BIRTHS.

FLANAGAN—To Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Flanagan Friday, July 2, a son. Mother and son are getting along nicely and if there was ever a prouder papa than "Jack," he didn't make it as evident as the genial Mr. Flanagan.

A Fine Window.—Among the many pretty and appropriate windows in the city, Milo Sumner of the Pioneer Hardware Store had one of the prize winners representing a tent scene on a battlefield with a cannon made of stove pipe.

Play Ball Here.—Tomorrow afternoon, Marshfield and Coquille will play at the Fairgrounds. Marshfield will have about the same lineup as last Sunday with the exception that Jimmy Cowan will probably take McCutcheon's place in the field. Coquille will send a big delegation of fans over with their team and the game promises to be one of the best of the season.

Meeting Tonight.—A mass meeting, called jointly by the Chamber of Commerce and the Young Men's Commercial Club, will be held at the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce this evening to discuss means of assisting the Coos Bay and Boise Railway. J. N. Teal of Portland, J. W. Bennett, Mr. Meyers, Francis H. Clarke and E. M. Andrews will talk. Mr. Andrews is investigating the oil field here.

ON ACCOUNT OF FOURTH OF JULY HOLIDAY, STEAMER ALLIANCE WILL LAY OVER HERE A DAY AND WILL NOT SAIL FOR PORTLAND UNTIL WEDNESDAY, JULY 7, AT 1 O'CLOCK.

Screen Doors and Adjustable Window Screens at MILNER'S.

COOSTON will celebrate the FOURTH Monday.

Personal Notes

F. A. LANCELOT and wife of Albany, were Marshfield visitors yesterday.

C. J. MILLIS, general manager of the local railway, returned last evening from a ten days business trip to Portland.

A. A. NICHOLS, former master of the schooner "Fish," but who is now located at Libby, was in the city greeting his friends yesterday. MRS. J. M. DALY of Gardiner, and Mrs. Agnes McGillicuddy of Aberdeen, Wash., are visiting at the home of their brother, Jas. Cowan. MISS OLIVA POHLAND of Ashland, arrived on the Breakwater to visit friends here for a short time. She will be the guest of Mrs. M. R. Smith while here.

REV. FATHER EDWARD DONNELLY arrived on the Breakwater last evening from Portland for a short visit here and to look after his local property interests. His health is considerably improved. MRS. JOHN BEAR arrived home last evening from a few weeks with her son at Portland. She also visited a number of other points, but is very glad to get back to Coos Bay even though she had a most pleasant visit.

MRS. ELLA DIX arrived here on the Breakwater last evening from Rochester, Minn., to spend the summer with her son, Dr. Geo. Dix. Mrs. Dix has been in poor health for sometime and Dr. Dix had been urging her to come to Coos Bay and enjoy the invigorating atmosphere of this section. She had written him that she was scarcely able to make the trip at present. She wanted to surprise him and did completely.
