The Oklahom Will Be Launched at North Bend Next Week.

The Oklahom, the sister ship of the Wilma, which was launched last week at North Bend, will be completed and placed in service within a few weeks, according to the North Bend Shipbuilding Company. The Oklahom is a 100-foot vessel, and will be used for freight and passenger service between Oklahom and other ports along the Columbia River.

INSTALL LARGE WATER TANK

The Coos Bay Water Company has arranged to improve North Bend Service.

The Coos Bay Water Company has completed construction on a large water tank in North Bend. The tank has a capacity of 5,000,000 gallons, and will provide a constant supply of water for the town. It is located at the top of the hill overlooking the city, and will be connected to the main water supply system.

SCORE VICTIMS OF BUILDING COLLAPSE IN CHICAGO TODAY.

The collapse of the Evergreen Building in Chicago has claimed the lives of dozens of people. The building, located at 300-302 W. Madison St., was being constructed for a new department store and had already reached the 10th floor when it collapsed. Several people were trapped in the rubble, and rescue efforts are underway.

AGED DIVINE PASSES AWAY.

Sixty-four-year-old Father W. J. McCloskey of Louisville, Ky., died suddenly on Sunday night. He had been a priest for over 40 years and had served in several parishes in the Louisville area. Father McCloskey was widely respected for his leadership and dedication to his ministry.

INDIAN TRIBES TO HOLD WASHINGTON D.C. MEETING.

A meeting of the Indian tribes will be held in Washington, D.C., this week to discuss the Indian Appropriation Bill. The bill, which is currently being considered by Congress, seeks to provide funds for the education and welfare of Native American children and their families.

SUCCESS.

For the dealers and shoppers: Peary builds new store. Coos Bay will be opened soon.

FOOTBALL.

Fall football season begins in September. The first game of the season is scheduled for September 17, with the home team playing against the visiting team.

WIRELESS.

Western Union Service Strikes Again.

The Western Union Strike continues as the company and the American Federation of Labor continue to negotiate over wages and working conditions. The strike has caused delays in communication services across the country.

WIRE DOWN AGAIN TODAY.

The Western Union Strike continues as the company and the American Federation of Labor continue to negotiate over wages and working conditions. The strike has caused delays in communication services across the country.

SCORE VICTIMS OF BUILDING COLLAPSE IN CHICAGO TODAY.

The collapse of the Evergreen Building in Chicago has claimed the lives of dozens of people. The building, located at 300-302 W. Madison St., was being constructed for a new department store and had already reached the 10th floor when it collapsed. Several people were trapped in the rubble, and rescue efforts are underway.

AGED DIVINE PASSES AWAY.

Sixty-four-year-old Father W. J. McCloskey of Louisville, Ky., died suddenly on Sunday night. He had been a priest for over 40 years and had served in several parishes in the Louisville area. Father McCloskey was widely respected for his leadership and dedication to his ministry.

INDIAN TRIBES TO HOLD WASHINGTON D.C. MEETING.

A meeting of the Indian tribes will be held in Washington, D.C., this week to discuss the Indian Appropriation Bill. The bill, which is currently being considered by Congress, seeks to provide funds for the education and welfare of Native American children and their families.

SUCCESS.

For the dealers and shoppers: Peary builds new store. Coos Bay will be opened soon.

FOOTBALL.

Fall football season begins in September. The first game of the season is scheduled for September 17, with the home team playing against the visiting team.

WIRELESS.

Western Union Service Strikes Again.

The Western Union Strike continues as the company and the American Federation of Labor continue to negotiate over wages and working conditions. The strike has caused delays in communication services across the country.

WIRE DOWN AGAIN TODAY.

The Western Union Strike continues as the company and the American Federation of Labor continue to negotiate over wages and working conditions. The strike has caused delays in communication services across the country.