Malthoid Roofing

You can't afford to take chances on a leaking roof—besides the actual damage it causes, there is no peace for the landlord or the tenant. Insist on Malthoid and you will have a roof that is absolutely water and weather proof for years to come. Malthoid is the roof that makes good because it is made by the original makers of ready roofings—

WEATHER FORECAST.

(By Associated Press.)

OREGON.—Fair tonight except rain along coast; warmer in interior. Saturday, rain in west with increasing cloudiness in east portion. Cooler in interior and west portion.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE REPORT.

For twenty-four hours ending at 4:43 p. m., Oct. 7, by Mrs. E. Mings, special government meteorological observer.
Maximum... 61
Minimum... 37
At 4:43 p. m. ... 56
Precipitation... none
Wind, Northwest; clear.

Make Improvements.—Gow Why is going to lower his two-story building on Broadway to the sidewalk and put in new fronts. Lee & Harpole have the contract. They are also placing a stretch of sidewalk on Commercial avenue.

Get Two Autos.—Claude Nasburg and C. R. Peck were added to the list of Coos Bay auto owners today when two Buicks arrived for them on the Breakwater. Nasburg's is a thirty-horse power, four cylinder, five seated machine while Peck's is an eighteen-horse power "White Streak." Mr. Peck is coming in overland today.

Back From Races.—Sam Marsden with Mack N arrived on the Breakwater today after a successful tour of the Oregon race circuit. Mack N is in good condition and won a neat sum of money for his owner. Sam has developed into a full fledged horseman, and it is not unlikely that he will add to his string before another season passes.

Present For Parsons.—As a memento of their appreciation of his skillful services in handling the steamer Alliance when she was disabled, the passengers and crew presented Captain E. D. Parsons with a gold watch. The Alliance is on the drydock, and it is said she may be ready to leave for Coos Bay, Saturday night.—Portland Telegram.

Use Stereopticon.—The best service of the revival meetings was had last night. The audience was much larger and everything was prophetic of greater interest. Mr. Gregg's sermon, "The Gospel for Every Age," was forceful and clear. Miss Flook sings the Gospel with clearness and beauty. Arrangements have been made to give thirty minutes to the use of the stereopticon tonight with views of Palestine and Labors of Paul. Miss Flook will sing "Rock of Ages" as the views are thrown on the canvass. Services at 7:30.

Flaw in Papers.—Sheriff Gage, who went to Idaho to bring back "Coon Skin Charley," charged with passing forged checks in Coquille, has been delayed, a flaw in the requisition papers necessitating their return to Salem to have Governor Benson correct them.

Grand Niece Dead.—Mrs. S. B. Cathcart has received word of the death of her grand niece, Miss Florence Bunch at Loon Lake, October 5. Miss Bunch was seventeen years old and was a victim of pneumonia. She was born on Coos River and was well-known and her death will cause much sorrow among the many friends of the family.

Leave For Gardiner.—I. I. Boak, head consul of the W. O. W., and F. B. Tichenor, general organizer, left on the stage this morning for Drain where they will institute a camp tonight. Last evening, they met with Coos Bay camp and spent an enjoyable evening. There was a good attendance and Mr. Boak delivered an able address on the order.

Rob Saloon Till.—Marshal Carter will probably make an arrest in a day or two of a local character on the charge of robbing the till of the National saloon of $18 and taking a few bottles of liquor from the place. When he closed up, Jack Snyder failed to pull the door hard enough to make the spring-lock work. He went for an auto ride and a couple of men slipped in. Mrs. Snyder heard them and saw one of the parties so that she was able to give a good description of him. As soon as Marshal Carter secures some evidence from a party in Coquille, he expects to make the arrest.

J. O. STEMLER of Myrtle Point, is in Marshfield today on business.

FRANK MARHOFFER, the Bay city merchant, and his young bride returned yesterday afternoon from an extended honeymoon trip through the west. Mrs. Marhoffer was a former Coos Bay young lady but has resided in Utah for several years. She will be warmly welcomed back by the numerous friends of the young people.
