BIRTHS.

SNEDDON—To Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Sneddon at their home on South Broadway, Monday, July 12, a daughter.

Dear Season Late.—Deputy Game Warden Cal. Wright requests that deer hunters be requested to remember that the open season does not begin until August 1 this year, fifteen days later than usual.

Railroad Meeting.—The first annual meeting of the Coos Bay, Boise and Idaho Railway will be held at the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow afternoon. Officers will be elected and reports made of the work so far accomplished.

Adjourn County Court.—County court adjourned Saturday until July 28 when a special meeting will be held to award a contract for a road improvement near Bandon. At the last session, another contract for the improvement of the Coos Bay wagon road was let.

Meet Tonight.—The Young Men's Commercial Club will meet this evening at the Chamber of Commerce to take up good roads and other matters. Among the latter being the preparing for the entertainment of the Oregon-Idaho Development Congress here in August.

Get Contract.—Perry, Montgomery and Company have been awarded the contract for the furniture and fixtures of the new school house at Flagstaff and are arranging to hasten the completion of the work so that everything will be in readiness there for the next term of school.

To Push Survey.—J. H. Somers says that the survey for his electric line to Roseburg will be pushed and he says that considerable of the road will be built this year. He says that just as soon as Mr. Stevens, his engineer, can complete some preliminary work, the surveying corps will be put in the field.

Baby Is Christened.—Yesterday the young son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Perham was christened Edward Marshall Perham. W. S. Turpen and Dr. E. Mingus and Mrs. Jesse Luse were the God-parents. Following the ceremony, a dinner was given at the Chandler at which Dr. and Mrs. E. Mingus, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Turpen and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Luse were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Perham.

Cossett May Die.—Word was received here today by Mr. Lee, father of the horseman who accompanied Prince Frederick and Cossett, the two fast jumpers which appeared here in the races, to the effect that Cossett is a very sick horse at Portland and it is feared will not recover. The mare was alright when she left here and whether she was injured on the steamship is not known. Cossett is owned by Boynton who gives his home address as Woodburn, Ore.
