BIRTHS.

HOECK—To Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoeck at their home in North Bend, Oregon, Monday, June 28, a daughter.

Eastside Dance Success.—The ball given in Eastside Saturday evening proved a pleasing social and financial success.

Has Sprained Ankle.—W. H. Kennedy is laid up with a sprained ankle as the result of a fall while on picnic at Charleston Bay a few days ago.

Spend Fourth Here.—The members of Chief Engineer Haines surveying gang are expected here within a few days to remain over the Fourth.

Meeting Postponed.—The entertainment that was to have been given by the L. T. L. in Eastside last Saturday evening was postponed until Thursday night of this week.

Surveyors Return.—The engineering corps of the United States artillery which is preparing a war map of this section, returned today from Summer. They have not announced their future course.

Council Tonight.—The Marshfield city council will meet this evening to take up various matters. City Attorney Snover has returned from Portland and the 'B' street lot case will probably be brought up again.

Enter Business Here.—Fred Painter, who has been working on the railroad survey with Chief Engineer Haines, will return in a few days to become associated with his brother, H. W. Painter, in the flour and feed business here.

Eyes Injured.—Chief Engineer May of the Gerald C. is suffering from an injury to his eye. While making some repairs at Rogue River the other day, some hot metal got into his optic, causing intense pain. The injury will not affect his sight.

Home From Ten Mile.—Tom Bennett returned today from Ten Mile where he has been spending a few days with the fishing party consisting of J. N. Teal, J. W. Bennett, Dr. Minor and Mr. Myers. The fish are not biting very well but the fishermen are having all kinds of fun.

Gets Another Auto.—Joe Schilling of the Coos Bay Bakery yesterday received a four-seated Cadillac from San Francisco. The new machine is larger and more powerful than his old one and aside from affording the Coos Bay Bakery better delivery facilities will give Joe a chance to speed up with the rest of them.

Extend Line.—The local railway has a force of men putting in its new track along the water-front to Mill Slough. It is the intention to ultimately move the depot from its present site to near the intersection of Broadway and Mill Slough. General Manager Mills is now out of the city and the date of moving the depot has not been announced.

Return to Quarantine.—Late yesterday, the three men wanted for jumping the small-pox quarantine at the Miller Boarding house on South Broadway returned to the house. As none of the warrants had been served, Dr. Mingus, city health officer, decided not to prosecute them. Mr. Miller, proprietor of the boarding house, has had smallpox and being immune is permitted to go to buy supplies for the house during the quarantine.

Plan New Building.—J. A. Luse, editor of the Sun, has had plans prepared for a new building to be erected on North Front street as a home for his publication. The plans call for a frame building 26x40, two stories high. He has piling on the ground for the foundation but he is not certain when the frame work will be started. The new building will be immediately adjacent to the new cracker factory which Joe Schilling will erect across the street from the Oregon Coal and Navigation Company's new warehouse.

To Make Survey.—J. H. Somers returned yesterday from Portland where he has been conferring with his associates regarding the electric line which he proposes to build between here and Roseburg. F. W. Stevens has been engaged by him to make a report on the passes through the Coast range preliminary to a survey being made. Mr. Stevens will start out tomorrow on his inspection trip.

Says Road Is Good.—Wm. Smith, who arrived here this week for Brewster Valley, says that a wonderful amount of improvement is being made in the old Coos Bay wagon road. The Harry Brothers are just starting the work of cutting the grade and putting on a good surface on three miles near Sitkum. Contractor Hartley is just finishing three and a half miles of road and other stretches are being improved. Mr. Smith will return shortly to assist the Harry Brothers with their work. He says that the Douglas county end of the road is also being improved.

Is Grandfather Now.—The proud and haughty manner which J. O. Langworthy has on exhibition at his tonsorial emporium today is caused by the receipt of the pleasing news of the birth of a baby girl at the home of his daughter, Mrs. P. J. Peralta in Oakland, Cal., last Thursday. Mrs. Peralta was formerly Miss Iva Langworthy of this city and Mr. Peralta will be remembered as a baseball player and later railway agent in Coquille. Their many friends in Coos county will hasten to extend congratulations. Mrs. J. O. Langworthy and daughter are visiting at the Peralta home.

tendance is large and the fair a success.

ANTON KIRSCHNER, representing the Wetnhard Brewery of Portland, was calling on the Coos Bay trade yesterday in company with Bob Marsden. Bob showed him everything from the waterfront to the new high school and convinced him that when Marshfield gets the railway it will not be long until Portland will have to look to its laurels as the Oregon metropolis.

JOHN D. GOSS returned from Portland where he represented the C. A. Smith Lumber Company in the 'B' street lot case. He says that there is very little prospect of the city being able to take the property as the question of the validity of the warrant, issued in excess of the limit of indebtedness makes it a questionable investment. However, the city has sixty days in which to convert the warrant into cash.
