"How About a Guarantee With This Suit?"

Just try that question on the salesman the next time you are looking at a new suit.

Ask him if it is strictly all-wool, if the coat front will keep from breaking, if the suit will wear and will absolutely hold and keep its shape and style.

Then ask him for a Guarantee—a Guarantee on paper and signed. If you don't get it, come to us and look at

Clothcraft All-Wool Clothes

Each Clothcraft suit or overcoat carries a Signed Guarantee—a Guarantee that means business and protects you against disappointment.

Each suit is guaranteed to last long and to look well as long as it lasts. How much good is a suit to you if, after it's a couple of months old, it loses its style and looks "seedy" and "baggy"?

That's what any part-cotton suit will do. But no Clothcraft suit will do that.

And these all-wool Clothcraft Clothes sell at the same prices as part-cotton clothes—$10 to $25. Every man who has seen these wonderful clothes is delighted. You will be too. Come in and see them today.

WEATHER FORECAST

(By Associated Press.)
OREGON—Fair tonight and Sunday.

New Logging Camp.—Bernard Doyle and James Cowan have bought the timber on what is known as the Judd claim on South Coos River from Henry Sengstacken and will open a camp at once to log the same.

Big Salmon Run.—The biggest run of salmon in the bay this year started yesterday and big catches were made for the Empire cannery. The salmon are beginning to take the troll well and local fishermen are landing some fine ones.

Wed Nineteen Years.—Today is the nineteenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. N. Bolt and the worthy couple have been the recipients of congratulations from their many friends who are aware of the important event.

To Warm the Poor.—The coal exhibit for Seattle Fair furnished by Beaver Hill mine was donated to the Grand Army at the request of Superintendent Mills. Superintendent Hennessey of the Libby mine, ordered the Libby coal exhibit given to a widow with six children.

Exhibit Berries.—M. Bralnard, the well-known Haynes Inlet rancher, has promised to keep strawberries on exhibition at the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce until Thanksgiving to show the dubious ones that berries can be raised here until that date. He brought a number of fine boxes to North Bend this morning.

Pays Fine.—W. S. Chandler went to Justice Pennock's court this morning and entered a plea of guilty to F. S. Dow's charge of assault and battery against him. Justice Pennock imposed a fine of $5 and costs, which was promptly paid. Mr.

Mr. Fulton recently retired from service at the United States navy yards at Bremerton to take charge of the Coast Lighting Company's business in this section, the firm handling gasoline lighting and heating apparatus.

Gets Property.—Henry LaCrosse, the former Coos Bay pioneer who died a few months ago, willed all of his property in Oregon to his daughter, Mrs. Ren Smith. The will was in French and had to be translated before being probated. His property here consisted of thirteen lots on the Coquille, some property in Canada was bequeathed to brothers and sisters of the deceased.

Arrange Boxing Bout.—Chas. Jost has arranged a couple of bouts to be pulled off at the old hall of the Eagles on North Front street, next Tuesday evening. Billy DeCorsey of Los Angeles, and Kid Rayl of Oakland, will go ten rounds to a decision with W. S. Chandler Jr., as referee. As a preliminary, Billy Moore of Aberdeen, and Billy Martin of Coos Bay, will go six rounds to a decision.

Begin Apple Pack.—The packing of the fall apple crop on Coos River will begin next Tuesday. The crop is said to be an unusually good one. The Coos Bay Fruit Growers have contracted the crop to the firm that took the early Gravensteins. Other buyers have been on the Bay since and are greatly non-plussed because they were unable to get in on the crop and are said to be doing a tall line of knocking.
