OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF MARSHFIELD.

Official Paper of Coos County.

A PROGRESSIVE BANKER ON COOS BAY

THE LAST issue of "Development," a little monthly magazine printed in Salem by Col. E. Hofer and devoted to the development of Oregon and Idaho, contains the following bouquet for a well-known Coos Bay man:

"Jos. W. Bennett of Marshfield, presided the other night at the organization of a Young Men's Booster Club and made a speech.

"He is the big conservative banker down in that country—modeled after the old Ladd & Bush style of an institution.

"But with the solidity and stability of that institution, his imitation stops.

"He is a whole board of trade and real estate boosting department himself, and his bank and law office are distributing thousands of pamphlets boosting the Coos Bay country.

"On top of his general activity Mr. Bennett can make one of the best booster speeches it was ever our pleasure to listen to.

"But for being tied up with large banking interests, large real estate interests and a big law practice, Bennett could command a big figure in this day of salaried hot-air artists.

"He can talk a whole through a stone wall and his enthusiasm is of the kind that carries a crowd right along through the hole that he drills through the granite.

"There are men who do not like Jo. Bennett, but that is the misfortune of all strong men who carry their heads up in the air and accumulate property.

"Bennett wouldn't be a bad kind of a man to make governor of a sleepy old state like Oregon. He would wake things up and there would be something doing all the time.

"It would be a godsend to Oregon if the state had more bankers of the progressive stripe who are willing to see things go ahead on all lines of development.

"Bennett is fond of sport and not above taking a crack at any kind of game.

"Bennett can officiate with equal grace at a horse race, a boxing match, a church fair or a political meeting.

"He will fight a case for a poor devil without money if he is of the right stripe, without money and without hope of reward.

"On the other hand, it is a cold day on Coos Bay when there is a big deal on and Bennett has his hand in it and don't get his share.

"Take it all around there are worse and better men than Bennett, but for a big, successful banker, he has few equals on the Pacific coast and no superiors in Oregon."

KRUGER GETS THIRD LETTER

Marshfield Man May Ask Uncle Sam to Get After Blackmailers.

Herman Kruger of the Breakwater hotel, this week received a third threatening letter from the parties who have been trying to blackmail him. They still demand $50. Considerable evidence has been worked up in the case and it is possible that the postoffice department may be asked to send in some secret service men to deal with the case. Some think the letters are a joke, but if the writer is caught he will have a hard time explaining the humor in them to Uncle Sam.

WM. DOYLE of Coos River, returned on the Breakwater from a trip to Willamette Valley points and the Seattle Fair.

JAS WHITE has been installed as keeper of the hunting reserve of the McIntosh Club on Coos River.

MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT.

University of Wisconsin Adds It to Curriculum.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 6.—The latest illustration of the nearness of the University of Wisconsin to the actual life of the state and of its intention to serve the age is its establishment of a municipal reference bureau, which will carry on three regular courses by correspondence on municipal government and administration and a series of popular lectures on civic subjects. Cooperating with the political science department of the university and with the highly developed pioneer legislative reference department of the state library, the university intends to aid citizens of towns and cities to bring about a higher grade of administration. Already lecturers stand ready to respond to invitations on "City Government by Commission," "The City Beautiful," "Municipal Functions" and "What's the Matter With Our Cities."

SOME FREAKISH WILLS.

Dead Try to Regulate the Living By Odd Bequests.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 6.—Over in New Jersey is a 3-year-old boy who, under his grandfather's will, must refrain from smoking paper cigarettes till he is 25 if he would inherit a fortune. In the same state, as it happens, is a young woman who is to have her grandmother's money on condition that she marry neither an actor nor a divorced man. In such freakish fashion the list is extended of attempts to regulate by dead hands affairs of the living world.

CITIZEN'S LEAGUE.

The Citizens League will meet Friday evening at the Finnish hall. Business of importance. All members are urged to attend.

By order of Secretary
J. W. BUTLER.

AN UNPUBLISHED LETTER OF A WELL KNOWN COOS BAY MAN

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 5, '09.

Dear George:—

There's nothing on the "Pay Streak" half as fine as that suit you made for me this summer. It's a dandy. You may order a winter suit from the same measurement. Pick out the pattern yourself you know my taste and, of course, I want it a bit classy.

Wish you were here. I expect to be home in about two weeks.

Your old friend,

"BILL."

I can do as well for you. Come in and see my new samples. The home of classy togs.
