HAVE BAD RUNAWAY.

Sam Breuer and Wife of Myrtle Point, Injured.

MYRTLE POINT, Ore., June 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Sam Breuer were the victims of a serious runaway accident on the steep grade this side of the Oak school house on the Middle Fork. They had been attending the annual school meeting and were driving a young horse that did not like it when the breeching tightened up, and started to kick and run. Mr. Breuer attempted to get out and get the animal by the bridle but was thrown down and badly bruised. It was some hours later that he fully regained consciousness. Mrs. Breuer remained in the buggy until the runaway horse encountered a team being driven by Elder F. J. Chaburn of Spokane, who was accompanied by Arthur Baker of Bandon. Elder Chaburn had driven his horses as far out on the edge of the road as he could, giving the runaway the side next the mountain and his presence of mind probably saved Mrs. Breuer's life. When the rigs collided the frightened colt broke loose and Mrs. Breuer was thrown out. Mrs. Breuer's collar bone was dislocated and she was badly bruised and hurt while Mr. Breuer was also badly bruised and cut up. The colt was uninjured but the buggy was mashed to kindling wood. The other rig escaped without damage of any kind.

MYRTLE POINT POINTERS.

News of the Upper Coquille Taken From The Enterprise.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Leonard of this city.

Misses Glenn and Bessie Machado returned last week from Portland where they have been attending school during the winter.

News has been received here of the marriage of Miss Ora A. DeVaul, a niece of Mrs. J. H. Roberts, and who formerly lived here, to Mr. Edgar B. Holt. The wedding took place at Los Alamitos, Cal., on June 16.

J. H. McDiarmid, the insurance man, was another victim of a runaway accident this week, but without injury than a badly broken rig, and he was compelled to come into town on the running gears of his buggy. The damage occurred when the horses passed through a couple of gates, leaving portions of the vehicle behind them.

Claude Giles, who has recently returned from Portland, has received a letter from the Oregon Supreme Court stating that he has passed a good examination for admission to the bar, and that he will be admitted for practice as soon as he can furnish an affidavit that he is of age, which will not be until next February. Mr. Giles has taken the three year course of the university law school in two years, passing with honors and securing the degree of LL.B. He is the youngest who took the examination for admission to the bar.

CULLINGS OF COQUILLE.

News of Coos County Seat Taken From The Sentinel.

At the annual school meeting held Monday evening at the school house, J. J. Stanley was elected director to succeed R. S. Knowlton and George Moulton was reelected clerk.

The city fathers met in special session at the city hall Wednesday evening. Among other things the appointment of the following officers were made and confirmed: Treasurer, O. C. Sanford; marshal, R. O. Hoberg; attorney, W. C. Chase. The city health officer was not appointed at this meeting.

W. G. Dodge of the Riverton Coal Company, says his company has a fine coal property opened up at Riverton and that they are only waiting for adequate transportation facilities to begin mining operations on a much larger scale than usual. He is much interested in the plans to secure government aid in clearing the lower river of obstructions.

At the school meeting Monday evening the Pendergrass tract opposite the old academy, comprising about 3 2-5 acres, was offered to the school board for $3,000. The matter was referred to a special committee with instructions to report at as early a date as possible. The matter of securing grounds for and the erection of a new school building is becoming imperative.

DIES EN ROUTE HOME.

Mrs. J. C. Bogue, Formerly Miss Edna Hill, Stricken.

The Coquille Herald says: "Dr. J. C. Bogue of Sherman, Texas, arrived here the last of the week with the body of his beloved wife who had died on the way from their present place of residence to this city where they anticipated an enjoyable visit at their old home with the parents of the deceased, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hill, of this city. They started several days ago from Sherman where Mrs. Bogue's health had not been very good for some time, and as they neared Junction City, Kan., she was seized by a severe hemorrhage of the lungs and soon swooned into unconsciousness. At Junction City medical aid was called, but to no avail. Shortly after the train pulled out of that city she passed away, it being on Sunday, the 13th inst. The deceased will be remembered as Miss Edna Hill, a former teacher of this county, while the husband, Dr. J. C. Bogue lived here some time, practicing his profession, that of dentistry."

NEWS FROM ALL OVER COOS COUNTY

NEWS OF COQUILLE.

County Seat Events As Recorded By The Herald.

Married—Near Drain, Ore., on June 17, 1909, Elmer A. Cooper and Dora M. Paxson, Rev. Roy L. Dunn, officiating.

Mrs. C. A. Mael of Marshfield, came over Saturday to visit relatives and friends.

R. H. Mast received a new Ford automobile yesterday and enjoyed a fine ride in the evening.

The steamer Echo sustained considerable of a breakdown last Friday. The shaft of her stern wheel broke and the boat will be off her run for a few days till a new shaft can be procured.

