Killed Buck.—Frank Denning and Arthur Blanchard killed a nice buck Sunday while on a trip with F. A. Sacchi to his brother's ranch near the beach.

Nann Smith Sails.—The Nann Smith sailed yesterday with a large cargo of lumber from the C. A. Smith mill for Bay Point. Mrs. Olson accompanied Captain Olson on the trip.

Mines Closed.—As a tribute to the late Wm. Campbell, formerly superintendent of the plant, the Libby mines were closed all day yesterday for his funeral. The funeral was largely attended.

Buy Auto.—Word has been received here that J. W. Bennett purchased a fine auto in Portland and will bring the machine home with him when he returns with his bride on the Breakwater Friday.

Better Today.—Dr. E. E. Straw who was injured in the auto accident Sunday, is reported getting along nicely today. Mrs. Straw who has been suffering considerably from the nervous shock, is also recovering rapidly.

Slight Gain.—Postmaster W. B. Curtis reports a slight gain in postal receipts in Marshfield during the three months ending September 30, 1909, over the corresponding quarter of 1908. The receipts for the quarter in 1909 were $2,854.28 against $2,809.41 a year ago.

Sells Boat.—D. A. Jones has sold his boat The Meteor to W. J. Cooney. Jones said he was disgusted when his boat did not prove equal to its name by permitting Powers' General II and other boats to beat it. Mr. Jones is not through with the game, however, and says he is now at work on a design for a boat that will go so fast it will make the water boil with the heat from the friction. He refuses to discuss his plans or let any one see them, but it is understood that it will be built on the lines of a prairie schooner that won several races in Dakota.

Handsome Flowers.—Mrs. Peter Scott Sr., has a Portulaca plant on exhibition at the Chamber of Commerce that is attracting much attention. The plant is a myriad of blossoms and has been in full bloom for over three months. The blossoms close up at sundown and do not open up until the sunlight strikes them the next day.

Judge Coke Has Grief.—Judge John S. Coke returned last night from an auto trip to Brewster Valley and can give anyone details concerning the trials and tribulations of automobiling in this section. He started back from Brewster early Monday morning and hadn't gone far before he ripped the gear off his machine. Tom Coke was with him but he couldn't remain and hit the pike on foot. N. Harry was secured with a team and hauled the machine in, the trip taking nearly two days.

Return From Alaska.—Mrs. Emil Ogren has received word that her brother, Ernest Fox, and wife are now en route here from Alaska to spend the winter. Mr. Fox went to Alaska with the first gold rush twelve years ago and this is his first trip out since then. Her mother, Mrs. Jos. Fox writes that she is spending the winter at Candle, Alaska, so that her daughter, Lizzie, can attend school. Mr. Fox and sons, Wesley and Bob, are mining at Deering. Mrs. Fox expects to visit here next summer.

Resume Mining.—J. B. Sneddon and Chas Sneddon who had such a narrow escape in the new Powers mine on Isthmus Inlet the other day have made arrangements to continue the development work. They will put in fans and other devices to eliminate the gas and will probably resume tomorrow. Both have practically recovered from their injuries. As both are among the ablest miners in this section, they probably will not have any more difficulty in developing the mine, now that they are aware that there is gas in the shaft in dangerous quantities.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.

The Excelsior is due in today from the south.

The steam schooner J. Marhoffer, is loading at North Bend, having crossed in late Monday.

The Carmel, a steam schooner, arrived in this morning and is loading at the C. A. Smith mill.

The M. F. Plant is due in tomorrow from San Francisco. She will sail from here for Frisco Friday.

The Alliance will be in early tomorrow, according to a message received by Agent James today. She will sail for Portland Friday.

Personal Notes

D. A. CURRY has returned from a hunting trip to Curry county.

MRS. SARAH W. TREGO of Phoenix, Ariz., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. M. A. Sweetman of Ferndale.

EUGENE O'CONNELL and family are spending the week at their summer home on South Coos River.

MISS MAY STAUFF has returned from a week's visit at the country home of her brother, Chas Stauff in the Sand Hills.

O. B. HINSDALE of Gardiner, president of the First National Bank, is here on business. He reports everything prosperous along the Umpqua.

ALTON SENGSTACKEN, Wm. Shupe, Earl Winner, Watt Short and Addison Cook leave today for their homesteads in the Hall Creek country.

MRS. FLAGG and sister, Miss Cloe Covey of North Bend, were Marshfield visitors yesterday. They have just returned from a short stay on their homestead on Kentuk Inlet.

REV. FATHER CURLEY of North Bend, passed through here yesterday en route home from a trip to Myrtle Point. He reports that a considerable amount of building and improvements are under way at Myrtle Point.

