MANY ARRIVE ON BREAKWATER

Steamship Unable to Accommodate All Desiring Passage to Coos Bay.

The Breakwater arrived in late last evening from Portland with one of the largest incoming passenger lists of the season, the regular travel being augmented by delegates coming to the Oregon-Idaho Development Congress. In fact a number had to be turned away at Portland.

The trip down was a little rough and foggy and a heavy fog in the lower Bay last night delayed Capt. Macginn in reaching port.

Among those who came on the Breakwater were the following:

C. R. Langley, Mrs. Langley, W. F. Wood, Mrs. E. C. Johns, Henry Carlson, T. A. Chinnoek, W. Yerlan, O. Tomasini, N. R. Cox, S. C. Pier, M. Trowbridge, M. Smith, C. S.