Capt. and Mrs. George Leneve of this city, returned last week from a sojourn of over six months with a sister of Mrs. Leneve who resides at Roseburg. They enjoyed their visit very much and would probably have remained longer only for the fact that the weather was getting a little tropical in the valley for the captain.

Jas. Hollenback of Fairview, was in town last Wednesday with the hide of a panther or cougar which he had recently killed in his neighborhood. The animal was a formidable looking beast measuring 8 feet 6 inches from tip to tip. With the destruction of these, the American lynx and wild cats, it would only be a short time till deer would be plentiful in Coos and Curry counties.

The United States Dredging Company of San Francisco, the successful bidder for the contract for the opening of the system of ditches for the Pat Elk Drainage District, by their manager, Mr. Beetle, is making rapid progress at the Price shipyard with their scows to be used in the work the mess house is nearly completed. It is expected that by the 20th of next month that the dirt will be flying in good shape. The opening of those ditches into the Fat Elk and Beaver Slough marshes mark the beginning of an era of prosperity never before known to the farming interests of this section.

PAY SCHOOL DEBT.

Myrtle Point Voters Decide to Clean Slate.

MYRTLE POINT, Ore., June 26.

At the annual school meeting, held in the brick school house Monday afternoon, T. E. Dickson was re-elected a member of the board of directors for a three-year term and L. A. Roberts was re-elected clerk for a term of one year. The board was authorized to add another grade to the high school course, making of the Myrtle Point high school a complete four-year course so that pupils graduating from the school will be admitted to the university, or other institutions of higher learning without taking a preparatory course. The board was also directed to levy a sufficient tax the coming year to entirely free the district from debt. Unless other improvements are necessary, the debt will this year be reduced to about $1,900. The taxpayers at the meeting desired the district to be free from debt for the first time since the brick school house was built and save interest on the outstanding warrants and therefore authorized the additional levy.

BRIEFS OF BANDON.

News of City-by-the-Sea As Told By The Recorder.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hollenback, Wednesday, June 23, a ten-pound boy.

A. M. Kopf of Farrar, Iowa, arrived in Bandon last Saturday and is spending a week visiting his brother C. E. Kopf and uncle S. S. Little.

A fine baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Thrift Sunday morning and "Sand" is the happiest man in town these days. The girl weighs 7 1/2 pounds.

That July 5th will be a gala day in Bandon is now an assured fact. This is the day we will celebrate our natal day, owing to the fact that the Fourth falls on Sunday.

The regular bi-annual election of the city of Bandon, Oregon, will be held at the city hall in Bandon, Ore., upon Monday, June 28, for the election of one mayor, one municipal judge, one recorder and six councilmen.

The young baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Drosch died Sunday night at the age of two months and twenty days. Mr. and Mrs. Drosch will have the sincere sympathy of many friends in their great bereavement.

Guy Fredrick, one of Bandon's popular high school students, left Tuesday for Washington points. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Fredrick, are thinking of going to that state to locate in the immediate future, therefore Guy does not contemplate returning to Bandon soon.

Misses Winnifred McNair and Kate Rosa returned last Friday from Albany college where both graduated with high honors this spring. Miss McNair finished the course in both the instrumental and vocal departments of the conservatory of music, and with such a marked degree of success that she was offered a position to return and teach next year. Miss Rosa also received high honor in her work.

B. L. Hurst, one of Coos county's leading ranchers, has just completed a fine cottage on his farm east of town, known as the Fairy farm, and moved into same last week. Mr. Hurst is an experienced fruit grower and has a fine place to carry on this paying industry. Besides the apple and berry business, he is also extensively engaged in the growing of English walnuts, an industry that promises to pay big dividends in Coos county.

BANDON ISSUES BONDS.

Makes Up For Extra Cost of New School House.

The Bandon Recorder says: "The annual school meeting of District No. 54 was held in the old school building Monday and much business was transacted. There were two members of the school board to be elected, one to fill the unexpired term of C. I. Kime, who removed from the city and one for three years in place of Geo. P. Topping whose term expired. M. Breuer was elected for the short term and A. McNair for the long term, making the school board as it will be for the coming year: P. C. Stephenson, chairman; M. Breuer and A. McNair. J. W. Mast was reelected clerk. The clerk then made report of the amount of receipts and expenditures for the past year, including the bonds voted and sold for the new school building. The report showed a shortage of about $15,000, owing to the fact that the new school building had cost more than the architect's estimate. The building and fixtures complete will cost in the neighborhood of $35,000. "By unanimous vote the district decided to issue negotiable interest bearing warrants for a sum not to exceed $15,000 payable in six installments."
