Builds House.—Joe Lapp is erecting a $2,500 residence at South Harbor.

Meet Sunday.—An open session of the W. C. T. U. will be given at the Baptist church, Sunday evening, June 27.

Will Preach Sunday.—F. Grant Hamm, will preach at the Church of Christ, Commercial avenue, next Sunday morning and evening. All are invited.

Brings Body Here.—F. Urquhart of Coquille, passed through here today with the body of Alex Urquhart, the well-known Coos county pioneer.
Burial will be on the Coquille, who died at Salem a few days ago.

Improve Road.—The improvement of the old Coos Bay wagon road is steadily progressing. Today Supervisor Grant Harry of Sitkum took out a load of powder to dynamite some of the worst rocks in the canon.

To Drain Flat.—Residents of Railroad Addition southwest of the recent fill are confronted with a perplexing problem of draining the flat. They may arrange with the city council to run a large drain box from the lowland to Mill Slough and drain it that way.

Want Stores to Decorate.—A committee of the Firemen today requested that the merchants arrange for proper decorations of their stores and places of business for the Fourth of July celebration. The firemen are also endeavoring to have the fraternal bodies to take an active part in the celebration.

Noted Fishermen.—J. N. Teal and Dr. Minor of Portland, and Mr.
Meyers, an electric line magnate of New York, arrived here this morning to spend a week on the Bay as guests of J. W. Bennett. This afternoon, Mr. Bennett and Tom Bennett took them to Ten Mile where they will enjoy a few days trout fishing.

Deer In Marshfield.—This morning, some dogs got after a deer south of the city and ran it up through the railroad yards near the depot where it took to the Bay. A number saw it jump into the Bay and attempted to catch it alive but they could not overtake it in row boats. The deer finally struck the bank and made away through Eastside.

Is Badly Hurt.—James Beham of Fairview, sustained a compound fracture of his leg while working on the improvement of the North Fork road this week. He was engaged with his team in removing stumps with the chain or whippie-tree broke, striking him in the leg. Another piece struck one of his horses, inflicting so severe a wound that the animal almost bled to death.

Tug Reported Lost.—The tug Grayling, which recently stopped at Coos Bay for fuel while en route from Puget Sound to Panama, is reported from San Francisco to be missing and fear is expressed there that she has been lost. The San Francisco shipping authorities claim that the last time the Grayling was seen was when the steamer President saw her near the entrance to Puget Sound. However that was several days before she was in Coos Bay. When here, Capt. Moore said his intention was to make the run direct to San Diego so that San Francisco report is believed to be erroneous.

Arrange For Log Rolling.—Frank B. Tichenor, general organizer of the Woodmen of the World and a well-known Coos Bay booster, and J. P. Smith, a special organizer of the fraternal body, arrived here today from Crescent City, Cal., having come up overland along the coast. They are arranging for big "log rolling" here in October. Tonight they will visit the North Bend lodge and the Marshfield lodge next Wednesday night.

Celebrate at Sumner.—The residents of Sumner are making great preparations for the Fourth of July celebration which will be pulled off there July 3. George Ross is president, the orator of the day is Hon.
C. R. Burrows, Miss Dorothy Watson will read the Declaration of Independence. Besides many musical numbers, a barbecue, a ball and fireworks at night, two ball games will be pulled off, Eastside playing Fairview and Lee playing Sumner.

Doing Fine Work.—R. O. Graves and Ira L. Sigler have returned from Camas Valley where they visited the Coos Bay and Boise Engineering corps. Mr. Graves says they are doing excellent work and are getting one per cent grade. He says they have the camp in an excellent site. He says all the members of the crew are enthusiastic over the success with which they are meeting. Some additional men were sent out this week to enable them to hasten the work.

EUREKA OFF DRY DOCK.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 25.—After being given an overhauling and having some repair work done to her the steamer Eureka was lowered from the drydock Tuesday. She will be inspected by United States Inspectors Edwards and Fuller, and if everything is found to be in good shape, she will resume regular service between Portland and Eureka and Coos Bay. The steamer has been off the route for about a week.
In the meantime her business has been taken care of by the steamers Geo. W. Elder and Roanoke.

The electric motors on the New York Edison system aggregate 205, 373-horse-power.

NORTH BEND NEWS

A. J. Hoben returned last night from a business trip to Portland.

J. Houser of Sumner, will leave today to visit relatives at Myrtle Point.

Robert Richard of Sumner, is spending a few days with friends at Myrtle Point.

Mrs. H. E. Burmeister has returned from a visit with her parents in Eastern Oregon.

Jas. Laird and wife of Fairview, report their little daughter is quite ill of pneumonia.

Mrs. O. Hanson and Mrs. W.
Lawhorne of Marshfield, were guests of Mrs. M. J. Pratt yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Catching's baby, who had its arm broken a short time ago, is reported improving at the Marshfield hospital.

Mrs. Baxter, who has been visiting Marshfield and North Bend friends for a few days, will return to her home in Coquille today.

Miss Bronte Jennings, a former Eastside teacher, is expected here shortly from Portland to visit relatives at Remote and on the Bay.
Her uncle, Frank Spooner, will accompany her.

AMONG THE SICK.

News of the Shut-Ins and Ailing On Coos Bay.

A. O. Kjelland, who has been quite ill at his home in Porter, is reported improving.

Mrs. H. W. Skinner, who has been very ill for several days, is reported somewhat improved today.

W. W. Hayes, who is lying very ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs.
John Snyder, is reported growing weaker gradually and but little hope is entertained for his recovery.

Ed. Lawrence, brakeman on the local line, is laid up with a slight injury to his head. While loading coal yesterday, a big lump fell out of the bunkers and struck him on the head, rendering him unconscious for an hour or so.

also in attendance there, decided to return by the overland route and will probably be home Saturday.

HENRY WIEDER, who is with the Associated Oil Company in California, is paying his first visit to the Bay in more than two years.
He is looking well, feeling even better and is being given the glad hand by his numerous friends here.

GEORGE GOODRUM returned last evening from a few days outing at Ten Mile. He says he didn't try to break the trout catch record of the season—that he was too busy getting away with the large luscious strawberries that are abundant there now.
