candles. Among those present were:

Hazel Miller, Gladys Ferry, Marjorie Drews, Earnest Drews, Margery Marsie, Florence Powers, Albert Powers, Helene Smith, Mable Smith, Ethel Josephson, William Josephson, Ruth Juz, Ruth Golden, Clara Ferguson, Grace Farrin, Norris Farrin, Virginia Clarke, William Kretzer, Anna Down, Florence Flanagan, Bessie Flanagan, Helen Rust, Maxim Jones, Helene Gulovson, Emma Lou Douglas, Annona Hildebrand, Elsie Frease, Bill McArthur and Mary Louise McArthur.

Mrs. L. D. Pettyjohn, who has been visiting friends and relatives at Salem and other Eastern Oregon points, is expected home in a few days. Miss Alda Cannon, who accompanied her north, will visit the Seattle exposition and friends in Portland and other points before returning to Coos Bay next month.

Mrs. F. E. Allen and Miss Ruth Allen left this week for a two-months visit at various points in the northwest.

Next Wednesday evening will be "Ladies' Night" at the Millicoma Club and an unusually enjoyable event is promised. The club rooms were recently overhauled and rearranged to furnish better facilities for dancing which will be made the chief feature of these gatherings. Card tables and billiards and pool will furnish diversion for those not desiring to dance.

The invitations for the affair were used for Tuesday evening, June 29, but owing to that night marking the installation of the Elk's club here, it was decided today to postpone the event until Wednesday evening, June 30.

At a pretty home wedding Wednesday, June 22, at high noon, Mr. Claude Arthur Waters and Miss Millie Laura Talbot were united in marriage at the home of the groom near Lee, Rev. C. H. Barklow officiating.

The ceremony took place in the orchard in the presence of 75 or 100 guests. The altar was arranged between four full fruited cherry trees. A festooned path strewn with roses led to the altar, the ceremony being performed beneath a wedding bell of white roses. The bride was attended by Miss Margerie Lowe as bridesmaid and the groomsmen were Clarence Waters, brother of the groom. Bernice and Eunice, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Robinson of Norway were flower girls and Mabel Brown daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Brown was ring bearer. Miss Zoe Haskins presided at the piano. Mr. and Mrs. Waters will make their home on the groom's place at Lee.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

Mr. Alfred J. Michael and Miss Rachel A. Barklow were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barklow on Catching Creek, Elder S. S. Reed of the Brethren church officiating. Relatives of the contracting parties were present to witness the ceremony. After the ceremony the guests were served with a bountiful dinner of the good things of the season. Mr. and Mrs. Michael will make their home on the groom's ranch in West Myrtle Point.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

Mr. Harry Evans and Miss Sophie Heinze were quietly married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. H. C. Diers, in North Bend at 10 o'clock this morning, the Rev. J. C. Lininger, the new pastor of the North Bend Presbyterian church officiating. This afternoon, the young couple will leave on a honeymoon trip to Portland, Seattle and other northern points. Both young people are very popular in North Bend and a host of friends will wish them all the joys that time can bring. Mr. Evans holds a responsible position with the Western Oregon Grocery Company of North Bend.

H. H. McPherson and wife, are spending a few days at "The Nook" on South Coos River.

Dr. and Mrs. J. T. McCormac are expecting Captain T. L. Morse and Miss Emma Morse of New Orleans, about the first of July for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O'Connell and daughters are camping at the Maze on South Coos River.

Mrs. Hillis Short and children are spending a few days at Ten Mile.

Mrs. C. E. Nicholson has returned from a few days visit with friends at Coquille.

Mrs. L. H. Hazard of Coquille, has gone to California to bring home their son and daughter who have been visiting their grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Hacker, near Pasadena.

E. D. LaChance and wife will leave today for Portland where they will spend some time. Mr. LaChance recently retired as one of the managers of The Chandler. They have not decided just where they will locate and it is possible that they will return to Coos Bay within a short time.

J. W. Bennett is host to a fishing party at Ten Mile this week. Among his guests are J. N. Teal and Dr. Minor of Portland, Mr. Meyers of New York and Tom Bennett.

Mrs. S. Lando and Mrs. Fannie Hazard, who have been attending the Eastern Star Grand Chapter at Portland and visiting at various northern points, Mrs. Lando taking in the fair at Seattle, will return on the Alliance Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Campbell returned this week from a trip to Seattle and other northern points.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert Matson leave today to visit the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition at Seattle and also to visit at other northern points.

Last Thursday, Miss Florence Jennings of Gresham, Ore., entertained in honor of Miss Lillian McCann of North Bend, who is her guest. A number of young people from Portland were among the guests. Miss McCann will not return home for several weeks yet, probably.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Powers of South Broadway pleasantly entertained the Bible Class of the Christian Church at their home last evening. About twenty-five young folks were present. Various games and amusements were indulged in following which dainty refreshments were served.

F. C. True and wife of Coquille, are over Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Lund's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Lund.

Miss Edna McGraw of San Francisco, is expected here next week to make an extended visit at the Herbert Lockhart home.

Mrs. J. T. Harrigan and Mrs. C. E. Neff left today to take in the Seattle fair and to visit at other northern points.

Miss Estella Hawley of Medford, is expected in the city tomorrow to spend her summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hawley.

Miss May Donald of Minneapolis, is spending the summer months at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Oren. Mr. and Mrs. Oren are planning to move back to Minneapolis this fall, Mr. Oren being transferred there by the C. A. Smith Company. Mrs. Oren and Miss McDonald will leave about August 1 for Minneapolis, but it is not certain that Mr. Oren will be able to get away that soon. Donald Smith Oren, their son, remained in Minneapolis with Mrs. Oren's parents, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald. The news of Mr. and Mrs. Oren's permanent departure from Coos Bay will be greatly regretted by the many warm friends they have made here.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kaufman are arranging for the erection of a fine home at the corner of Tenth street and Anderson avenue in West Marshfield.

The Ladies' Art Club was entertained by Mrs. F. W. Reeder at her home Friday afternoon. Conversation and needle work made the afternoon an unusually pleasant one. Delicate refreshments were served. This was the last meeting of the club until the first Friday in September.

Miss Grace Starbird of Denver, who has been visiting Miss Gertrude Mandigo of North Bend, left for her home this week. Last Friday evening Miss Mandigo entertained a few friends in her honor.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. James of North Bend, with Miss Cora Fleming of Portland, and Miss Lena Kruse as their guests, have been spending a few days at their summer cottage at Ten Mile this week.

Mrs. C. W. Tower and Miss Nellie Tower, who have been spending several months in Portland, are expected home about July 10. Prior to returning, they will take in the Seattle exposition.

Mrs. J. M. Upton and children are spending the summer months at the home of Judge Upton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Upton at Langlois.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Warwick will entertain the Oklahoma Whist Club at their home next Wednesday night.

Mrs. J. W. Ingram left today to take in the Seattle exposition and to visit at other northern points.

Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Toye and daughter, Katherine, returned early this week from California where they had been visiting Mrs. Toye's relatives.
