

NEW BUILDINGS ARE UNDER WAY

Many New Residences and Small Buildings Projected Or Started.

Considerable new building is under way on the Bay at present, most of the more recent work being residences and smaller structures. This with the larger buildings started earlier in the season is keeping the carpenters very active.

R. Glatzer is building a cottage in Bay Park.

Orvin Wooley is building a house on Eastside.

Wm. Robinson is putting up a house on Eastside.

M. A. McLaggin is erecting a bungalow on Eastside.

Earnest Liljeqvist is building a house in West Marshfield.

W. M. Blake's new residence in South Marshfield, is nearing completion.

Henry Bjorkquist is erecting a modern eight-room house on Eastside.

M. E. Grandill is building a twelve-room, rooming house at Beaver Hill.

I. R. Tower will erect a building on North Front street to be used as a garage.

G. F. Dillon is figuring on a six room cottage to be built in West Marshfield.

J. C. Jones, manager of the Coos Bay Steam Laundry, is putting up a bungalow.

Captain Alfred Matson is putting up an eight-room, modern residence in South Marshfield.

Carl Anderson is erecting an eight room modern house in Bay Park, the cost of which will be about $2,000.

E. C. Drews is having a thoroughly modern eight room house built in South Marshfield. It will cost about $3,500.

The Eagles new hall on South Second street is being rushed rapidly and the frame work and roof will soon be completed.

F. M. Friedberg is figuring on erecting a $4,000 building on his property on South Broadway to be used as an armory for the proposed National Guard Company in Marshfield.

The Coos Bay Paving and Construction Company is putting up a warehouse on Second street near Curtiss avenue, across from the Latin hotel.

Work is underway on Bennett's new building on Broadway. The lower floor is to be used as a hospital while the upper floor will be designated flats.

J. W. Bennett is putting up a small cottage, a dancing platform and is making some general improvements at his summer home at The Matze on Coos River.

The Gray-Holt Company will erect a store block on the corner of Central avenue and Front street and a small building at the west entrance to the Alliance warehouse.

BODE GETS NEW JOB.

Former North Bend Man Goes to Spokane.

The following from the Portland Telegram will be of interest to the many friends that J. F. Bode made while manager of the North Bend Sash and Door Factory:

"J. F. Bode, manager of the Pacific Coast Door Company of this city, has resigned to take charge of the business of the Washington Mill Company at Spokane. His official title is general superintendent. He has already left Portland and taken up his new duties. Mr. Bode is well-known in the East and Middle West, and has been in Portland several years."

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Captain G. H. Ewart of the steam schooner "Bandon," reports that on June 30, 1909, he discovered a rock on the entrance to Coquille River, Oregon, with a depth of 8 feet at high water. This rock bears W. by N. true) from Five Foot Rock, distance about 1/2 mile. Captain Ewart advises masters of all vessels bound north, if passing between Wash Rock and Five Foot Rock to run within 100 feet of the latter and not to haul to the westward until the entrance to the breakwater is well open.

MANY THINGS ARE TAKEN UP

have the guard company organized here because it is believed that it will hasten the securing of fortifications for the harbor.

J. D. Goss made an extended report on the Coos Bay wagon road improvement. He said that he had appeared before the county court recently and had taken the matter up with them. He said the commissioners rather resented anyone starting in on this matter at this late date now when the county court has the improvement well underway—that they considered it a move to take some of the glory that the commissioners are entitled to. He said that the commissioners showed him what was being done and what had been arranged for and he was surprised at what they had accomplished. He said he had explained to them that the club's only object was to assist the commissioners in any way they could. The commissioners stated that during the last three years, about $20,000 had been expended on the road, and that over $21,000 was being spent this year and a like sum would be expended next year. Most of this has been raised by the property owners along the road forming road districts and taxing themselves. By another year, practically all of the road between Sumner and the Douglas county line will be planked. Mr. Goss said that it struck him that the nine miles between Sumner and Eastside should be improved instead of requiring everything to be shipped by boat from Sumner. He said that a water-level road could be easily built around by Catching Inlet if the people of Sumner would join in. As to hastening the improvement, he said the county court had informed him that for every dollar the people would raise for improving the road, the county would put another dollar. As a means of raising the money, he said a state law provided that all the county along a road for two miles on either side and within a mile of the terminal could be organized into a special road district and taxed besides being taxed in the special road districts.

Dr. Mingus and George Farrin favored the appointment of a committee to solicit funds in Marshfield to be used in improving the road. Tom Bennett said this would hardly be fair as a few people would have to pay for something that would benefit everybody and also that he feared the raising of money by subscription would hold back the Coos Bay-Boise Railway project. He said that the method of taxation outlined by Mr. Goss would be the fairest way. Dr. Mingus said that the business men here are anxious to have the road improved and were willing to subscribe funds for the purpose. However, the matter was put to a vote and it was decided not to solicit subscriptions for the project but to have a committee try and arrange for the district tax.

A proposition to buy some advertising pamphlets which E. A. Dodge proposes to issue was referred to the executive committee.

Vice-President Kaufman who presided last evening said that J. Albert Matson had written him from Seattle deploring the fact that Coos county didn't have a better exhibit. He said that Mr. Matson stated in his letter that the only exhibit was a poor piece of coal and that the stuffed animals that had been sent up had been refused exhibition space because they were not up to the standard. Also that F. W. Smith, who is there with the fishery exhibit had stated that he would be glad to distribute advertising matter if it was furnished him. G. W. Carleton said that the Chamber of Commerce yesterday had arranged to send a supply of advertising matter there on the Alliance today and that the Coos county booster pamphlets would be sent up as soon as they are finished which will be in about ten days.

ROUGH TRIP FROM FRISCO

Captain Burtis said that it was the roughest trip he has had on the boat. There wasn't any storm, merely a northwest gale of unusual fury. Of course, nearly everybody was seasick and as there were so many passengers aboard that a couple had to bunk in the social hall, everyone had the time of their lives.
