BIRTHS.

BISHOP—To Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bishop of South Broadway, an eleven-pound son, Monday, August 2. Mother and child are doing nicely and there isn't a prouder or happier man in Marshfield than Mr. Bishop.

Launch Party—Otho L. Hopson and others are organizing a launch party for a trip to Enegren's Grove on South Coos River Friday night.

Change On Flyer—It is announced that Capt. Painter of the steamer Flyer, has purchased the interest of Engineer Maguire in the craft. The latter will remain with the Flyer for the time being.

Business On Ferry—Capt. Alex Hall of the Marshfield-Eastside ferryboat Transit, reports the following traffic during July: Passengers, 3,778; double teams, 181; single teams, 107; head of stock, 44; autos, 4.

Makes Assignment—R. A. Mercer, proprietor of the Bird Billiard parlors, on the second floor of the Lockhart building on Front street, has made an assignment to Eugene Crosthwait for the benefit of his creditors. The liabilities are understood to be in the neighborhood of $1,400 and the assets cannot be ascertained until an inventory of the place is completed.

Will Build—John Hayes, proprietor of Hayes confectionery on Front street, is arranging to erect a fine six-room modern house on Baines street near the Fair Grounds.

Likes Portland—Eric Bolt who left this week for Seattle with C. H. Walters, has sent a number of postal cards to friends from Portland declaring that he made the voyage without getting seasick and that Portland appears a trifle busier than Coos Bay.

Fulton Can't Come—C. W. Fulton, former United States senator from Oregon but now an attorney in Portland, who was invited to attend the Oregon-Idaho Development congress here, August 20 and 21, has written that a previous engagement will prevent him coming.

Cardwell's Cow—W. W. Cardwell, besides having one of the fastest horses on the turf in Oregon, has an educated cow. This cow is said to be a wonder. She actually digs potatoes and eats them. While being staked at the edge of a fine patch of alfalfa, she is frequently seen in the potato patch, which is loose sandy soil, pawing up the spuds and eating them.—Roseburg Review.

Goes to Meeting—J. Lee Brown of the Brown Drug Company, will leave next week for Los Angeles where he will attend the national convention of the American Pharmaceutical Association which will be held there August 16 to 20. Mr. Brown is one of the eight members of the association in Oregon. Mrs. Brown will accompany him and following the convention, they will visit various points of interest in that section.

Prominent Men Here—F. B. Waite of Roseburg, and John K. Kollock of Portland, reached here last evening from Roseburg via the Coos Bay wagon road. Henry Songstacken sent his private launch to Sumner to meet them. Messrs. Waite and Kollock are extensive holders of Coos Bay property, being especially interested in Plat B. There has been some talk that an effort is being made to straighten out the tangle over the Plat B ownership and it may be adjusted during the visit this time. No announcement of their plans has been made.

"CASTLEWOOD" at the P. K.

Dance Tonight—The Marshfield baseball club will give a benefit dance at the Odd Fellows hall tonight to replenish their treasury which is quite low.

Is Arrested—H. H. Cook after walking from Roseburg here proceeded to celebrate his arrival yesterday by taking on too big a load of "Oh be joyful" and Merchant Policeman Ben Schuyler picked him up on the waterfront last evening and placed him in jail. Police Judge Butler today ordered him to get out of town.

Gets Suit—E. H. Lorenz of the Coquille baseball team, was in town today and was given a suit of clothes for the home run which he landed here a few weeks ago, the Hub Clothing and Shoe Company having hung up a suit of clothes as a prize for a four-bagger.

Personal Notes
