THE UNSOUND STOMACH.

FOR THE HEALTHIEST place in America, Coos Bay has an undue number of unsound stomachs, judging by some of the insistent grousing that is done hereabout. It is said that the stomach is the seat of nine-tenths of the human maladies, and particularly of the sour, eruptive tendencies that find their readiest expressions in growling, in dubious forebodings, and lachrymose reprimands on the "demmed" slump in things generally.

We have a corps of able and conscientious physicians, and a first-class hospital for the imported health evils, and they are reasonably busy mending the fractures, bruises and torn skins incident to the accidents of the river, logging camps and mills, along with the afflictions brought in by those from abroad, but it would be the making of the place if they would pay more attention to the stomachic ailments that are threatening to disrupt it; it would be a God-send and put the doctors on a pinnacle all their own.

A general overhauling of the Coos Bay "tummy" is what is needed. We have everything in the way of trained brains, hands and fine materials, and many an untouched field for operation and investment, with every promise that energy, pluck and a sound stomach can ask for; but the debilitated organ of digestion stands in the way of far too many people and their immediate revision and rejuvenation is imperatively necessary. A wholesale cure along this line will do more than all the advertising we can do in a year. One crippled stomach can undo more fine plans and wreck more ambitions and aspirations than one would believe, and there are too many of them on Coos Bay. That is all that is the matter with her; she has all else for working out her own salvation.

WITH THE TOAST AND TEA

GOOD EVENING.
When you have to bear it perhaps the hardest part is to grin.

Your cheerful look may never bring to you great riches or renown; The splendid hope to which you cling May never end your laboring. But it will never drag you down.

The decent way which you pursue May never lead to your success. But, pressing bravely onward, you Will never stumble downward to The slimy swamps of worthlessness.

The honest purpose that you keep May never proudly be fulfilled, But it will never cause your sleep To be disturbed or bring the cheap Regret for brave ambitions killed.

A THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

A man of a right spirit is not a man of narrow and private views, but is greatly interested and concerned for the good of the community to which he belongs, and particularly of the city or village in which he resides, and for the true welfare of the society of which he is a member.—Jonathan Edwards.

There is one great advantage about an empty head. It seldom aches.

Between a half baked optimist and a kiln dried cynic is a hard choice.

The less a talkative person says the more serious the proposition he is keeping silent on is apt to be.

Too many Coos Bay people who think they were born to run the universe made a mistake in being born at all.

What a difference there is in women! Some women whose husbands make $50 a month have pretty and delightful homes, while others with five times that amount live tacky, look tacky, and are tacky.
