Gets New Quarters.—One-half of the warehouse of the Coos Bay Transportation Company on Commercial avenue, near the wharf, is being remodeled as a home for the Ellerby fish market.

Place Faucets.—Faucets have been placed at several places along the waterfront to supply fresh water for the fire engine for steam whenever the engine has to get busy pumping salt water.

Business On Ferry.—Capt. Alex Hall of the ferry boat Transit, reports the following traffic between Marshfield and Eastside during the month of June: Passengers, 4,323; double teams, 103; single teams, 82; horses, 44; cattle, 4; autos, 3.

Sprains Ankle.—J. W. Snover, city attorney, is on crutches as a result of a sprained ankle sustained while frolicking on the beach with an outing party Sunday. The injury is a painful one and it will probably be some time before he can dispense with crutches or a cane.

Meets Accident.—While making a cross country coast trip with her husband, Mrs. C. F. McCollum met with a painful but not serious accident. While stopping at the hotel in Port Orford she tripped on a rubber stair covering throwing her with such violence that it sprained her ankle. She was compelled to remain at the hotel a few days before she could be removed to her home where she is now receiving the treatment and rest necessary for complete recovery, which her many friends hope may be soon.

Honor Mrs. Prentiss.—Mrs. A. B. Prentiss, wife of Dr. A. B. Prentiss, dentist, who formerly lived in Marshfield, was honored in Portland recently by being elected Pocahontas of Kiwanda Council, No. 11, Degree of Pocahontas of that city. Dr. Prentiss who has been ill is improving rapidly.

Get Banner.—At the ninth annual convention of the Oregon State Teachers Association, which closed at Albany last week, Coos county was awarded the Horace Mann banner for having the largest number of teachers present in proportion to the number of paid instructors in the county.

Lets Contract.—I. R. Tower has awarded the contract to John Johnson of Ferndale, for the construction of a garage 46x100 on the lot on North Front street, just south of Coleman's blacksmith shop. Mr. Tower is now arranging to have some of the autos for which he has the Coos county agency brought here for exhibition.

Returns With Bride.—Dominick d'Ambrosio and his bride reached Marshfield yesterday, via Drain. They were married in New York the latter part of June, Mrs. d'Ambrosio having arrived from Italy June 21. They left New York June 23 and Dominick says it was so hot there that it made him long constantly for Coos Bay. Dominick is the "shine" at the Curry barber shop.

New Auto Record.—Fred Slagle has made a new auto record between Marshfield and Coquille the other day. There were five in the party and the machine was Lew Hazards new Studebaker. Fred Slagle acted as chauffeur and accompanying him were Mrs. Slagle, Mr. Hazzard and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Nicholson. They covered the distance between the two towns starting from the John Bear livery in Marshfield and stopping in front of the Masonic Temple in Coquille, in exactly one hour and twenty minutes.

NORTH BEND NEWS

Mrs. C. E. Mather, who has been quite ill for the past week, is improving.

Mrs. J. Strickland of Union avenue, left today for a short visit in Coquille.

The Advent will leave today or tomorrow for San Pedro with a cargo of lumber.

Mrs. Nyland and daughter are moving from old North Bend to Beaver Hill.

Andrew Langless, who was the guest for a few days of David Masterson at Shore Acres, has returned.

Dr. D. C. Vaughan, who was called to McMinnville by the accident to his father, has returned. Mr. Vaughn is recovering but Wm. Vaughn of North Bend, decided to remain with him another week.

The W. C. T. U. of North Bend will hold a special meeting Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the Presbyterian church on Union avenue. J. R. Knodell, superintendent of the Oregon Anti-saloon League, will deliver an address.

Some busy-body started a report in North Bend this morning that L. J. Simpson had resigned as mayor. The report was absolutely without foundation. City Recorder Derbyshire said that no resignation had been filed with him and that he did not think that Mayor Simpson even thought of resigning. Mr. Simpson left for San Francisco last night and could not be seen but L. F. Falkenstein said that the report was without foundation.

MORE ABOUT CHARIVARI PARTY AT EASTSIDE

Residents Write The Times and Claim That Stories of Damage are Incorrect—Counter Charges.

Editor Times: A few days ago we read a piece in The Coos Bay Times about the charivari, it being intended as an honor instead of as the party has taken it, but as there has been so much comment about the charivari, the public should know both sides of the story. A couple was supposed to be married; one of them said they were married so as it is the world over, the young folks as well as the old, gathered up all the tin cans, horns, etc., and had a good time in general, not expecting the couple would take it wrong. The children on the charivari people have never destroyed one thing and claims that they have are all false and it can be proven. But one thing sure is that if she doesn't stop telling her stories on the young folks, the law will have to take care of her for the Eastside people are not uncivilized or without cultivation.

Yours respectfully,
EASTSIDE RESIDENTS.
