Chas. Hickox was made a couple of trips after them but each time, he has failed to discover them, the bears apparently being apprised of his approach and hiking for South Slough.
Return From Trip.—M. W. Sweetman and Addison Cook returned Saturday night from a several weeks stay in Curry county where they were doing some placer mining. They spent most of the time along the Rogue and Illinois rivers.
Circulate Petitions.—The petitions for the submission of the Blake street-car franchise under the initiative and referendum are being circulated today and it is stated that nearly enough signers have been secured and the petitions will probably be filed with the recorder in a day or two for action by the council.
Hunting Party Home.—A party consisting of A. E. Morton, of Libby, Dell and Will Hennessey, Enoch Holland and Al. Nicols have returned from a brief but pleasant hunting trip to Three Mile. They got only two deer but those were the only ones that were visible but there was great slaughter of rock oysters and no party ever went out that had more fun than they did.
Honor Mrs. Stiles.—Mrs. John Bear and other officers of Doric Chapter, are entertaining Mrs. Antoinette Stiles of Portland, Worthy Grand Matron of the Oregon Eastern Star, at Bastendorf's beach today. Mrs. Stiles is making her annual visit to the Eastern Star Lodges of Coos county. Tuesday evening, Doric Chapter will hold a meeting and reception in honor of Mrs. Stiles.
May Go to Toledo.—Judge John S. Coke yesterday received a long distance message from Judge Harris at Eugene inquiring if it would be possible for him to hold a term of court at Toledo beginning Thursday. Judge Harris said that he feared he would not be able to get to Toledo and that he would let Judge Coke know this evening, the latter having consented to hold the session at Toledo.
J. J. Sullivan of Haynes Inlet, visited friends here Saturday.
Henry Hoeck returned today from a trip to Portland and Seattle.
Miss Bessie Ayre of Marshfield, was a North Bend visitor Saturday. Judge Guerry returned on the Alliance today from Portland and Salem.
