Precipitation......32
Wind, Southwest; cloudy.Eureka Out.—The Eureka sailed this morning for Portland with a good cargo of freight.Snipe Season Opens.—Today marks the opening of the snipe season which will not close until March 1, next. The limit is fifty snipe in a week.Winter Schedule.—The winter schedule went into effect at the Marshfield postoffice today and the mail now closes promptly at 6:45 each evening.Auto Breaks Axle.—The Wade-Goodale auto will miss a trip between here and Roseburg owing to a broken axle sustained on the last trip when near Roseburg.Lease Skating Rink.—W. L. Mc-Cracken of Myrtle Point, and R. R.
McAdams of North Bend, have rented the Marshfield Skating Rink and will reopen it for skating Monday evening October 4.Dodge Moves.—C. S. Dodge, the Gazette printer may not be much of a checker player but it was his move yesterday and he transferred his office from Broadway to the Johnson building on Second street.Son Recovers.—J. F. Flanagan has received a letter from his wife, who took their young son to San Francisco a short time ago for treatment for his eyes, stating that the trouble has been cured. Mrs. Flanagan is now visiting relatives at Santa Rosa.Move Boathouse.—The McIntosh Club, composed of Tom Hall, Dr.
Toye, C. A. Howard, Frank Denning and other ardent hunters, moved its boathouse to their reserve on Coos River today and will begin feeding the tract at once.Haul Auto In.—Yesterday Wm.
Abel hauled in Lapp Bros. auto from the head of Isthmus Inlet where it broke down with them a few days ago. Pat Hennessey and I. R. Towerrode down with them and the rig caused no little laughter, the horses walking slowly along with the disand Mr. Montague being the "victims." Mr. Montague is from Ashland and was initiated by the local lodge at the request of the Ashland brothers.Court Next Wednesday.—Judge Coke has adjourned circuit court until next Wednesday when Robert Roberts, indicted for forging a pay check of the Smith-Powers Logging Company at Coquille, will be tried.

Roberts entered a plea of not guilty when arraigned this week. He was arrested at North Bend a few weeks ago.Mereen Better.—Jack Mereen, who was reported quite ill with fever in Central America where he has been with a mining company, has telegraphed his father, Arno Mereen of the C. A. Smith mill, that he has recovered and that no apprehension need be felt. This will be gratifying news to his many friends on the Bay.Dies In North Bend.—Audrey Genevieve, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Irving Smith of, North Bend, died yesterday afternoon after a short illness. She was born February 21, 1909. Mrs. Smith was formerly Miss Bronte Coffelt. The funeral will be held Sunday at the Coos River cemetery, services being conducted at the grave. A special boat will leave North Bend at 11 o'clock with the funeral cortege.
