Excursion Tonight.—The Baptist Young People's Union will enjoy a moonlight excursion to the beach this evening, the Flyer being chartered for the trip.

Banquet Tonight.—The members of the Fire Department will enjoy a banquet at The Chandler at 9:30 this evening, the big spread being the result of the race between the two teams.

Carranza Late.—John Herron yesterday received a telegram from Lupie Carranza stating that owing to a change in the Fife's sailing date, he and "Beans" would come up on the M. F. Plant, reaching here Monday.

On Dry Dock.—The M. F. Plant has been in dry dock at San Francisco this week undergoing some minor repairs and overhauling, but she will be out in time to leave San Francisco for Coos Bay on her regular schedule Saturday.

House Nearly Done.—Wilson Kaufman's new residence in West Marshfield is nearing completion. It will cost about $2,500 and is one of the prettiest of the new residences built here. W. S. Turpen designed it after the famous Swiss Chalets.

Back Here Again.—E. J. Arnold's merry-go-round which made the circuit of this section a year ago, is back in Marshfield again and as usual is attracting great crowds of children on South Broadway and some of the patrons aren't so young, either.

Prospect Good.—J. W. Ward of North Bend, who has charge of the Coos county exhibits at the Seattle, writes friends that visitors at the fair are taking a great interest in Coos county and he expects that a large number will visit here during the next few months.

Faces Charge.—Marshal J. W. Carter has preferred a charge of disturbing the peace against B. Wilson of South Broadway, as a result of a mixup at the merry-go-round last evening. Wilson will probably have his hearing before City Recorder Butler this afternoon.

Mill to Resume.—P. L. Phelan, the Myrtle Point mill man, came over last evening on business and reports that he will start his lumber mill at once, having received some big orders that will keep him busy quite a while. The lumber business is picking up and it seems that all the mills in this section will soon be running full blast.

orders that will keep him busy quite a while. The lumber business is picking up and it seems that all the mills in this section will soon be running full blast.

Jackson On Roads.—Col. and Mrs. C. S. Jackson and son, of Portland, arrived here from Marshfield en route home. Col. Jackson is the editor of the Portland Journal and was one of the speakers at the recent Oregon-Idaho Development Congress at Coos Bay. He says this county should certainly improve the wagon road between here and Myrtle Point and commends the excellent start made just south of this city. He is an enthusiastic advocate of good roads and believes no community can make any better investment.—Roseburg Review.

Had Narrow Escape.—While enroute to Coos county by team this week, G. L. Flint of the Star Theatre, had a very narrow escape from a serious accident. By a sudden swerve the team and front wheels of his vehicle went off the edge of the grade and only by the hind wheels catching upon a big rock was the whole party saved from plunging down the rocky embankment. They finally got the horses released and next morning hitched to the rear end of the vehicle and pulled it back into the road. No one was seriously hurt.—Roseburg Review.

Had to Pay.—North Bend friends of the parties involved have been enjoying much merriment over a poll tax case that was tried before Justice Shuster there a few days ago. Supervisor A. W. Grout and A. B. Stewart of the North Bend Condensary, had a difference of opinion over whether Mr. Stewart should pay his poll tax and the first thing Mr. Stewart knew, Mr. Grout had instituted proceedings before Justice Shuster to collect them. Mr. Stewart retained A. H. Derbyshire and Prosecuting Attorney Liljeqvist was summoned from Coquille and after the oratory had cleared away, a judgment was entered against Mr. Stewart for the amount of the poll tax plus the costs of the case.
