In Early.—The Breakwater will reach Coos Bay from Portland between 6 and 7 o'clock this evening.

City Council Tonight.—The Marshfield city council will meet this evening to take up the bonding proposition and the new charter.

Changes Position.—Ellsworth Carleton has resigned his position at the Millcoma Club to succeed Jake Goldie in charge of the Chandler buffet, July 1.

Services Sunday.—Rev. R. G. Summerlin of North Bend, announces that he will hold services at Daniel's Creek at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning and in North Bend at 8 o'clock Sunday evening.

John Preuss Better.—John Preuss writes that he and Mrs. Preuss have gone from San Francisco to San Rafael where they will probably remain until he recovers his strength sufficiently to return to Coos Bay. He is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Scadding Better.—Mrs. Charles Scadding, wife of the bishop of Oregon, who was operated on for appendicitis four weeks ago at the Good Samaritan hospital, is recovering and was strong enough to be brought back to Bishopcroft, where she now is.—Portland Journal.

Rumor New Surveys.—According to a report brought here last evening, a surveying party is now working on a railroad survey between Bandon and Coquille. It is intimated that the Southern Pacific or local railway is planning to build there from Coquille but no official confirmation.

Roosevelt and Taft are the only Presidents elected from the same town in which they were born.

mation of this report could be secured. Sometime ago, the Bandon Commercial Club had an offer from a Eugene man to survey the route from Bandon to Roseburg for a nominal fee.

Gets New Engine.—The launch North Star has just installed a handsome new 24-horse-power Samson engine purchased from the Coos Bay Ore and Supply Company. While not willing to contest honors with Powers' swift racing boat, the North Star is now among the fast boats on the Bay.

Perham Gets Job.—The council accepted the plans of E. G. Perham, of Marshfield, for a new bridge over Deer Creek, and Recorder Orcutt was instructed to advertise for bids for its construction. The bids are to be opened at a special meeting of the council next Monday night.—Roseburg Review.

Racing at Latonia.—Bob Wilson, a well-known Marshfield boy who is winning honors as a jockey on the leading race tracks of the country, has just closed a successful season at Fort Worth, Texas, and is now riding at the Latonia track in Kentucky. Relatives here hope to have him home for a Fourth of July visit.

Go to Burns.—Wm. Grimes of Marshfield, and Jas. R. Smith of North Bend, will leave this week for Burns, Ore., to attend the meeting of the Oregon-Idaho Development Congress which opens there July 1. They will invite the congress to hold its August meeting on Coos Bay. The railroad project will probably also be taken up by the congress.

Go to California.—Mr. and Mrs. Pounder of Coos county, left here this week for Southern California to secure a change of climate for Mrs. Pounder's health. They were accompanied by her mother, Mrs. W. W. Gage, and Miss Gladys Gage. This is the family of Sheriff Gage, of Coos county. Mr. Gage came with them to Roseburg.—Roseburg Review.

Edgar Campbell Ill.—Word has been received here that Edgar Campbell is seriously ill of typhoid fever at Riverside, Cal. Mr. Campbell was located in Marshfield for a number of years, being connected with the Magnes & Matson store. Recently he has been managing a large grocery at Riverside where he was married a few months ago. His many friends here hope to hear soon of his recovery.

Brother Ill.—Elijah Smith of the Southern Oregon Company will not be able to come to Coos Bay as early as he expected, according to advices just received. He had arranged to get here this week to attend the annual meeting of the Southern Oregon Company, but was called back by the sudden illness of his brother, Wm. Smith. He expects to make an extended stay when he does come.

To Get Auto.—Tom Goodale of the Launch Tloga, and Wm. Wade have gone to Portland to buy a large auto which they expect to put in service between Marshfield and Roseburg via the Coos Bay wagon road. They will run the machine from Portland here and expect to reach Marshfield Sunday night. They expect to have a six-passenger machine with sufficient power to climb any of the heavy grades on the road.