J. E. OREN is quite sick at his home in Minneapolis, according to letters just received by relatives here. He has not been feeling well since his return there from Coos Bay, and it was expected that he would enter a hospital there the latter part of last week.

REV. FATHER KEVNEY of Bandon, is spending a few days on the Bay as the guest of Rev. Father J. A. Moran and Rev. Father Curley of North Bend. He has just completed arrangements to begin the sale of lots owned by the church there, the proceeds of which will be used for erecting a new parsonage and improving the church.

LEE BETHEL MARRIED.

Portland Paper Mentions His Arrival There With His Wife. Lee Bethel, a lumberman of Marshfield, and wife are guests at the Seward Hotel.—Portland Oregonian.

The above rather mystifying item appears in last Saturday's Oregonian. There is no lumber man of that name that can be located about Marshfield, but Lee Bethel, the piano salesman for Sherman Clay is well-known here but he was still supposed to be a bachelor on the occasion of his last visit to Coos Bay. If he has since taken a bride his friends here will hasten to extend congratulations.

FRATERNAL ORDER LECTURE.

Evangelist Samuel Gregg Will Deliver His Popular Address. "Fraternal Orders, Their Benefits and which is the Best," in the Baptist church next Sunday night. Mr. Gregg has delivered this address for the Chautauqua Bureau and it has proven a very popular number, and in many places he has been called for a return date. The address is full of fact, illustration and humor and is calculated to please any audience. This lecture is open for everybody no matter to what fraternity you may belong to or whether you belong to any. Miss Flook and her assistants will sing. Several specials will be given for this occasion.

NOTICE TO AUTOISTS.

All owners or prospective owners of automobiles are requested to meet at the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce at 8 o'clock, Wednesday evening, October 13, for the purpose of organizing an automobile club and discussing other matters of mutual interest to automobile owners.

TO SHOOT OR NOT TO SHOOT

Attorney General Gives Opinion On Hunting Game From Boats.

COQUILLE Or., Oct. 12, 1909.

Editor Coos Bay Times: The controversy upon the Bay with respect to shooting wild fowl from boats may make the following letter from Attorney General A. M. Crawford of interest to your readers.

Matters enclosed in parentheses are inserted by myself to elucidate the opinion.

October 9, 1909.

Mr. L. A. Liljeqvist, Deputy Prosecuting Attorney, Coquille, Oregon.

"Dear Sir: I have your favor of the 2nd inst., submitting questions on the game law, enacted by the legislature of this year, and would answer the same, seriatim, as follows: "First. Section 18 does not, in terms, prohibit the shooting out of the boats therein mentioned, excepting at the water fowl mentioned in said section (i. e. wild ducks, geese and swan), or any other water fowl scientifically described as water fowl. In other words, it does not prohibit the shooting of deer, bear and cougar, etc. from the boats mentioned in that section, or any other boats.

"Second. Said section does not prohibit the shooting from a skiff or row boat, if I correctly understand the two terms to be synonymous, at the water fowl mentioned in said section in Coos county, excepting on the waters of Coos Bay and its tributaries.

"Third. As already indicated, I understand the words "other water fowl" used in section 18, to mean any other water fowl that can be scientifically classed along with the fowls therein mentioned, but not to include the shore and wading birds, mentioned in section 37 (i. e. rail, coot, plover, phalarope, sandpiper, snipe, tattler, willet, curlew, stilt, avocet, killdeer, surf-bird, turnstone or any other shore bird), and any others belonging to those classes.

The division seems to fall practically the same as that set out in section 1 of the laws of 1903, found at page 183, also found at page 42 of the Game Laws, as published in 1909 (rallidae, commonly known as rails, coots, mud hens, surf birds, and gallinules; limcolae, commonly known as shore birds, plovers, surf birds, snipe, woodcock, sandpipers, tattlers, and curlews; gallinae, commonly known as wild turkeys, grouse, prairie chickens, pheasants, partridges and quail) I notice brant are enumerated among the water fowl in said section 1 of 1903, and as I understand it, are usually classed as water fowl by writers on zoology, but not the other fowls mentioned in your third question (i. e. coots, mud hens, rails and gallinules, plovers, surf birds, snipe, woodcock, sandpipers, tattlers and curlews) which are shore or wading birds.

"Fourth. I do not understand that section 18 applies to any of the birds mentioned in section 37.

"Very truly yours,

"Attorney General,"

A. M. CRAWFORD.

The four opinions above rendered are upon as many questions presenting the point to be decided which were referred to the Attorney General for his decision as indicated in his letter. Inasmuch as the letter is clear as it is, it is not necessary to state the questions asked.

Very truly yours,

L. A. LILJEQVIST.
