

LEANS VERSUS FATS FRIDAY

Big Benefit Game to Be Pulled
Off at the Depot Grounds
In Afternoon.

Manager Burkhardt of the "Fats" and Manager Chas. Hunter of the "Leans," today completed preparations for the great seven-inning game to be pulled off at the depot grounds next Friday afternoon. The two teams have been chosen, each with sufficient subs to insure the game being played out. This afternoon, they are looking for a substitute score keeper and are having difficulty as the score keeper may be the hardest worked man on the diamond, the two managers insisting that he keep an accurate box score, including the errors, etc.

Manager Burkhardt, who will pitch for the "Fats" is working out every day. He weighs 342 pounds and says if he can get down to 341½, he will be in prime condition.

A. H. Powers, who is now scouring the country for players to redeem the honors which Arno Merene wrested from him Sunday has agreed to play with the Fats. He wants to get in condition for the next game with Merene's aggregation. By the way, this may be pulled off at the Depot grounds.

Mayor E. E. Straw has been selected for umpire, and it is understood that he has consented to act if given a body guard of five men. Troch and Baker have been trying to get this job but Hunter insists that he must use all his time practicing for the next game with Coquille.

The proceeds of the game will go as a benefit to the Marshfield baseball team or rather for Manager Burkhardt who has to put up out of his own pocket in an endeavor to get good players.

The game will be called at 2:30 Friday and everybody should be there. The lineup will probably be as follows:

Fats.	Position	Leans
G Ferrey	1b	F Denning
Jack Planagan	3b.	C S Dodge
Tom James	2b.	A Hite
J Snyder	ss.	G A Brown
J Nell	c.	C Chase
Burkhart	p.	F E Hagne
T Nicola	lf.	W R Haines
Al Powers	cf.	H J McKeown
G Matthews	rf.	C Powers

For the "Fats," Manager Burkhardt has reserved Peter Mirrasoul, J. Albert Matson, John Herron, Col Grimes, Dorsey Kreitzer and Bob Bedillion of Bandon as subs. For the "Leans," Manager Hunter has reserved W. H. Kennedy, Walter Lyon, R. Keller, Cell Ireland, Wm. Ekblad, R. O. Graves, George Goodrum and L. D. Pettyjohn as subs. Goodrum is to pitch three innings and he declares there is some class to his work in the box. All of the subs will probably be worked two or three innings.

MRS. JOHN JUSTIN DIES AT HOME OF DAUGHTER

Succumbs This Morning After Long Illness—Funeral Arrangements Not Completed Yet.

Mrs. John Justin, who came here about three months ago from Fond Du Lac, Wis., died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ed. Sullivan in South Coos River this morning. She was about sixty-five years old. She has been in poor health for years and one object of her removal from Wisconsin here was in hopes that the change of climate would benefit her health. Paralysis and a complication of ills caused her death.

Besides Mrs. Sullivan, another daughter, Mrs. Raymond Fuerman, also resides on South Coos River. George Justin, a son, arrived here from Wisconsin a week ago. Eight other children reside in Wisconsin. The funeral arrangements have not been announced yet.

MRS. HORSFALL IS REPORTED IMPROVING

Well-Known Marshfield Woman Recovering From Critical Operation at Lane Hospital.

Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., is recovering from the operation which she underwent a few days ago at Lane hospital in San Francisco. The news that she was in a critical condition caused much alarm among her many friends and the following telegram from Dr. Horsfall to J. W. Bennett this morning will be more than gratifying to Coos Bay people: "Mrs. Horsfall at Lane hospital under Dr. Somers. Is recovering from critical operation. I will be home on next Plant. Dr. Horsfall."
