BIRTHS.
VIERS—To Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Viers of Ferndale, a son, Saturday evening, August 28.

Council Tuesday.—The Marshfield city council will meet tomorrow night to take up a number of matters.

Hottest Day.—Saturday was the hottest day of the year in Marshfield, the mercury going to 78 degrees. One other day, it reached 76 degrees.

Preaching Tonight.—Elder Swander will preach at the Church of Christ on Commercial avenue, between Third and Fourth streets tonight at 8 p. m. All invited.

Nann Smith Sails.—The Nann Smith sailed yesterday for San Francisco with a cargo of lumber for Bay Point and Oakland. Prentiss N. Gray and wife and Hoyt Sherman and wife were among the passengers.

Get Deer.—Chas. Hickox and Ed. Mauzey got a fine three-point buck on Isthmus Inlet yesterday. They left at midnight Saturday and returned last evening, showing that for quick results, they are entitled to enter the finals.

Celebrate at Bandon.—A large number of members of the Eastern Star on the Bay will go to Bandon in the morning to participate in the Coos county Chapters' celebration of the order's Natal Day. Last year, the Coos county chapters united in a celebration here.

Has Rare Coin.—Israel Lando has discovered that he has one of the rare 1847 gold pieces, which according to an item reprinted from the Myrtle Point Enterprise in The Times Saturday, is worth about $500. The gold piece differs from other coins in that it lacks the motto "In God We Trust" and is said to be very valuable.

Apple Contest.—It is likely that the apple contest, started by Frank Waite of Roseburg offering $20, $10 and $5 for the three best boxes of Coos county Gravensteins exhibited at the Chamber of Commerce, will be held the first week in October during the big carnival. The fruit is to be exhibited at the Chamber of Commerce and judges will be named by that body.

Sells Business.—C. W. Merchant has disposed of his electric wiring business to Cal. Langworthy and others. Mr. Langworthy has been with the electric light company.

Sailor Dies.—A Benroth, a sailor on the Esther Buhne, died at the Marine hospital in North Bend Sunday of abscess of the liver. He was thirty-two years old. He was born in Germany but had a home at Long Beach, Cal. He will be buried here tomorrow.

Organize Here.—Cyrus H. Walker, the oldest living white man born west of the Rocky Mountains, and now an organizer for the Oregon State Grange, arrived here today. He will endeavor to organize a grange for Coos Bay. He will spend considerable time in the Coquille Valley.

A Pleasant Party.—A pleasant party of fifteen consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene O'Connell, Mrs. Boyd M. Richardson and baby, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Jones and son, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert Matson and son, and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hague made a trip to Sunset Bay Sunday, secured a quantity of mussels, drove home in the moonlight and enjoyed a midnight supper at Kittyville.

Gets Fine Position.—A. E. Flak, who formerly represented the Baker-Hamilton Hardware Company in this section and later became buyer for the C. A. Smith Lumber Co., has been appointed northwestern agent for the Pacific Portland Cement Company. He will have Oregon, Washington and Idaho in his territory and will make his headquarters in Portland.

Dog Stolen.—Capt. Holland and Wm. Holland are searching in vain for their fine Gordon Setter which mysteriously disappeared a few days ago. They are of the opinion that the dog was stolen and taken out on the Breakwater but the chief of Police at Astoria was wired and he replied that there was no dog aboard. The Chief of Police in Portland has been wired and they hope to secure him.

Bishop Scadding Coming.—Bishop Scadding, of the Oregon Diocese of the Episcopal church, is expected to reach here the latter part of the week and will probably hold services here next Sunday. He will visit all the churches in this section and may spend some time at his summer home near Bandon. Rev. Mr. Bartlett of the Grants' Pass Episcopal church, who officiated here yesterday left for his home by stage this morning.

STARTS FINE SHOE STORE

Geo. W. Carleton Adds New
Line With J. T. Sullivan
As Manager.

G. W. Carleton and others have arranged to put in an exclusive fine shoe store for ladies and gentlemen in part of the building occupied by the Carleton Jewelry Company. J. T. Sullivan, formerly with Merchant Kammerer, will be manager of the new department.

The fixtures for the new branch are being put in today and the first shipment of the stock will arrive on the Breakwater so that the opening will occur Saturday. The ladies' shoes may be a little later reaching here, an order being placed for the latest styles with eastern factories. "We will handle only the latest styles and best shoes," said Mr. Sullivan today. "This does not mean that the prices will be away up, but it means that the people of Coos Bay will be able to get better and more up-to-date goods than they have heretofore obtained for the money."
