CLOSE STREET IN COQUILLE

CITY COUNCIL THERE CON- DEMNS THOROUGHFARE WHEN PROPERTY OWNERS BALK ON IMPROVING IT.

COQUILLE, Ore., Aug. 12.—The Coquille city council last night adopted a resolution condemning Front street and ordering it closed to traffic. This morning it was barricaded and teams not permitted to pass. The action of the council follows the property owners along Front street remonstrating against the proposed improvement in such a number as to stop the council from going ahead with the work. The plank is badly worn. The reason given by the remonstrators was that the railroad was going to change the grade of its tracks and this would ruin the paving. The council decided that the old planking is badly worn that serious injury might be caused and consequently closed the street. What the developments will be can't be forecasted although it has caused quite a furore here.

Breakwater Due.—The Breakwater is due in early this evening, having left Astoria early this morning. Captain Magenn reported seventy passengers aboard.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES

No one seems to be sensible except in an occasional spot.

Although we speak of this as an age of improvement and intelligence millions of people still believe that the saucer was made to drink out of.

A Tennessee woman has obtained a divorce because her husband stayed at home too much. Presumably that prevented her from going out as much as she would like to.

A new church in Washington is to have a swimming pool and shower baths. They ought to prove a great help when the pastor's sermons are a bit too warm for comfort.

Last year China sent 100 tons of human hair to this country for use in making fashionable switches, pads and curls, and already a great deal of it has been getting into the butter.

The Norristown, Pa., murderer who has expressed a desire to be shot rather than hanged probably figures that he is entitled to that sort of finish because he was half shot when he committed his crime.

One of the Wright brothers says: "A gasoline engine is an uncertain quantity at the best." And when you combine a gasoline engine with an aeroplane you ought to see your finish without much difficulty.

Prehistoric man, according to the scientists, enjoyed better health than the present generation. But in those early days, you will remember, there were no newspapers filled with patent medicine advertisements.

A BOOSTER'S PLEDGE.

♦ On my word and honor I here- ♦ by now declare that as long as ♦ I am a resident of this commu- ♦ nity, it will be my constant aim ♦ to boost at all times and every ♦ time.

♦ I will do what I can for any ♦ public work that has the good ♦ of the community as its object. ♦ I will submit to and abide by ♦ majority rule and will not ♦ knock and howl if things are ♦ not done my way.

♦ I will take no radical or ex- ♦ treme position on any question ♦ before the people, and will have ♦ due respect for the opinions of ♦ my friends and neighbors when ♦ their opinions are opposed to ♦ mine.

♦ I will try to always say some- ♦ thing good about my city and my ♦ people or keep my mouth shut. ♦ I realize that if this commu- ♦ nity is good enough to live in ♦ and make my money in, it is the ♦ proper place to spend my mon- ♦ ey.

YORAN GIVEN WARM WELCOME

Myrtle Lodge, No. 3, Receives K. P. Vice Grand Chancellor.

Myrtle Lodge, No. 3, Knights of Pythias, rendered a warm reception to Vice Grand Chancellor Yoron of Oregon Pythianism at their hall last evening. About twenty members of the North Bend Posideon lodge were visitors besides a large attendance of the members of Myrtle Lodge. Early in the evening, the third degree was put on, C. H. Allger being the candidate. Following this, there was addresses by Vice Grand Chancellor Yoron, Mr. Brouillard, A. Whisnant, Robert Kehoe, E. A. Russel and Peter Loggie of North Bend, J. D. Hamlin of Beaver Hill and D. A. Jackson, F. P. Norton and Tom Hall of Myrtle Lodge. Following the addresses, the members repaired to the banquet room where a fine spread was enjoyed.

Vice Chancellor Yoron in his talk complimented the Coos county lodges in general on the fine work they were doing and spoke eloquently of the advancement of Pythianism in Oregon.

TO HOLD CONVENTION.

Coos County W. C. T. U. to Meet in Marshfield.

A county convention of the W. C. T. U. of Coos county will be held in Marshfield, August 24. The arrangements for it will be made tomorrow, probably. Mrs. Frank Wheeler, state secretary of the Young People's department of the Oregon W. C. T. U., is now on the Bay and will address meetings as follows:

At North Bend, Aug. 12, at Eastside, August 13; at Marshfield Methodist Episcopal Church, August 14, and at Marshfield Baptist Church, August 15. At Coquille, August 16 and 17; at Bandon, August 18 and 19, and at Myrtle Point, August 20 and 21.

Last evening, Mrs. Wheeler addressed a meeting at the North Bend Presbyterian church and enrolled seventeen new members.

G. A. R. ANNUAL MARCH.

Ranks of Veterans Rapidly Thinning Out.

(By Associated Press.)
SALT LAKE, Utah, Aug. 12.—Under the all prevailing sentiment "cheers for the living and tears for the dead," several thousand survivors of the Civil War made their annual march up and down the broad asphalt surface of Main street for over a distance of two miles and passed before the reviewing stand of Henry M. Nevius, their commander-in-chief. There were many aged and infirm whose halting walk presaged that before another encampment shall have assembled, they will have joined the countless dead at rest under the "Solemn Pine, the tearful willow and the embracing vine."

LET THE PEOPLE KNOW what you want through the medium of THE TIMES WANT AD, and you will obtain what you desire in a very short space of time.

BRAIN AND IMPRINT

The Underwood Typewriter is so constructed that its type-bar imprints at once the character the brain directs. Its work may be done on time, and without delay or fatigue to the operator. The
