BIRTHS.

HOBSON—To Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Hobson at their home in Marshfield Sunday, June 27, a daughter. Mother and daughter are doing nicely and Mr. Hobson is able to be at his meat market as usual.

Fairview Won—The Fairview baseball team defeated Sumner at Fairview yesterday by a score of sixteen to two.

City Bakery Moves—Hunter's City Bakery was busy today moving from Commercial avenue to 172 Broadway, opposite the Times office.

Council Tuesday—The Marshfield city council will meet Tuesday evening to take up street improvement matters, the new charter and other business.

Builds House—Henry Bjorquist is erecting a fine $2,000 residence in Eastside. This is only one of many substantial improvements being made there.

Meet Wednesday—The Marshfield Baptist Missionary Society will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Geo. Watkins near Ferndale. Mrs. C. J. Millis will take the members there in her private launch, The Beaver.

Wed Here—Alfred J. Matson and Miss Amy Amella Anderson of North Bend, were married at the Lutheran parsonage Saturday evening, the Rev. B. F. Bengtson officiating. Only intimate friends and relatives were present. Mr. Matson is a plumber and they will reside in South Marshfield.

Rev. Horsfall's Work—The Rev. Wm. Horsfall of Marshfield, passed through our city last Saturday and stopped at Hotel Perkins on his way to Gardiner. Mr. Horsfall had been attending the Episcopal Convention at Portland. He reports the work of the convention to be the most satisfactory had in years. He has had charge for many years of the district from Gardiner to Bandon, and has done the work of five almost alone.—Drain Nonpareil.

Elks Big Day—Tomorrow night, the Coos Bay Elk's lodge will be formally installed by District Deputy Levins at the Redmen's hall. W. W. Cardwell, exalted ruler of the Roseburg lodge will also be in attendance. Only the twenty-five charter members will be present. Following the installation, the members will enjoy a banquet at The Chandler.

Big Hen Eggs—Geo. Beale was in from his Coos River ranch today and brought substantial evidence that Coos county can excel in other than dairy products and fruits for three eggs among those he brought to town weighed more than half a pound and one of them measured 5 3-4 inches one way by 6 1/2 inches the other. The eggs were from his Plymouth Rock hens.

Hopson Promoted—O. L. Hopson who has been fiscal agent of the United Wireless for Coos and Curry counties, has been offered the position of general manager for the company for Southern Oregon and Northern California. The promotion will mean his removal to Roseburg. He has written for further details of the new position before accepting. His unusual success in the work resulted in the higher position being tendered him.

Looks Like Attempted Robbery—What at first looked like a bold attempt at robbery was discovered by Special Officer Ben Schuyler of the Business Men's Association, early Sunday morning. He found the doors of the Nutwood saloon open and securing Officer Shupe they made an investigation together. The safe was wide open but a sack of money was not touched nor was there any evidence anywhere that anything had been disturbed although the doors had evidently been locked by the night bartender and afterward been sprung open. Whether it was done by some one for a joke or by parties with intent to steal but were frightened away is not known. Nothing was taken.

Vessels Late—The M. F. Plant arrived in this afternoon from San Francisco and will reach her Marshfield dock late today. The Alliance had not crossed in at 3 o'clock, having encountered a severe southwest gale last night, according to a wireless from Capt. Parsons to Agent H. W. Skinner.
The Gerald C and the Fish came up from Rogue River yesterday with fish, and will take back general merchandise, etc. The Rogue River bar was rather rough and they were unable to get away from there as soon as they had expected.
