WEATHER FORECAST

(By Associated Press.)

OREGON—Fair tonight and Sunday. Westerly winds.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE REPORT.

For twenty-four hours ending at 5 p. m., July 23, by Mrs. E. Mings, special government meteorological observer.

Maximum 86
Minimum 51
At 5 p. m. 63
Precipitation none
Wind, Northwest, clear.

Nann Smith Sails.—The Nann Smith sailed yesterday afternoon with a cargo of lumber for Bay Point.

Brings In Oil.—The steamer Well-sley came in today with a cargo of oil for the Coos Bay Oil and Supply Company.

Buy Auto.—Chas. Stauff has purchased Joe Schillings big red automobile and will utilize it for the delivery service for his grocery.

Haines Coming.—Chief Engineer Haines is expected in from camp this evening to confer with the officials of the Coos Bay and Boise Railroad.

Start Restaurant.—Chung Wing has leased a room in the Gow Why building on Commercial street and will open a Chinese restaurant there.

Athletic Event.—John Herron, manager of the Coos Bay Athletic Club, is in receipt of a letter from J. W. Josephs who is now at Watsonville, Cal., offering to bring a couple of clever light-weight boxers here for a bout in August. There is some talk of arranging a card as one of the attractions on August 21.

Land Investigation.—The Fish came out of Rogue River Monday on her way to Coos Bay, and dropped into Port Orford and landed Mr. Reed, the officer who has been conducting land investigations at Gold Beach, and several other men, who all reembarked and sailed away about sundown.—Port Orford Tribune.

Herron Wins Prize.—John Herron is the proud possessor of a beautiful Eagle's watch charm emblematic of the order presented him by the Marshfield Aerie as a token of their esteem and appreciation and also evidence of the fact that he secured the largest number of applications for membership in the recent contest. "Johnny" is always a loyal Eagle but he spreads his pinions just a little wider and flies a little higher now than ever before.
