceedings of the election furnished them and asked that a new election be held. Attorney Sperry of Coquille, who was engaged to attend to the legal aspect of the election has been here this week and states that he finds details of the proceedings correct. A complete record of all the transactions of the elections will be forwarded to the bonding company and it is believed that they must be satisfied and furnish the money. Meanwhile the work of improving the system has been delayed and it will be late in the summer before the system can be installed.

MANY HAVE MEASLES.

Nine Cases Quarantined at Myrtle Point.

Dr. Johnson reports one case of scarlet fever and nine cases of measles in town. The measles are all in three families, or rather in three sections of one family, the ex-posure taken place at Roseburg, where there have been many families under quarantine. The various families were promptly placed under strict quarantine and it is believed that any spread of the contagion in either case will be avoided.

NEWS OF COQUILLE.

Coos County Seat Events As Told
By The Herald.

There will be a celebration at the old Davenport place 2½ miles below Coquille, July 4th. There will be a ball game, races, sports, barbecue and picnic dinner.

F. B. McDowell who has spent several years past on a farm out near Sitkum, has sold his place and will make a change for the present. He has not yet decided where he will locate.

Mrs. E. W. Lewis and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs.
Chance of Marshfield, who had been on a visit of several days with Rev. and Mrs. C. D. Price at Bancroft, returned home Saturday.

G. R. Hancock of the Coos Bay live-saving station, returned from Myrtle Point Wednesday, where he had been to see Mrs. Hancock and little boy who recently fell and badly hurt his arm, fracturing the bone. The little one was brought to Coquille and the arm straightened and placed in a plaster cast.

W. A. Barnett came up from Prosper Wednesday and took his boy home with him, the lad having been here several days for medical treatment, having suffered a severe attack of bloodpoisoning in one hand and arm. It begins to look as though an operation may be necessary, as the bone of the forearm appears to have become diseased.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed.
Gillespie who reside near Prosper, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday night of last week, as well as its entire contents, entailing a loss to its owners of about $800. There was no one about the place, therefore nothing was saved, and the origin of the fire is unaccounted for. Mr.
Gillespie carried about $400 insurance.

NEWS OF COQUILLE.

Items of Interest Taken From The Sentinel.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Perkins, Monday, June 14, a son.

R. L. Chapman will leave today for Marshfield from which point he will take the Breakwater en route to eastern Washington where he will join his wife who went north several weeks ago.

J. B. R. Shelton left by the morning stage Wednesday for Pendleton where he will be a delegate to the state convention of the Knights of Pythias which convenes there the twenty-third of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Baxter and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Williams returned Wednesday from a week's camping trip in the mountains. It goes without saying that they had a pleasant outing, and equally of course were glad to get back.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sterling departed yesterday for an extended visit at Drain with Mr. Sterling's father who has been in poor health for some time. While absent they will no doubt visit the fair at Seattle also stopping in other Washington cities where they have friends.
They expect to be absent about six weeks.

Miles A. Simpson arrived on the Plant last week from San Jose, California, and came up to Coquille to look around Tuesday. Mr. Simpson expressed himself as much pleased with Coquille and will perhaps locate here. He is an old printer and newspaper man but has retired from that business, having sold out his plant in San Jose recently. He went down to Bandon Tuesday and looked over that section, returning to Coquille yesterday.

RODE LONG WAYS.

Makes Trip From Oklahoma to Coos County On Horseback.

BANDON, Ore., June 19.—Mr.
Rose, a gentleman from Oklahoma rode all the way from that state to Bandon on horseback and his horse was in fine condition when he reached here. Mr. Rose was so favorably impressed with the country that he purchased a five-acre tract from C.
H. Chandler and will go to work and improve the same at once.
