LARGE NUMBER ON BREAKWATER

Nearly 100 Passengers Reached Here From Portland Last Evening.

The Breakwater arrived in early last evening with the largest number of passengers that has been brought to Coos Bay on any vessel this year, nearly 100 arriving. Many were eastern people coming in to look over this section.

C. J. Mills returned on her. He stated that business conditions in Portland are rapidly improving and says all the business men are optimistic over the outlook.

The Breakwater had one of the smoothest trips of the season down the coast.

The Breakwater will sail at 9 o'clock Saturday for Portland.

Among the incoming passengers on the Breakwater were the following:

NEW FUNERAL BENEFIT.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 30.—At the great council of the Improved Order of Red Men the funeral benefit law as used by the order in Washington, was adopted for Oregon. This is a radical change from the present system, which has been in vogue in Oregon. The new law will be optional with members. It will provide $500 funeral benefit law as used by the subordinate councils.
